MEMORIAL FOR

WINDOW IN ST. ANDREW'S CATHED-RAL DEDICATED YESTERDAY

The memorial window in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral to the late Rev. William Hogan, erected by his widow and daughter, was dedicated yesterday by Archdeacon G. A. Rix. It added much to the interest of the service to have the late Mr. Hogan's widow present. The daughter, who is connected with the Hazelton Hospital, was not able to attend. The window, a beautiful piece of work, is particularly interesting in design. The late "Father" Hogan having been an Irishman by birth and having maintained a fervent love for the land of his nativity, it was thought that a window typical of that island would be appropriate and the result produced is both beautiful and suggestive of Ireland. The central figure is St. Patrick with his pastoral staff and Bible. On his feet are portrayed the shamrock and the serpent, the latter this painful disease, read this en- of which, tradition says, St. Patrick banished from the land. At the right is illustrated the famous Celtic Round "Some years ago, I had a severe Tower, one of the two most typical things in Irish history going back even to the prehistoric times. On the left is depicted the other most typical emblem of Irish life, the ancient harp which was carried by the bards who went throughout the country carrying news and inspiring the people with their lays as they chose or were instructed to do. ing text: "Ye shall die like men and fall like one of the princes." wonderful herbal Zam-Buk. It's simply priceless!" says one enthusiastic mother. For injuries, Zam-Buk is the indispensable ever-ready healer. Where there is any skin or scalp disease, Zam-Buk is magical in extracting germs and poisonous impurities and growing new healthy skin. Being prepared exclusively from pure refined herbal essences, all highly concentrated. Zam-Buk retains its medicinal virtues indefinitely. It never goes rancid and useless like fatty salves and ointments do. Yet, whilst so much more safer, purer and reliable, herbal Zam Buk costs no more to buy.

From Stadacona St., Montreal, Mrs. Villiers, writes :- "For healing, give me Zam-Buk! It is the finest thing I know. It saved me from a poisoned hand, rid my three children of scalp sores, and healed my husband's badly crushed finger. We wouldn't be without it at any price. Get a 50c. box to-day, or for FREE SAMPLE mention paper and enclose 1c. stamp to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.
