FAGE TWO

THE DAILY NEWS PRINCE RUPERT - BRITISH COLUMBIA. Published Every Afternoon, except Sunday, by Prince Rupert Daily News, Limited, Third Avenue. H. F. PULLEN - - Managing Editor. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: City Delivery, by mail or carrier, per month $1. By mail to all parts of the British Empire and the United States, in advance, per year To all other countries, in advance, per year $7.50 night in the Westholfne Theatre to a Transient Display Advertising, per inch per insertion $1.40 Players' Club for the benefit of

Transient Advertising on Front Page, per inch $2.80 Gyre Playground Fund. Of that light Local Readers, per insertion per line Classified Advertising, per insertion per word Legal Notices, each insertion per agate line Contract Rates on Application.

> Advertising and Circulation Telephone - 98 Editor and Reporters Telephone -- - 86

All advertising should be in The Daily News Office before 2 p.m. bers of the club participating in the on day preceding publication. All advertising received subject presentation, many of them making their debut on the local stage, manito approval. Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations. fested histrionic talents that were surrising but accepted with much ap-Wednesday, Dec. 8, 1926 preciation. DAILY EDITION.

OCAL AMATEURS SCORE SUCCESS

THE DAILY NEWS

HELD ON SATURDAY

BY TERRACE W.A.

FINE PRESENTATION OF MRS. TEM-PLE'S TELEGRAM-WILL BE. REPEATED TONIGHT

A reality splendid entertainment was the three-act farce "Mrs. Temple's $6.00 Telegram" which was presented last large audience by the Prince Rupert 25c character which ever proves acceptable, 2c the play afforded some three hours of 15c solid amusement and, with each member of the cast carrying out his or her role in acceptable manner, the play went over strong and the success of last night should draw another crowded house at the second showing this evening. Indeed the nine mem-

An Amusing Letter From An American Doctor -With a Moral

"During my tour of Western Canada I was introduced to your Beef Extract and found it to be the second best drink out there. I believe you will forgive me when I place the good old drinks of our by-gone days at the head of my list, but I find your product an excellent thing for the 'morning after'."

Original letter in possession of Bovril Ltd., Montreal.

PRINCE RUPERT'S WEATHER BETTER.

While most places on the continent have suffered inconvenience and damage from unfavorable weather this fall and winter, Prince Rupert, the so-called place of rain and storms, has been fortunate in having even better weather than usual in these last few manner. boisterous months. Even as close at Seattle high wind caused considerable damage only a week ago. Records of the past few years represented by Sydney Hunter who alculminating in most favorable conditions here this fall would in- so displayed considerable talent in his dicate that an improvement, for some reason, has come about in re- first stage appearance. The role, while gard to local weather.

PRINCE RUPERT GETTING PUBLICITY.

A prominent local business man, and incidentally not a member of that political party which is charged sometimes with boosting on the scene as Jack Temple's adviser this town too much, said recently that Prince Rupert has become and he displayed an aptitude and better advertised and her progress has been more discussed in the past six months than during the whole period of her previous existence. This has been due to the port taking its place on the map as a depot for world commerce. The city is thus gaining a great deal indirectly in addition to what material benefits there may be in connection with the operation of the elevator here.

LOOKING TOWARD CIVIC ELECTION.

It might seem time-worn advice to suggest that, now the mu- of roles, that on many occasions prove while the home-cooking and candy nicipal elections are in sight, the best timber possible should be put Trying, were splendid. in the field for election to civic office next month, but the next year may really see much opportunity for Prince Rupert which might mean great things if it were properly availed. In fact there should bride and her "compromise" with Jack be capable people in charge of the city's affairs at all times particu- Temple was effectively portrayed in larly when the general atmosphere of the country is on the up- Miss Fisher's well known and popular grade as it is now.

The heaviest role of the evening, that of Mrs. Jack Temple, the leading lady. was sustained by Miss E. K. Mackay a manner that left little to be desired. From her first pyjama clad appearance in the morning to the last

Jack Temple, the leading man, was not the heaviest, was one of much importance and was creditably carried

The heaviest men's role was that of SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR Throughout the play Palmer was ever eleverness that should be capable of great development.

John Brown and Mrs. Brown the TERRACE, Dec. 8 .- Despite very unparts of which were taken by George favorable weather conditions, the Pearson and Miss Nora Rivett respec- Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican tively, were the character roles of the Church held a very successful bazaar on evening and they could hardly have Saturday in Progress Hall. A varied been imagined to have been in better display of fancy work, plain sewing. hands. These two were the grotesque knitted goods, etc., testified to the inmirth producers and their performances terest and untiring efforts of the ladies, booths were as usual laden with a great Mrs. Frank Fuller, represented by variety of tempting-looking supplies. A white elephant booth was a novel Miss Louie Fisher, was a winsome leature this year. This proved quite an attraction and heiped swell the funds onsiderably. The tea tables were very well patronized all afternoon. manner. Miss Virginia Riel, as a wil-

THE MORAL IS, "BOVRIL PUTS BEEF INTO YOU"

To Every Quite a lot of discussion took place in our office concerning the publication of the above letter, but we concluded that the good sense of the general Reader public would understand that the letter is, in its own way, a tribute to the remarkable restorative properties of our world-famous Fluid Beef, Bovril, which is a wonderful "pick me up".

Bovril Limited, Montreal-Sales Representatives for Canada: Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Astoria Shoes For Work or Play

Because of their authoritative style and unmistakeable quality, and the long-wearing goodness of the selected leathers from which they are made.

