PRESENTATION IS MADE TO BRADY

M.P. GETS CLUB BAG TO CARRY HIS BELONGINGS WHEN HE LEAVES FOR OTTAWA SATURDAY

J. C. Brady, M.P. was the recipient of a fine leather club bag last evening at the Conservative smoker. President G. H. Munro, who made the presentation, referred suitably to the justifiable pride which his followers felt in having him as representative at Ottawa and bespoke for him a successful and useful career as member of Skeena in the federal house.

Mr. Brady, in acknowledging the gift expressed his very great pleasure in acting as representative for the electors of Skeena and thanked his many friends for their kind support in the recent election. The gift which had been presented to him would ever serve to remind him of his many friends in Rupert and it was his sincere wish that, although he occupied the opposition benches, he would be able to render very valuable service to the electors of Skeena.

On Saturday's train Mr. Brady leaves to attend the session at Ottawa and, if possible, he expects to return to spend the Christmas recess with his family.
