Regret Passing Of Western Hockey.

Everyone interested in sport will regret the passing of hockey as a western pastime. It is all moved east and the Pacific coast seems to be left in the lurch.

Next winter western people will take more interest in eastern hockey because they will find among the players the stalwarts of former days at Victoria, Vancouver or Portland. Whether other teams will be formed in the west to take the place of those who have gone is doubtful. There has of late been a slackness about attending the hockey matches. The sport seemed to deteriorate and the fans were not always of the best order. Perhaps in a year or two, the game may come back with renewed vigor.

Sowing Wheat This Year In Interior.

Some of the farmers of the interior are sowing wheat this year since they expect to have a ready market for the product at Prince Rupert. One Prince George farmer has 25 acres in crop, not a large area but a good start. If others do the same there will be a large acreage in crop and every year this will increase. If grain growing proves profitable more land will be cleared, more settlers will come and everyone will benefit.

Some time ago it was mentioned that hay was the alternative crop but it must be remembered that a farmer cannot grow hay regularly without impairing the efficiency of his farm. The soil will in time grow less productive and crops gradually less. By growing grain there is always the straw for the use of the young cattle and for other purposes around the farm.

Both Canneries To Be Operated This Year.

Both the Prince Rupert Cannery at Tuck's Inlet and the Somerville cannery in the city near Seal Cove are to be operated this year by the Somerville Cannery people. This will be an advantage to the city and will add something to the payroll. Every industry, great or small, that operate here is worth a lot to us. The more population we have the better we can pay our taxes, improve our streets and the modern facilities will be introduced.

After Head Of Conservative Leader.

The Montreal Star tell Mr. Meighen that he cannot possibly get any more Parliamentary supporters from the other provinces and hasn't a ghost of a chance of getting any more from Quebec, says the Edmonton Bulletin.

True, so far as present appearances go. But why should the "whisper of death" organ start cheering up the country by broadcasting the good news at this juncture in column-long invitations to Mr. Meighen to vacate the party leadership?

No doubt Mr. Meighen has his drawbacks, and perhaps there are men who could lead the party better. But the chief of his drawbacks is the gang of political assassins headed by Lord Atholstan and represented by the Star; and the present leader cannot possibly be as unpopular as anybody they would be likely to choose as his successor.

In The Letter Box

LAW ENFORCEMENT.

Editor Daily News.

It seems from the trend of events in this town that a word in season of caution may fittingly be said.

What I have got to say is—this: The power of the law should never be applied in a cruel or vindictive spirit; such is not the purpose of law and law administered in that spirit is criminal and the administrator is himself a criminal, doubly dangerous because of his opportunities.

Yours faithfully,
MALCOLM MATHESON.

TWO WEDDINGS
LAST EVENING

English Girls United in Marriage at St. Andrew's Cathedral to Anyox Men

St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral was the scene of two interesting and pretty marriage ceremonies last night. Rev. Walter Allen officiating, when two English girls, who arrived in the city from the Old Country the day previous, were united in marriage to young Anyox bridegrooms. The church was daintily decorated for the occasion with spring flowers and foliage.

Miss Sophia Mather Plumb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Plumb, South Shields, England, was wedded to George Hunter. The bride wore a pretty two-piece silver gray costume with hat and footwear to match and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and roses. She was attended by her friend, Mrs. M. Peel, who wore a heliotrope two piece dress with hat to match. The bride was given in marriage by A. R. Hunter and the groom was attended by J. Hunter. The gift of the bridegroom to the bride was a pearl pendant and to the matron of honor a pearl brooch.

The second marriage was that of Miss Isabel Carmichael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Carmichael, to Robert Ellison. The bride wore a pretty dress of pale blue crepe-de-chine with hat and footwear to match and carried a bouquet of carnations and roses. She was attended by her mother whose costume was of navy blue with hat to match. The bride was given away by her father and the groom was supported by the bride's brother, A. Carmichael.

After the weddings, a wedding supper and reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hunter, 675 Hays Cove Circle, with fourteen guests present. The evening was delightfully spent with music, cards and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Ellison will sail tonight for Anyox where the grooms are employed by the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Co. Other members of the bridal parties will also go north.

KETCHIKAN FIRE
MONDAY MORNING

Damage Amounted to $4,000 and Occupants of Brice Apartments had to Hurry to Escape

KETCHIKAN, May 5. — Occupants of the Brice Apartments on Grant Street escaped from that building shortly after 1.15 o'clock Monday morning when fire of undetermined origin swept the upper story and did damage estimated at $4,000. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

Mrs. William Parke was forced to climb through a second story window and make her way to the ground by adjoining roofs when her escape through the regular entry was cut off by the flames. Other residents in the building, all of whom were forced to flee in scanty garb included: Miss Nellie Nelson, Mrs. W. I. Levy, Miss Anna Johnson, Miss Clara Holton, and Miss Anna Hanson. No one was injured.

The fire was not discovered until it had gained considerable headway and the south end of the building was a mass of flames.

The quick response of the firemen to the call and their efficient service after reaching the conflagration saved the lower portion of the building and surrounding property.

The upper floor was virtually destroyed and the furnishings both up and downstairs were damaged considerably by fire and water.

J. C. McLENNAN IS 1926 ASSESSOR

Recommendation of Finance Committee Adopted by City Council Last Night

J. C. McLennan has been re-appointed city assessor for 1926 at the usual salary of $600 per year. The finance committee's recommendation that Mr. McLennan again be assessor, was concurred in by the city council last night.

THE MAN IN THE MOON

IN these unhappy days you never can tell whether a man is married or has the flu.

WHEN you hear of a still being operated on one of the islands near Prince Rupert you know they are just trying to put on side.

NOW that we are to have the streets resurfaced doubtless there will be more taxi cars go into service. At present there's only one for each dozen of the inhabitants, which anyone will realize is quite inadequate.

HE went home and hung his overcoat on his wife and kissed the coat tree in the hall and then later declared he was not drunk.

OLD Adam was a lucky guy. He never had to worry. There were no strikes in Adam's day.

To set folks in a flurry.

IT is reported that the pool rooms are unusually well patronized these days because Dad has to go somewhere while the spring cleaning is on.

THE house is almost upside down.

There's not a place to sit. Because my wife has got the bug—

A real housecleaning fit.

She makes me do without my meals.

And shoos me from the door. And if I venture to protest.

She answers with a roar.

LIFE is just one April shower after another.

THE people who built the road in the direction of Galloway Rapids left only one parking place by the roadside. That won't help much, will it?

"Tailor ain't you?" inquired Jake.

"Sews your old man," was the reply.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

May 5, 1916.

J. G. Steen has found it necessary, on account of expanding business, to move his tin shop into the building on Fraser St. formerly occupied by Arthur Little's poolroom.

The Booth Fisheries Co., having decided to enter the halibut industry here, is calling for tenders for the construction of a warehouse on the west end of the Grand Trunk Pacific dock. William Maddock will be buyer for the company at this port.

Two representatives of the Naas River Indians, Charles Barton and Andrew Meiser, have gone to Ottawa to protest to the federal government against alleged violations of their rights by the provincial government.

WITH THE CANADIANS

Rev. H. R. Sanborn Takes Charge of Episcopal Church at Ketchikan

KETCHIKAN, May 5.—A clergyman, who formerly was an officer in the Canadian forces overseas and who later fought with the Americans until the end of the war, has taken charge of the Episcopal congregation here. He is Rev. H. R. Sanborn, a graduate of the University of Washington as Bachelor of Science, while in the British army he was for some time chief of staff of the tenth infantry brigade in the eighth division under General Bradley. He is a graduate of the Virginia theological seminary and has since been chaplain to the destroyer squadron of the U.S. navy at San Diego with the rank of Lieutenant. He was special preacher at the Episcopal convention in Kansas City and lecturer in Stanford memorial chapel at Stanford University.

W. T. Esselmont, who has severed his connection with the Bank of Montreal at Stewart, is a visitor in the city and will return to Stewart to enter other activities. Mr. Esselmont is being relieved temporarily at Stewart by G. G. Service of the local branch.
