TERRACE, Jan. 13—A joint installation of officers was held in Progress Hall on Monday evening when the I.O.O.F. Lakelse Lodge No. 33, and Rebekah Lodge installed their officers for the coming term, one of the noticeable changes being the exit from office of all the charter members, the younger lodge members filling the offices for the first time. After the installation about 60 guests sat down to a sumptuous banquet, the Oddfellows being forced to admit when it came to banqueting the Rebekahs lead. The delicious refreshments produced a jovial atmosphere, eachguest being called on to contribute toward the entertainment. In closing, E. S. Kenney very ably addressed the company on behalf of the lodges, starting the New Year with resolutions for better fellowship and team work. A pleasant evening was brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

SERIOUS WORRY TO RADIO FANS IS THE CUT ACROSS WAVES

(Vancouver Sun)

For the greater good of the greater number of radio fans throughout the country, some sort of restriction or control should be held over those types of transmitting sets that pollute the air for the entire neighborhood.

A powerful regenerative set in the hands of a rank amateur can cut the finest program to ribbons.

And when one such amateur starts cutting across wave lengths, everybody starts to get even, and the program might just as well end right there.

The radio fan pays a fee for the use of the air. It is up to the government to work out some sort of a system whereby that fan can enjoy the air undefiled.
