MINSTREL SHOW AT TERRACE BY VETS

Affair Thursday Night Was Well Attended and Proved Enjoyable

TERRACE, April 3.—The minstrel show staged by the Great War Veterans on Thursday evening drew a large crowd, their large auditorium being filled to capacity. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the lengthy program consisting of instrumental and vocal duets, quartettes, and choruses, step dancing, jokes, tricks and crossfire selections.

A. C. Fowler acted as interloper and the troupe consisted of J. De Kergommaux, with banjo, C. Tombs, violin; J. McLaren, accordion; L. H. Kenney, tambourine; H. King, bones; F. Nightwine, guitar; W. Finter, violin; T. Hallowell, accordion; E. T. Kenney, tambourine; T. Turner, bones; R. Donald, ukelele; and H. Swain, bones

The sealing up which has been done in the interior of the hall during the last week added much to the enjoyment of the program, the sound carrying much better now than formerly.

HAZELTON

Road work started in earnest in this district on April 1. Full-sized crews are engaged on both ends of the main highway extension from South Hazelton to Terrace and another gang of men is completing the road on the west side of Kispiox River between Nine-Mile and Ten-Mile bridges. There are also other important road improvements being undertaken in the district.

The Hazelton Liberal Association has elected officers as follows: Honorary presidents, Fred Stork, M.P. and Dr. H. C. Wrinch, M.L.A.; president, W. W. Anderson; vice-president, John Newick, secretary - treasurer, William Grant.

The first baseball game of the season took place here last Saturday when the New Hazelton and Hazelton school boys played, the former winning 7 to 2.

Floating of poles down the Skeena River to the booming ground of the Hanson Lumber & Timber Co. at Cedarvale started this week. Several hundred thousand feet are to go down.

Rev. A. C. Pound will preach his farewell sermon here tomorrow before proceeding to the Okanagan country where he will visit his father until the May conference. Rev. J. H. Young comes here from Terrace to take charge of the local United Church pastorate.

The six year old son of Andrew Mowat, an Indian, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the home on the Hazelton reserve last Saturday. The boy's mother received serious burns and is a patient in the Hazelton Hospital.

L. A. Graef of the government telegraph staff is a patient in the hospital suffering from pneumonia. Mrs. Graef returned this week after spending the winter in Vancouver.

Indian Agent Ed. Hyde is spending Easter in Prince Rupert where Mrs. Hyde has been visiting for some time. Both will return to Hazelton early next week.

The New Hazelton Liberal Association has been organized with officers as follows: Honorary presidents, Fred Stork, M.P.

and Dr. H. C. Wrinch, M.L.A., president, W. S. Sargent; vice-presidents, W. S. Harris and S. H. Senkpiel; secretary treasurer, E. A. Goddard; executive, J. H. Willan, F. A. Goddard and R. H. Morrison.

FINE SACRED CONCERT HELD

Large Audience Delighted With Recital in United Church Last Evening

There was a large attendance in the First United Church last night for the sacred concert comprising the cantata "The Thorn Crowned King" and a recital of Easter vocal and instrumental numbers. The cantata was very pleasingly rendered with the heavier parts being taken by Miss Adene Advant, E. Davey and A. Clapperton and the whole program was carried out in an excellent manner which was highly pleasing to the audience.

J. S. Wilson acted as conductor and the organist was A. J. Lancaster. Members of the choir were Miss Adene Advant, Mrs. H. C. Fraser, Mrs. R. Howard, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. McGregor, Mrs. Cullen, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Squires, Miss H. Middleton, Miss C. Nickerson, Miss S. Nickerson, Miss Bessie Derry, Miss Violet Whitlow, Miss Ada Muzzgohr, J. E. Davey, A. Clapperton, R. Howard, F. Derry, W. H. Derry, W. H. Walford, J. Stevens, C. Cameron, and W. Clapperton. Piano accompanists were Mrs. H. C. Fraser, Mrs. B. A. Harlow and Charles P. Balagno.

The cantata took up the entire first part of the program and the second part was as follows: Chorus—"Mystery of Intercession" (The Crucifixion) Choir. Solo—"I know that My Redeemer Liveth" (Messiah), Miss Adene Advant.

Duet—"So Thon Lifest" (The Crucifixion), J. E. Davey and A. Clapperton.

Solo—"Fear Ye Not, O Israel", Mrs. H. C. Fraser.

Chorus—From "The Crucifixion", Choir.

Solo—"It was for You" (Gospel to Galvary), J. E. Davey.

Solo—"Angels Guard Thee"

If I Only Had the Strength

HOUSEWORK is not drudgery to the woman who is strong and well. She takes a pride in keeping the home spick and span and giving it the artistic touches which make home attractive. But when strength fails and you feel tired and worried there seems no end to disagreeable work. You seem to never catch up and everything goes wrong. Wishes do not restore a wornout nervous system but Dr. Chase's Nerve Food does. By using this great restorative regularly you can soon regain health and vigor and take hold of the household duties with a master hand.
