Brewing is an important industry in British Columbia

EW citizens give thought to what the Brewing Industry means to British Columbia, as an industry, yet it is an important factor in the industrial life of this province.

It is not necessary to emphasize the millions of dollars invested in the brewing industry in this province. The thing that must not be lost sight of is that there are hundreds of men employed throughout the year in the making, storing and transporting of the products of the breweries of British Columbia.

Breweries are constantly improving and keeping modern their plants. The Amalgamated Breweries of British Columbia have spent over $300,000 in the last few months for improvements and equipment.

Breweries are an important customer of the farmers of British Columbia, their purchases of grain and hops running into huge figures each year. There is no British Columbia industry that spends more of its total income right in this province than the brewing industry.

The brewing industry brings large sums of money into the province. British Columbia beer is attracting attention abroad for its purity and high quality. Export markets in Australasia, China and India, are constantly growing.

British Columbia beers are winning their way in these countries in direct competition with beers from Great Britain, Germany and Czecko-Slovakia. They are winning their way on quality and they are powerful advertisements for this province.

Facts like these are not romantic, but they are important and should be considered by every citizen. They are not commonly mentioned by those whose business it is to attempt to destroy the brewing industry in their determination that the people of British Columbia shall be prevented from enjoying a pure and healthful beverage in an open and above board manner.

Proof of the high quality of the beer manufactured by the Amalgamated Breweries is the remark on recent analysis made by McDonald and McDonald, analytical chemists of Vancouver, stating:

"By the analysis, samples prove to be excellent beer. They are high in extract, nitrogenous matter, phosphoric acid and ash, while the acidity is low and the volatile acidity practically nil, which is proof that the beer is a wholesome nutritious beverage."

GOODLY CROWD OF DANCERS EN-JOYED THE EVENING THOROUGH-LY UNDER PLEASING CONDI-

The annual hospital ball, one of the social events of the season proved just as enjoyable as ever this year. It was held last night at the Auditorium and was well attended and all present had a good time. The occasion was enhanced by the presence of a number of outside visitors including the head of the wheat pool and the representative of shipping interests and others who were in the city in connection with the business of the port.

The general management was in the capable hands of Mrs. Parson, president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Stork, Mrs. Reddie and Mrs. John Dybhavn. They looked after the refreshments and decorations and were responsible for the success.

Music was provided by Mrs. Ponder's augmented orchestra, consisting of Mrs. Ponder, and Messrs. Eastman, White, Greenwood, and Derry, while Miss Hilchey played during the supper. Mrs. Pyle had charge of the raffles and she did a good business. Mrs. L. W. Kergin drew the winning number for the luncheon set which was won by Mrs. R. B. Skinner with number 976.

Fred Pyle and A. J. Galland were at the door and Dr. W. T. Kergin, Dr. L. W. Kergin, and Olof Hanson helped with the supper. Patronesses present were thon on Thursday. Messrs. Stewart and Thompson and Miss Harrison, Alderman W. M. Brown made an efficient master of ceremonies.
