THOUGHTLESSNES OF PEOPLE WHO ANNOY OTHERS

Jack Miner Tells of Nuisances Who Invade the Privacy of His Home.

Jack Miner, the nature lover, who keeps a bird sanctuary down at Kingsville, Ontario ,has been having some trouble with people who take too many liberties when they come to visit his place. He says that he used to think it very selfish of a man to build a high fence around his garden or to put up a gate at the entrance that seemed to mean, "You stay out;" but after the experiences he has been having himself he has come to the conclusion that it is necessary to take such precautions as a protection against "the well-meaning thoughtless public."

Keeping an open house, home, and grounds, as Mr. Miner has done for fifteen years past, brings out the various and peculiar ways people have of using or abusing their privileges as guests. In an article he has sent out to the leading Canadian newspapers he tells of some of his experiences, as follows:

Hello Jack

"One day, as we were coming home from church, a Ford car went by. A voice shouted, 'Hello Jack!' and out of the open side of the car a man was waving a big bunch of Darwin tulips. I presume that was his way of letting me know that during my absence he had honored me by a visit. As soon as I arrived home and could break away from the people who were there to greet me, I strolled over to my choice tulip bed. It was an aggravating sight. For this innocent, ignorant man had plucked the whole side bare, and for those tulips I had paid a shilling apiece. I cannot think wrong of that man, because he evidently thought tulips came up like grass—a nice new lot of blooms the next day.

"Waiting For Jack"

"Well, that same day, in the afternoon, we came home again to find in the road in front of the house a lineup of cars. People were tramping all over our premises and had frightened every bird away. All mudded in around the house were eight or ten old, hard-tire, balloon-top cars that didn't appear to have had a bath since the hail storm of 1912. When we got to the door of our home we were greeted with another 'Hello, Jack! Say, Jack, we came right in and made ourselves at home. Jack, I want you to meet my people from Smithville. We've been all over the place, but they wanted to meet you.'

"We found from 20 to 30 people in our house, strangers we had never seen before nor since, and they used our home from bathroom to kitchen. Imagine, if you can, what the place was like. They had tramped all over the twenty-five acres of sticky clay and then all over the house, smoking and spitting, 'waiting for Jack to come home.'

No Smoking

"I have signs 'NO SMOKING PLEASE' posted in many places throughout my buildings, and yet an aged man, right in my presence, deliberately walked up and struck a match on one of them and started his pipe agoing.

"Not so long ago, when we were eating dinner, I heard a horn blowing at our door. As I approached, a gruff voice said, 'Who in —— parked their car right in this drive?' 'Pardon me, Mister,' I said, 'that is my car.' 'Well, isn't this public property?' was his reply.

Hard Learned Lessons

"What I have mentioned are only flashes of what I have had to endure on my own property. When you see a fence in front of my place, please don't blame me for it. It is the hardest job I ever went at. It is the thoughtless public that have erected that fence, not Jack Miner, I think I have done remarkably well in holding out as long as I have, when, in our public parks, to say nothing about a private home, there has to be a man wearing a blue coat and brass buttons to keep the public from carrying off everything but the grizzly bear. I have tried not to speak a cross word to a living person, but now I am going to add firmness to my list.

"Experience has taught me three lessons. First, you cannot DO anything for the public, nor HAVE anything for the public, unless you CONTROL the public. Second, kindness without firmness is a total failure. Third, and this is best of all, fully 90 per cent of the people that come here are just lovely.

Make It Pay

"Many persons have volunteered advice as to how I could make this a paying proposition, especially on Sunday. I don't know how many have told me to put up a gas station and a hot dog, post card, and general souvenir stand. Oh yes, I could go this suggestion one better. I could have a nice dancing floor, away back among the beautiful growth of evergreens, where all the young folks could come at night. I could charge them twenty-five cents to get in and all the rest they had to get out. I could have a little bootlegging going on in the distance, just far enough away so I could get the big profit and the other fellow get caught and pay the fine. In fact, I could create a little hell right here on my way to heaven.

Next Year A Fence,

"If the people, after looking around the premises, would only leave! But a great percentage of them will stand around our back door. Last summer I saw the members of our household ironing on the back verandah with fifty-three persons looking on and asking questions. This particular bunch stood for over an hour, taking in the sights. The next week our ironing was done in the basement beside a coal oil lamp. What are the comforts of home when you are driven into the basement for privacy and have to lock the doors to keep the thoughtless public out?

"I am going to build a fence this spring. I am going to move my choicest flowers and plant them beside the road so you won't have to ask permission or get out of your car to see them, and at certain times my front gate will be open to the public. Then you can come in and go up to my oblookatory and take a look at the birds. Yes, I am going to change my plan. I am going to try to be kind, yet I am going to be as firm as the British lion.

FIRST AID RINGS ARE PRESENTED BY MAYOR OF WINNIPEG

Montizambert Trophy Goes to Manitoba Capital For First Time

WINNIPEG, Aug. 26.— Mayor Webb presented the members of the Canadian National Fort Rouge shops championship first aid team with signet rings Tuesday evening in his office. The presentation was made as a token of recognition of the honor the team had done itself and the city by bringing the Montizambert trophy for first aid to Winnipeg for the first time. Members of the team were presented to His Worship by Ald. E. T. Leech, Magnus Peterson, City Clerk, produced the rings which were engraved with the words: "Montizambert Champions," with the crest of the City of Winnipeg in the centre of the inscription. Mayor Webb spoke of the past honors the first aid team had won, remarking on the winning of the Montizambert trophy as the championship of all Canada in first aid competition, the Manitoba provincial trophy, the Thornton trophy, emblematic of the championship of Canadian National Railways and the Grand Trunk system in the United States, the championship of the western region and of other minor awards made to the team. He also addressed himself to W. A. Booth, director of safety and first aid of the Canadian National Railways system and to J. Cook, first aid organizer of the western regions of the railway first aid, merited recognition by employees and employers throughout the Dominion, said the Mayor, "instead of a lot of the claptrap stuff they teach in the schools, first aid should be a part of the education of boys and especially of the girls. This applies particularly to rural parts where they are often several miles from the nearest doctors and nurses."

MUMMIFIED HORSE FOUND IN EGYPT

Cairo, Aug. 27—The first mummified horse known to history has been unearthed here near Sakwara pyramid by the department of antiquities of the Egyptian government.

The horse is estimated by American archaeologists to be about 3,500 years old. It was found in a large wooden coffin, indicating that animals in ancient Egyptian times were buried in a similar manner to human beings, the Egyptians believing them to be possessed of a "soul."

The horse is more than sixteen hands in measurement and is in remarkably good condition.

TERMINALS ARE CREEPING UP

Scored Victory Over Native Sons in Senior League Game Last Night.

In a game that was good in spots but very much otherwise some of the time, the Native Sons of Canada were last night taken into camp by the Grand Terminals in the Senior Baseball League by a score of six to 3.

This brings the Terminals, who are in cellar position in the league, to a point where, if they can repeat the victory over the Sons next week, the two teams will be tied for second place, necessitating a play-off for the privilege of going into the post-season play-offs wit hthe Gyro Club.

The Sons were out of their usual form last night and lacked pep but, for all that, it was a close game up to the fifth inning, though the Terminals, who made three runs in the first frame, were always in the lead. With the score 4 to 3 for the Terminals at the beginning of the fifth inning the Sons allowed the Terminals the two runs that put the game on ice. Loblic pitched good ball for the Terminals as did Lambie for the Sons and it was not in their pitching department but through lack of suppart on the field tha tthe Sons lost the game. Pretty catches were made during the game by Vic Menzies, first base, Gordon, short stop, and Loblic.

E. Hudson was umpire of balls and strikes while C. McKeown and Alex. Mitchell officiated on the base lines. The game, which went seven innings, was watched by a good crowd of fans.

The standing of the teams to date is as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Gyros	10	6	.625
Sons of Canada ...	7	8	.466
Terminals	6	9	.400

SPORT CHAT

The appearance in Prince Rupert of Vic Foley, the Vancouver boxer, with a selected opponent, will not be until after the Exhibition. It had been originally intended to have Foley here during Fair Week but plans went amiss and Foley left Vancouver this week to engage in bouts at Toronto and Chicago, and he will not be back to the coast before the end of September. However, the Fair officials have signed Foley for a bout here on his return from the present tour.

The Fair Board had quite made up its mind to something in the pugilistic line this year and the public has been expecting it so efforts are now being made to yet have something along that line during the Fair. The field in Alaska and Vancouver is being looked over and it is hoped within a few days to have something arranged to take the place of the originally intended Foley appearance.
