PLAYERS' CLUB EVENING EVENT

First of Series of Monthly Meetings Held in Cathedral Hall

The first of a series of monthly gatherings under the auspices of the Prince Rupert Players' Club took place last evening in the Cathedral Hall, which had been kindly placed at their disposal for the occasion.

President Alex. Connon in a short address outlined what the club was attempting. Their aim was to form a permanent organization which would gradually develop, possibly into a little theatre movement such as they had in other cities.

Welcomed by Clergyman Rev. Walter Allan welcomed the club on behalf of the church and said the time had passed when there was antagonism between the Church and the stage.

Entertainers Community singing led by Mr. Wilson with Miss Marsh at the piano then followed. Also there were solos by Mrs. William Millar and Mr. Wilson, a Monologue by Mr. Connon, piano solo by Miss Irwin and a saxophone solo by W. H. P. Pleging.

MASSETT VISITOR SEES IMPROVEMENTS FOR GRAHAM ISLAND Says Fishing and Lumbering Industry Will Keep Things Busy There

Dr. Dunn of Massett, who is in the city on a brief visit, returning to the islands tomorrow night, is very enthusiastic over the prospects for the islands.

posed to increase the pack from sixty to one hundred thousand cases will make things very busy. Two seining boats are being built for the Waton River cannery and everyone is preparing to take some part in the fishing during what is expected to be the big year.

While there is no present activity in connection with the gold production from the black sands, the Doctor expects to hear of something doing in that connection soon.
