Picture Show Wrong Call Umpire in World Series

NEW YORK — A picture sequence of yesterday's world game appeared today to show that American League pitcher Art Passarella made a wrong call—and Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick admitted it.

Passarella called New York Yankee pitcher Johnny Sain first base in the 10th inning. Pictures, taken by Associated Press photographer John Lindsay, showed Sain's foot on the base and the ball not yet in first baseman Gil Hodges' glove.

According to the pictures, it looks like Passarella called "out," Frick said.

"He did, he's only human. I assure you it's not the first time he's ever made by an umpire."

Still 'Welfare' State

Churchill Ends First Year as Peacetime P.M.

JAMES F. KING
(AP) — Winston Churchill, winding up his first peacetime prime ministerial year, still a welfare state.

The old soldier-statesman still is quick on his feet in swapping verbal punches in House of Commons debates. His hearing is not so good these days—sometimes he even wears a hearing aid—but he's lost none of the knack of turning a sharp phrase.

WINNING BATTLE
Expect more to get dollars; younger backbenchers in his own Conservative Party—but nothing so serious to even suggest a revolt.

The prime minister quickly squelched suggestions a few months ago that he surrender some of his duties to Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, his heir-apparent for party leadership.

New Program For Oakalla

VICTORIA — Attorney General Bonner today announced an emergency program to correct the "shocking conditions" in overcrowded Oakalla prison, the scene of last week's riots.

The government plans to hire 68 additional guards and abolish the trust system of using a trusted prisoner to help administer the prison; to build temporary additional hutments to accommodate 640 prisoners; and change the entire locking system of the jail.

Plans to transfer some prisoners to the penitentiary as a stop-gap measure also will be studied.

Bonner paid tribute to Warden Christie and his staff for the manner in which they handled the riots.

Three Springs Weighed in Salmon Derby

Three spring salmon were weighed yesterday with Eric Martin's 11-pound 10-ounce headling the list.

Two others were weighed in by Tom Wilford, each in the four-pound class.

Martin got his salmon while fishing off the Yacht Club floats, while Wilford, who hooked and landed a third, got all three in the harbor between the drydock and Seal Cove.

This is the final week of the general and weekly derbies. The Grand Derby opens Oct. 11.

Yanks Edge Dodgers in Sixth Game

BROOKLYN (CP)—A pair of mighty homers by Yogi Berra and Micky Mantle matched the pair by Brooklyn's Duke Snider as the Yankees beat the Dodgers 3-2 in the sixth game of the World Series today.

This squared the series at three games each.

The four homers, bringing the series total to a new record high of 14 were the big blows, but a freak single by Yankee starting pitcher Vick Raschi also helped to decide the game.

Just after Berra's homer had tied the count at 1-1, Raschi caromed-hit a liner off the knee of opposing pitcher Billy Loes for a base hit that scored Gene Woodling from second.

That put the Yanks ahead 2-1 in the seventh inning, and Mantle made it 3-1 in the eighth before Snider unloaded his circuit blast in the last half of the eighth. He got his first in the sixth inning.

GEORGE SHERWOOD
... on "Bond Beat"

B.C. Coast Organized in Bond Drive

One of the more rugged "Bond Beats" in Canada is the Coast Division, B.C. Region.

Each year, when the opportunity is given Canadians to save by buying Canada Saving Bonds, organizers throughout Canada start in to help plants and industrial firms set up the pay-roll deduction system.

This man in the Coast Division starts in on an area from Howe Sound to Prince Rupert and deep into the rugged hinterland.

This man, too, is George Sherwood, who did the same job last year. By public and private boat, car, planes and rail, he is lining up the mines and mills, plants and camps, in the area that last year bought $1,188,300 worth of thrift through the payroll plan.

The "Lucky Seventh" loan opens Oct. 14.

Mr. Sherwood, who is borrowed from the T. B. Read & Co., Vancouver, took over the Coast Division from the veteran organizer, Harry Bird, last year.

Young Viscount Shows Early Love for Music

LONDON — A little-photographed royal baby is David, Viscount Lascelles, who will be two years old Oct. 21.

Twelfth in line of succession to the throne, the young viscount already shows something of his parents' love of music. He sits enthralled listening to records and "Children's Hour," a BBC radio program for the younger set.

David's parents are the Earl and Countess of Harewood, whose mutual love of music led to the wedding-of-the-year in 1949.

The dark-haired Lady Harewood formerly Maria Stein, believes that a mother should bring up her own children. So, although there is a "Nanny" for general routine, David spends much time with his mother, mostly outdoors at the Harewood estate near Leeds.

If she has no engagements, Lady Harewood takes charge of her son after his afternoon walk—and there's always a music session before bedtime. David likes it best when his mother plays the piano.

Once a week at least, he goes to see his maternal grandparents at their home in Kensington. He is also a great favorite with his father's mother, Princess Mary. An ever greater occasion is a visit to Marlborough House to see "Great Grand-mamma," Queen Mary. She is a favorite with all the royal children.

HISTORIC HIGHWAY

The first highway in Canada was that built early in the 18th century between Quebec and Montreal.

One-Quarter Remains to be Done on Road Near Galloway

The Public Works Department has ordered a halt to work on the last portion of the project now underway on Highway 16, just east of Galloway apids Bridge.

Jack Barber, superintendent of Wood & McClay, contractors on the mile-long job which involves elimination of a series of dangerous curves, said today he was advised verbally by resident engineer Harry Little on Saturday to cease operations on the eastern end of the project.

"We have not received official notification but the engineer said that because of lack of money the size of the project must be reduced with the result that about a quarter of the road under construction will have to be left uncompleted unless we get new instructions."

Stan McClay, who left here Saturday for Vancouver after a week-long survey of the project, in a telephone conversation with Barber said he will take the matter up with the Public Works Department immediately.

Contract for the job totalled approximately $200,000.

Barber said the contractors have gone ahead with bulldozing and other excavation work on the assumption of completing work called for under the contract.

"We were told the government has only $150,000 of the money allotted for the job and on Saturday we pulled all our equipment and men from the eastern end."

W. W. Meighen, divisional engineer for the Public Works Department, asked to comment on the move, said "the contract is going to be a little smaller than originally planned but the major portion will be completed."

He indicated that the amount of work will be completed by the contractors will cost approximately $150,000, but the remainder cannot be done unless further money is allocated.

WILL BE GRAVELLED

The uncompleted portion will, however, be gravelled, to allow freedom of traffic during the winter months. With this graveling and completion of graveling near Kwinitsa, the 1952 works program on the highway will be completed.

If the government goes through with its move not to complete the job with the

Malenkov Barrages U.S. 'Bosses'

MOSCOW — George M. Malenkov opened the 19th All-Soviet Communist Party congress last night with an hour-long denunciation of the United States and its "bosses," who he said were bent on world domination and war on the Soviet Union.

He keynoteed the first such party congress in 13 years.

Joseph Stalin and an audience of 2,000 delegates heard Malenkov as he charged the "bosses" of the United States had decided to "wreck peace and prepare a new war" on the Soviet Union.

Malenkov admitted Soviet hierarchy still has underground opposition in Russia.

"Whenever any organization is weak an attempt is always made by elements of anti-Lenin groups to secure control of them," he said.

WINSTON CHURCHILL, British Prime Minister, warns Britons times will be difficult and even dangerous for some time yet.
