SMITHERS PASTOR IS MARRIED IN SOUTH

Ceremony in Vancouver Last Week Made Miss Marion Jones Bride of Rev. George Turpin

Rev. E. A. Davis, assisted by Rev. G. O. Fallis and Rev. A. E. Roberts, officiated at a pretty wedding last week at the home of the bride's parents, Vancouver, when Miss Marion Gertrude Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones, 1945—16th Ave. West, was united in marriage to Rev. George Turpin of Smithers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Turpin, Derby, England. Mrs. E. A Davis played the wedding march and Miss Rhena Marshall rendered solos.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore ivory bridal crepe and real lace, with a veil of silk Brussels net, caught with orange blossoms, and carried Ophelia roses and lily-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Jones, as brides-maid, wearing poudre blue crepe romaine, with silver lace and French flowers and carrying pink carnations.

After the ceremony a buffet supper was served, the tea table being presider over by Mrs. G. O. Fallis and Mrs. G. W. Paterson.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Turpin left for Victoria, the bride wearing a muskrat coat over a gown of old rose flat crepe, combined with rose and gold metallic cloth, and a French hat in matching shades. On their return they will make their home in Smithers.

WELL KNOWN MINING MAN MARRIED LAST WEEK

Miss Myrtle McCaslin Becomes Bride of Douglas Henderson Rae

A marriage of interest to many friends of both bride and groom in British Columbia was solemnized quietly at the First Presbyterian Church in Spokane last Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Myrtle McCaslin, daughter of Mrs. H. F. McCaslin of Salmo, B.C., became the bride of Douglas Henderson Rae, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Rae of North Vancouver. Rev. Mr. McKean of Spokane officiated at the wedding.

The bride was charmingly gowned in shell-pink georgette and carried a bouquet of pale pink roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Helen McCaslin, frocked in orchid georgette, with a bouquet of flesh pink carnations. Wilfred S. Rae, brother of the groom, attended as best man.

The bride was formerly a teacher in the Cranbrook schools, where she has many friends, and the bridegroom is a B.A.Sc. of the University of British Columbia, class of '23.

After spending a honeymoon visiting various places in the province, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Rae will spend the New Year holidays with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Rae in North Vancouver, before going to Premier, where they will preside.

Only members of both families and intimate friends were present at the ceremony, among the guests being Miss Margaret Rae of this city and Herbert Jones, professor in Pullman university, Washington.

CHRITMAS TREE AT TERRACE THURSDAY

Churches Joined Forces For Event Which Was Well Attended and Enjoyable

TERRACE, Dec. 27. — The Christmas entertainment given by the pupils of the Union Sunday School of Terrace was held in Progress Hall on Thursday evening. There was a large crowd present and a splendid program of choruses, recitations, songs, tableaux, etc., was given. These were prepared under the direction of Rev. and Mrs. Allan, Rev. and Mrs. Robinson and the other teachers in the Sunday School. The stage arrangement was much admired, being a veritable woods scene, while the large, gaily decorated Christmas tree added to the pleasing effect.

Rev. A. W. Robinson acted as chairman and, after the program, Santa Claus, in the person of Alva Moore, appeared on the scene and distributed candy, nuts and oranges to about one hundred and fifty happy kiddies.

PLEASANT CHRISTMAS DAY AT TERRACE

Weather Was Fine and Day Was Marked With Parties and Church Service

TERRACE, Dec. 27.—Christmas Day passed here under ideal weather conditions which added much to the enjoyment of the day. About nine inches of snow fell during Thursday and Friday's very mild weather packed it sufficiently for comfortable walking and excellent sleighing. Besides the usual dinner parties, several sleighing parties were organized and thoroughly enjoyed.

A very impressive Union Christmas service was held in the United Church at 10.30 Christmas morning, conducted by Rev. Wm. Allan and Rev. A. W. Robinson before a large audience. A Christmas solo was rendered by Miss Hallowell and prayer offered by Rev. J. J. Marsh.

FAREWELL SERVICE OF CAPT. AND MRS. REA AT SALVATION ARMY

A large crowd turned out last night at the Salvation Army for the farewell service of Captain and Mrs. Rea. A special feature of the service was the enrollment of two soldiers.

J. S. Wilson spoke a few words of regret at the departure of the officers as did some of the soldiers.

Mrs. Rea spoke to the young people and the captain based his address on the burial of the past, how the river of time rushed on, the priviledge each one had to forget sins and the call for men to allow the spiritual life to commence. Thanks was given the businessmen of the town for their support, also to the press.

Envoy Offat, Mrs. Cadwalder and Cook sang a trio.

Captain and Mrs. Rea sang a duet.

Pacific Milk's richness

Mrs. M. Brown of Nanaimo in a letter received recently, says she has used Pacific Milk continuously for a year and gets the fullest satisfaction from it.

"In cakes and puddings I get the best results with Pacific Milk," she writes, "and for a long time I could not understand why. Yet the reason was simple enough when my husband pointed out it might be in unusual richness. That is where it is."

FEATHERED HERO DIES OF OLD AGE

PARIS, Dec. 27.—One of the feathered heroes of the great war, a carrier pigeon which helped save Verdun, has just died of old age. The bird had a wound stripe on its leg band and was one of the government's pensioners, having been given a home and a larder by a grateful nation. Through a barrage of shrapnel, the pigeon in 1916 carried a message that kept Froi Deterre Hill from being captured. In an order of the day, the army cited the pigeon for "having maintained communication with the front line when all human means failed." In its flight through the barrage the pigeon was hit by a shell splinter that carried away its claws.

The pigeon will be mounted and placed in the Verdun museum.

Frank Glass returned to the city on yesterday afternoon's train from Terrace where he spent the Christmas holiday week-end at his home.

"BREAKFAST" in

Baker's Breakfast Cocoa

Means Something

The United States Food Standards define "Breakfast" cocoa as cocoa containing not less than 22 per cent of cocoa butter. Many cheap cocoas (which cannot be labelled "Breakfast" Cocoa) contain not more than 14 per cent or 15 per cent of butter.

Baker's Breakfast Cocoa contains not less than 26 per cent of cocoa butter, almost one-fifth more than Government requirement. The phrase Baker's Breakfast Cocoa means a pure, delicious cocoa of high quality and possessing a considerable amount of nourishment.

SPORT CHAT

Vic Foley, the pride of Vancouver, is proving to be one of the gamest little fighters that ever entered the ring. Finishing the major part of a battle with one hand broken, as he did last week, takes one's mind back to the feats some times credited to world champs and the like. In spite of a few reverses he might have had lately, Foley still looks like a comer and there are many who firmly believe that he will have a big pugilistic career. Prince Rupert boxing fans were looking forward to seeing the noted little featherweight up here but, in view of subsequent developments, it looks like it is off under Fair Board auspices at least.

The hockey season opened last week at Prince George with a game between the Prince George and Cranbrook Mill teams when the latter team, facing in the earlier stages what seemed like certain defeat, came up from behind and took the honors 7 to 5. The game was a sort of a preliminary to a big Christmas Day feature played on Saturday. During the week, a game was also played between Prince George and Giscome, the former winning an easy 16 to 0 victory. The Prince George people are looking forward to a number of keen inter-town contests before the winter is out.

ALERT BAY TEACHER GIVE ADDRESS ABOUT WORK FOR INDIANS

EDMONTON, Dec. 27.—Miss Seir, a teacher of Alert Bay, for the past seven years, gave a most interesting talk on the work among the Pacific coast Indians, to the members of St. Peter's W.A. at their thank offering meeting in the parish hall. She paid high tribute to the energy and love of the W.A. workers, which makes the work possible.

The secretary reported about a hundred church calendars sold. Mrs. N. C. Hurst closed the meeting with a Christmas reading, after which tea was served.

LADY ASTOR'S HAT JOLTED BRITISH M.P.'S

LONDON, Dec. 27.—Lady Astor's new felt hat of blue gave parliamentarians a jolt when she wore it the first time in the house of commons, after her return from the United States.

It was not the fact that the millinery, trimmed with scarlet and shaped along lines of the "vagabond" model which is one of the season's best sellers, was made in America that attracted attention, but because nearly always heretofore Lady Astor has worn discreet black or biege.
