Pupils of St. Joseph's Academy Entertained Parents and Friends Most Delightfully

The kindergarten pupils of St. Joseph's Academy entertained at most delightful concert yesterday afternoon, their parents and friends thoroughly enjoying same. The little tots very capably carried out the different numbers on the program which included a play, recitations, dialogues, songs, action songs, etc.

The play entitled "The Birdies" Ball' including all the children. was probably the most interesting feature. The children were all dressed to represent the different bird characters. A great amount of time must have been! given to have the children take what the millions of Italians, ize their obligations and the their parts in such a proficient
