mis transfer to the east the his transfer to the his trans

Wednesday night to the mpany at which he said: am is the first division have spent any length I shall always regard

Li-Cdr. Jack McRae. oding officer, paid tribute ork and effort that Lt. ham "its present peak viency and esprit de (BCMP today, since they

at All the Wrens wen and Watson took train-MCS Star (Hamilton) seek, Lt.-Cmd. John-Ned McLeod, and Subbe married while he

s in charge of decora-

TERRACE

ad Trade, Harry Pnil

a Thanksgiving dance

encies are agents.

wing Monday.

ANCOIS LAKE K Jones is visiting strict is saddened and to hear of the death of ion, 14, son of Corny He was taken to Vanan RCAF plane des-lived until a few years rancols Lake. cay's daughter and her Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton daughter have come from Vancouver, He

Witness Co. other Sept. "Company" ake Your Business

er occur to you that distinctive printed vour particular s give you this & distinctiveness e can he supplied by on pricting depart-

Printing Co.

'SOMETHING NEW" in Friday fare is tender rounds of shrimp cooked in a fragrant sauce of crimson tomato and nippy cheese, then served over crisp waffles, toast, or biscuits. The tomato sauce is ready in short of a jiffy when you use canned condensed cream of tomato soup. This soup is so beautifully blended, so expertly spiced that you need no ingredients other than soup, cheese, and a dash of prepared mustard to produce a wellbalanced sauce.

Royal Purple Ladies Hold Installation of Officers

The Elks Home was the scene of an impressive ceremony Friday night when the officers of the Order of the Royal Purple were installed.

Presiding over the ceremony. was Deputy Supreme Honored Royal Lady Marguerite Robert-Vancouver, assisted by Exalted Ruler Art Murray of Prince Rupert.

Flanked by the drill team, the following ladies stepped forward to receive their badge of royal lady: Mrs. Marie Boy- Agent Mutual Life of Canada is es Pick, lecturing lady; Mrs. T. Mosley, secretary; Mrs. Mar- St. Andrew's Cathedral Conky Gurvich, treasurer: Mrs. Pegzv Pettenuzzo, historian; Mrs. E. Evelyn Hopkins, outer guard; Trustees are Mrs. L. Gerrard, Mrs. D. deBlasse and Mrs. E. Organizational meeting High mony were officers of the Eiks Five Pin Bowling League. En- before this one but I threw them Lodge, Vern Ciccone, exalted tries will be taken at Bowling out." ruler; Don Scherk, chaplain and Alley Desk only up to Saturday, Garnet Hull, secretary.

Following the installations, more teams, efreshments were served in the Prior to her departure for Vancouver today, Mrs. Robertcon party at Club 27.

Coroner's Jury Scores Neglect

five-month-old daughter of and Mrs. Reynold Davis of the world. Crawford Aiyansh, met death by drowning.

The child's two sisters, fouryear-old Barbara Ann, and Winnifred, two, were rescued when the lishboat on which they were sleeping sank while moored at

The jury said the drowning was caused by the parents neglecting to take adequate protection in looking after their children while aboard a boat tied up at the floats.

readers

Meeting of Job's Daughters, Friday, Oct. 3, 8 p.m. Initiation.

Mrs. Grace McIntyre, honored . Richard Sephton, District chuck, associate royal lady; Mrs. on one of his periodic visits. Elise Hull, loyal lady; Mrs. Ag- Prince Rupert Hotel. Phone 437.

> gregational Dinner, Thanksgiv-1952. Admission by ticket only > School P.T.A. will meet Monday, Oct. 6, 8:15 p.m. Use new school entrance. All parents invited.

Also assisiting in the cere- . Last chance to enter Men's |"I wrote a couple of other books Oct. 4. League can place six · Rally Day at the Regular Baptist Sunday School tomor- before Canada was colonized, row morning at 11 o'clock. Come tendance. Program arranged by

BRIGHT STAR

DORDUS. One of the most luminou sstars known, is about 500,000 times brighter than the

Peter Pan Gift Shoppe

Phyllis Pullen NOVELTIES - SOUVENIRS GREETING AND EVERYDAY CARDS HANDCRAFTS - GIFTWARE THIRD AVENUE WEST (Next to Daily News)

Phone Blue 709

GET INTO A HIGHLY PROFITABLE BUSINESS OF YOUR OWN FOR ONLY Il with polio, and he a short time. Joe was distributorship for GLASSRAY RADIANT ELECTRIC HEATING is still open for your area. Manufacturer is offering franchise for $2500-approximately $2500 additional working capital required.

OUTLAY

is the first important development in home heating in 20 years-the first practical, economical, PROVEN forward step the heating industry has taken in years.

Case histories of successful lower mainland distributorships available on enquiry. No previous experience necessary-full training provided. Sales potential excellent in your community with low cost electrical service and high cost for other heating fuels.

EASY INSTALLATION

Enquire

. NO MAINTENANCE

NO FUEL STORAGE

Liberal Dealer Discounts - B.C. Product

Drake Electric Heat Lid.

Winter Wear Accent is on Fur-Trimmed Fashion

By MURIEL NARRAWAY

Canadian Press Staff Writer ion writers got down to the annual job of telling the public how to inject the Paris touch into existing wardrobes.

And this year, it seems, London and Paris couture designers up-to-date fur fabric with the are combining to make things "sheeny" look of a real fur. The

Take, for instance, the detach- more than one suit. able cowl collar known as the "wide loop," used by both Jacques Fath and Jean Desses of

Girl Student's Book Wins McGill Prize

Canadian girl with a dash of Irish in her ancestry as well as a family tradition of direct descent from Cromwell has good reason to feel pleased with herself these days.

A novel of hers not only won McGill University's Chester Mc-Naughton prize for creative writing, but has also been accepted for publication in three countries Canada, the United States and Great Britain,

The book is "Black Bass Rock" and the young author-Marianni. MacDonald. This fall she enters her third year in arts at McGill honoring in English and meantime is working in an experiment laboratory at MacDonald

Miss MacDonald wouldn't hazard a guess as to how the Cromwell and the Irish got confused In her ancestry, but she has definite ideas about her future

"I'd like to take my master's degree at McGill, and then if it can be managed, go to Cambridge to study. After that, think I'd like a post teaching at | ing buyer: a university," she says.

Her novel, which is scheduled to be published in November, is an adventure mystery story designed for boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 14 years. She started the book when she was 14 years old and finished it at 17 after three revisions.

"I decided to become a writer when I was eight," she smiled

HISTORIC GROUNDS Cod fishers from France and Portugad worked on the grand banks of the North Atlantic long

POPULAR TRIMMING It is especially useful in an

You don't have to be clever with your hands to bring a touch of Mayfair to that office suit. Imagine the magic that can be fits. given a plain black suit by an egg-shaped hat in ocelot fur fabric matched to a triangular shoulder tie.

Egg-shaped hats have been a No. 1 favorite since Princess Margaret chose one, in white grosgrain, to wear this summer. They can be purchased in all types of fur fabrics, in felt and velvet, for as little as £1.

With the foremost designers of London and Paris using fur trimming on collars, cuffs, pockets and peplums, most big stores re selling fur-fabric trimmings from two to 12 inches wide. There are also cloth lengths in 48-inch widths in beaver, ocelot and Persian lamb. HARD TO COPY

More difficult to copy is the petal-sleeved stole by Hube: de Givenchy-a young designer who only recently swept to notice in Paris and captivated North American buyers.

We have built a reputation for rair dealing on

CERTIFIED USED CARS

satisfy the most discriminat-

1951 FORD FORDOR- twotone, only 21,000 1950 FORD FORDOR-

A well kept car $1800 1947 FORD FORDOR-Very neat

SPECIAL OFFER One only 1950 MONARCH CONVERTIBLE - Every possible extra. Truly a dream car. Priced right $2550

Paris. This is just a deep loop! This black velvet stole, its ends of material that can be made in sewn to form a sleeve that ends any fabric and twisted as you in petals or velvet and pink please round the shoulders of a organza studded with single strapless evening gown, a high- rhinestones, is well worth while. necked woollen suit or a tweed The "sleeve" finishes below the elbow in a tight cuff and gives the effect of a huge, cabbage rose-very effective with a plain

The simplest accessory to copy easier than ever for the home key-note of winter styles is fur is the shoulder stole used by dressmaker. Many of the latest, trimming of all kinds on every- Lachasse of London. About 18 most sumptuous details for win- thing from ground-length even- inches wide, the originals were ter clothes are extremely easy to ing gowns to tent-like, poodle of matching tweed lined with cloth coats that could go over velvet, swathed round the front of a suit and tied at back. It can, however, be made in many materials including two shades of velvet and is useful for many out-

Our best-seller your best buy

ARROW DART

NONWILT COLLAR KEEPS FRESH ALL DAY LONG

$4.95

Here's why more men ask us for Arrow Dart than any other shirt. It's made with the famous nonwilt medium-point collar that looks good on everyone. Carries the Mitoga trademark that means it's tapered for better fit. "Sanforized" broadcloth. Stock up today on Arrow Dart.

MEN'S CLOTHING

NOTICE TO ALL B.C. CITIZENS

On September 26, 1952, changes in the B.C. Hospital Insurance Regulations concerning dependency were announced. The following B.C.H.I.S. regulations outline who may be claimed as a dependent of a "head of a family."

HEAD OF A FAMILY means a person whether married or not, who is responsible for the support of one or more dependents.

DEPENDENT means a person who is proven to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to be:

- (a) The spouse of the head of a family, or
- (b) A person under sixteen years of age mainly supported by the head of a family and over whom, in law or in fact, the head of a family has complete custody and control, whether exercised jointly with another person or not, or
- (c) An unmarried person over 15 years of age and under 19 years of age who is mainly supported by the head of a family and over whom, in law or in fact, the head of a family has complete custody and control, whether exercised jointly with another person or not, or
- (d) An unmarried son or daughter, brother or sister, over 18 years of age and under 21 years of age who is mainly supported by the head of a family and a student at a secondary school, university, or other educational institution recognized by the Commissioner, or
- (e) An unmarried son or daughter, brother or sister, including a son-inlaw, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law or sister-in-law, over 18 years of age who is financially dependent upon the head of a family by reason of physical or mental infirmity, or
- (f) A parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, or grandparent-in-law who is financially dependent on the head of the family.

It should be noted that special application to the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service is required to list dependents as outlined in sections "d", "e" and "f".

THE B.C. HOSPITAL INSURANCE SERVICE

HON, ERIC MARTIN, Minister

L. F. DETWILLER. Commissioner

Granddaughter of City Pioneers Enters Nunnery in St. Ann Order

Special to The Daily News

LONG BEACH, Calif.-Claire Arseneau, daughter of Mrs. J. A. Verwoerd, Long Beach, Calif., and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gratton, pioneers of Prince Rupert, recently entered the religious profession as Sister Mary Annalie, of the order of the Sisters of St. Ann, in Victoria, B.C.

Gifted in music, Sister Annalie assumes the post of piano teacher in St. Ann's Academy, New Westminster, for the coming term.

THE ROTARY

will start fall rehearsals

Friday Evening, October 10 at 8 p.m.

in the

CIVIC CENTRE

If you enjoy group singing you are cordially invited to join us.

This firm favourite, a sparkling extra dry lager is served with pleasure all year round. Here in British Columbia the pure soft water and gentle climate combine with the skill and patience of the brewers to bring you Lucky

"Be Happy Get Lucky

LUCKY LAGER BREWING CO. LTD.

New Westminster, B.C.

ALSO BREWERS OF BURTON TYPE ALE This advertisement is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia