WILL OPEN NEW CAPITAL AT CAN-BERRA AND WITH DUCHESS WILL GO TO NEW ZEALAND

LONDON, Nov. 19. - (By Canadian) Press).—The Duke and Duchess of York will be away from England for six months on their trip to Australia and New Zealand, it is shown by the recently issued official itinerary. The primary purpose of the Duke's visit is to officially open the new Australian commonwealth capital at Canberra.

On January 6, they will leave Portsmouth and sail via Las Palmas to Jamaica, where they will arrive on January 20. They will stay three days in Jamaica, after which they will proceed via the Panama Canal to Suva, arriving there on Feurbary 17. They will stay two days in Fiji and will then proceed to Auckland, where they will arrive on February 22.

After spending two days in Auckland they will visit various parts of the North Island of New Zealand, including Rotorua, and will reach Wellington on March 5. They will remain there for three days. Then they will tour the South Island, visiting the West Coast, Chrictchurch, Dunedin and Invercargill, and will sail for Australia on March 22.

On March 26, the Duke and Duchess will arrive at Sydney and will spend 11 days in the State of New South Wales, after which a visit of eight days will be paid to Brisbane and the various parts of Queensland.

This will be followed by a five days' stay in Tasmania, and on April 21 they will arrive in Melbourne, where they will stay until after Anzac Day.

After visiting various parts of Victoria they will leave for Adelaide, which they will reach on April 30.

They will remain in South Australia until they return to Melbourns on May 6. for the ceremony of the transference of the commonwealth capital to Canberra, which will be inaugurated on May 9. On May 12, they will leave Melbourne for Western Australia, where they will spend five days, sailing for home on May 23.

The Duke and Duchess will return via Mauritius, where they hope to spend three days, and the Suez Canal. They hope to be able to pay short visits to Malta and Gibraltar during their passage through the Mediterranean. They are expected to arrive home at Portsmouth on Monday, June 27.

The satisfactory sum of $152 was realized at the bazaar of the Ladies' Aid of Rupert East United Church which was held yesterday afternoon.
