"Immigration is a crying need] in this country," said Dr. Mac-Gregor. "Our expansive, fertile fields invite the coming of hundreds of men and women into this land of promise but we must be very particular regarding the types that we admit. Unfortunately no small percentage of those finding their ways here at the present time and for some time past, have been of a definitely inferior type. Many of them! Measures For Defectives

Dr. MacGregor said that this! suggested a consideration of the defective. With the imbecile and idiot the matter resolved itself into confinement in an institution, provision for which had been for some time made. For the minor types of mental defective, the moron, however, no measure for public protection was available unless he could be committed voluntarily or got into difficulty which brought him Prince within the law.

"Is it not time," said the doctor, "that some arrangement for permanently taking care of this group be instituted in order that they, by some means, may be prevented from propagating their kind. The medical profession can here step in and help to generations."
