Undignified Position
Of Federal Parliament.

The Federal Parliament is not a dignified body these days. It is dealing largely with trivialities and scrapping over who shall have control and draw the salary. If the Mackenzie King government resigns and allows Hon. Arthur Meighen to form a government the situation is not improved. It is still a government without a majority of supporters. The alternative is to hold another election at a cost of over two million dollars to the people, hundreds of thousands to the candidates and others and a general upsetting of business.

The only thing to do is to refuse to take the legislators seriously. Let them fight among themselves. Possibly they may yet get into a reasonable frame of mind where they may carry on and do some business.

Oasis In Desert Of Studied Neglect.

The mentioning of Prince Rupert in a newspaper on the other side of the Rocky Mountains is like an oasis in a desert of studied neglect. We hardly look for it now. That is why the mention of this port in the Edmonton Bulletin the other day proved so acceptable here. We could hardly realize that it had happened. It looked almost as if the Eastern and Vancouver grain interests were in complete control there, but we are glad to know they are not.

We feel disposed to thank the Bulletin for this mention. The article was reproduced in this paper yesterday and was very pleasing to us.

Elevator Ready To Ship This Week.

The local grain elevator has attained a degree of advancement toward completion where it is possible not only to take in grain but to ship out grain any time after this week. Many of the buyers have been notified of the fact by the management and great interest is being evinced in the big local house that is now ready to do business. We all hope and many of us believe that the spouts will be pouring out the yellow stream before long into ships that will come here for their cargoes.

Amalgamation Of Paper Mills.

Some weeks ago this paper announced in a special despatch that there was an amalgamation of paper interests which would include the Ocean Falls plant. The story was denied in Vancouver but yesterday there came confirmation of the story in a Canadian Press despatch from New York, where it was given out by Wall Street bankers.

The mills here have been controlled by the Willamette concern for a long time so there is nothing particularly new in it. As long as local interests are properly protected it does not much matter who is in control. Few people ever meet the heads of these big concerns and the public generally is quite careless as to whom it buys from.

British Shipping Co.
Buys In The States.

There is no such thing as loyalty in business. When the British Company which controls the ships plying in the Blue Funnel line found it could buy coal cheaper in Seattle than in British Columbia it did not hesitate to change. American coal was just as good to them as Canadian.

The other day one of our boys left for the United States. Passing from the British flag to the American did not worry him. He scarcely thought about it. The change was likely to be beneficial to him personally so he went. If he succeeds he will very soon become an American. The lad was not considered disloyal because he left the country.

This question of loyalty is a queer thing. It is a survival of a barbaric age. We always admire and sing of the person who is loyal, who sacrifices himself for his country, but there is little sacrifice or sentiment in business. Either business is right or the sentimentalists are right. Both are not.

Viscount Allenby Will be in Victoria on March 5 and Others to Follow

VICTORIA, Jan. 13.—Viscount Allenby, G.C.B., G.C., M.G., K.C.B., will arrive in Victoria on the motorship Aorangi on Friday, March 5, with Viscountess Allenby, and will make a lecture tour of Canada under the auspices of the National Council of Education.

The distinguished soldier's itinerary in this country is such a heavy one that he will probably address only one meeting here, and will proceed East on Sunday, March 7, according to the present schedule.

Viscount Allenby will be followed in April by Dr. Albert

Mansbridge, one of Great Britain's eminent educationists, who is coming to Canada at the invitation of the National Council of Education. This body, it will be remembered, sponsored the speaking tours of Sir Henry Newbolt, Sir Michael Sadler, Mrs. Philip Snowden, Sir John Cowan and other British notables.

Dr. Mansbridge is an honorary M.A. of Oxford and an honorary LL.D. of Cambridge and Manchester. He is best known as the founder of the Workers' Educational Association, which he started in England in 1903 and in Australia in 1913. He was the first secretary of this organization, which has done more, perhaps, than any other society of the kind to make knowledge available to the working man. It was greatly through his achievements in this respect that he won recognition as an organizer and educationist.

FINAL MEETING
SCHOOL BOARD

Reports of Principals Submitted and Routine Business Carried on

At the final meeting of the school board in the city council chamber yesterday afternoon, Trustee Rochester presiding, nothing but routine business was done. Reports of teachers were as follows:

Booth School

Principal Hartness reported total attendance for December 385, boys 204, girls 181, average percentage of attendance 95.63. Best attendance of any room, Division 3, with 97.86.

Borden Street School

Miss Mills reported total attendance 321; boys 162; girls 159; average per centage, 96; best room, Division 1, with 98 per cent.

Seal Cove

Miss Stewart reported total attendance for the month as 59 with an average per centage of 95.

An application from Miss Darlington of the domestic science department for more salary was passed on to the next board.

The accounts were passed and the board adjourned. There were present Trustees Rochester, Johnson, and Fulton, with J. L. Christie secretary, and the principals of each school, including the manual training department present.

place the previous fall in anticipation of the opening of the townsite. None of the rest of the party were now left. Joe Howe came soon after and Athol Fraser, Bob Hanna and W. H. Tobes. Pete Anderson was here in November. One or two others came that year.

High Hopes Then

High hopes were entertained in those days for the future of the place. For years after they had similar hopes but these had many of them not been realized yet, although he believed they would yet be. He said he firmly believed with the building of the elevator, without which the port could not go ahead, that they would see a healthy development of the city and district. A person could write a book about the early days here. He remembered the McIntoshes setting up a post office in a tent and he helped to rescue little Pete Tremayne from a precarious position on the cliff when she was very small.

Mr. Pillsbury said he was glad not to be leaving the service of the railway. Wherever he was located he would expect the Prince Rupert people to come and see them. He told of having left once before in 1907 because the company would not build him a house. He had come back then and he might yet come back here.

The toast to the guest of the evening was then drunk with much singing and enthusiasm.

Other Speakers

The first speaker of the evening was the chairman and toastmaster M. P. McCaffery who referred briefly and humorously to their guest and his good qualities.

Dr. Tremayne said he thought he had known Mr. Pillsbury longer than any present. He had met him first at Metlakatla over twenty years ago. He told of visits made by Mr. Pillsbury and himself to Port Simpson where Mr. Pillsbury immediately became very popular with the ladies. He had always found their guest a true and dependable friend, four square in every way and he wished him every success in his new home.

Consul Wakefield said he was glad to pay tribute of esteem to a friend. They were assembled to do honor to one of their most distinguished citizens. Whenever he went they would never forget him as a good citizen and an honorable gentleman of high integrity. It was with a feeling of sadness they were losing him. His going would leave a gap which it would be hard to fill. Olof Hanson said he had always found Mr. Pillsbury to be a man who was ready to put his shoulder to the wheel. He had hoped their guest would have been president of the Board of Trade this year but this was not to be. They all regretted his going.

Superintendent Speaks

W. H. Toney said he had been close friends with Mr. Pillsbury ever since he had been welcomed by that gentleman on the dock when he had stepped off the steamer Tees in 1906. He was a man of forcible personality. He sincerely regretted his departure.

F. G. Dawson said they were here to do honor to a sterling citizen. All appreciated what he had done. He was sorry their guest was leaving before some of the things he had started had been accomplished. The Pillsbury family was most highly regarded here. Mr. Pillsbury was a gentleman and a scholar and he might add, a good bridge player. The best wishes of all would go with them.

George Casey said it seemed impossible to enlarge on what had already been said. He had worked under Mr. Pillsbury and he believed all that had been said was coming to him. He said he recognized Mr. Pillsbury's ability as an outstanding man and he heartily joined in wishing him good fortune wherever he went.

First Man Here

W. T. Kergin said he shared the regrets of the others over a friend who was leaving. He hoped the move would prove beneficial to himself and family. He had been at Port Simpson before the others came and first met him there. It must be satisfactory to their guest to know that he was appreciated. Some achieved wealth and success but the high esteem of friends was greater than these. He wished him good luck, happiness and success.

D. G. Stewart said they had always been good neighbors and friends. None were so sorry to see the Pillsbury family go as were the members of the Stewart family.

E. C. Gibbons, C. H. Sawle, Thomas McMeekin, D. Thomson and J. W. Nicholls all spoke briefly. Colonel Nicholls said Mr. Pillsbury was a splendid sportsman and a fine man. It would be almost impossible to get another neighbor like him. He spoke highly of the members of the family and joined with all others in regrets and losing so good a citizen.

THESE are pretty hard times when a poor columnist can't get the price of a meal and a drink for his vote.

I OFFERED my vote to McMorrie and he said he did not need votes that bad. Newton remarked that he'd buy it if he thought I'd deliver the goods, but he thought perhaps I was playing a double game.

THAT'S what comes of plying an honest business in vote selling. It's pretty nearly as poorly appreciated as bootlegging.

THE poor people in town are those who can't afford to buy the new style of stockings until their old ones are worn out.

THINK what a lot of trouble

Indigestion

When chronic, is best relieved by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

In most cases, indigestion results from torpid liver and sluggish bowel action. Tablets for the stomach and aids to digestion fail in this chronic form of indigestion. You must get the filtering and excretory organs right before you can expect permanent relief and this is best accomplished by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Chronic indigestion is a very common condition. On this account many suffer for years not realizing that relief is at hand in the form of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Headaches, biliousness, spells of constipation and diarrhoea are among the accompanying ailments. What a relief it would be to be free of this condition which makes one feel so miserable and it is so easy by using this well-known regulator of the liver, kidneys and bowels.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

January 13, 1916.

M. P. McCaffery was elected mayor of Prince Rupert today over S. M. Newton by a vote of 346 to 248. Aldermen elected were Thomas McClymont, R. J. D. Smith, O. H. Nelson, W. H. Montgomery, George B. Casey, John Dyblavv, W. G. Barrie and D. C. McKae. Dr. W. T. Kergin, Miss Davies and Mrs. W. J. Kirkpatrick were elected school trustees.

Olof Hanson has been requested to assist in the recruiting of a Scandinavian regiment locally for overseas service.

The public meeting called last night by Mayor Newton did not materialize. By 8.15, the time set for opening, the Empress Theatre was almost filled. The arrival of Mayor Newton was awaited until 9 o'clock but he failed to put in an appearance and, at that time, A. W. Edge, who was to have been chairman, announced to the gathering that there would be no meeting. Among those who were present
