MASQUERADE AT SMITHERS FINE

Unique and Pretty Costumes at Event Under Hospital Auxiliary

SMITHERS, March 1. — The Annual Children's Masquerade given under the auspices of the Hospital Auxiliary was held in the town hall on Friday night and proved to be one of the most successful affairs of this nature held in Smithers and great credit is due to the mothers of the large number of children in costume for the time and thought spent in dressing their children.

There was nearly one hundred children in costume and the judges, Mrs. D. D. Munro, Mrs. E. E. Orchard and Rev. Geo. Turpin had a most difficult task in the selection of the winners of the various prizes. In every case, however, their choice was received with hearty applause.

The following were the prize winners:

Best dressed, girls: Patsy Hetherington, "Table Lamp." Monineca Brewer: "Butterfly."

Boy: Hadly Hankinson, "Sons of Canada."

Most original: Girls: Jerry Warner, "Pirate." Beatrice Monk, "Jazz."

Boys: Olive Hoskins, "Hon. John Oliver and his White Elephant, the P.G.E." Gordon Hetherington, "Felix, the cat."

Special: Betty Campbell, "My Valentine."

Pairs: Gwendoline Jenkins and Isa Connery, "Fairies." Annie Service and Jeanne Service, "Indian and Squaw."

Special: June Hankinson, "Morning Glory."

The children enjoyed dancing and games until 9.30 when refreshments were served. After the children's supper the floor was cleared and the grown ups had their turn at dancing which was continued until 2 o'clock with a break at midnight for refreshments.

SEVENTY MEN ARE REGISTERED HERE AS BEING WORKLESS

There are at present between 70 and 80 unemployed registered at the local government employment office. Industries have not been opening quite as rapidly as might have been expected and mild weather has been the cause of fewer men than usual being sent to work on timber operations in the interior. The office has been sending a few men recently to the Skeena Lumber Co.'s sawmill at Usk.
