LIQUOR CASES HEARD TODAY

MAGISTRATE TAKES UNDER ADVISEMENT QUESTION OF INCORPORATION OF G.W.V.A.

The defendant lost the first round in the case of the Great War Veterans' Association, charged with selling beer through its servant, Arthur Beale, when Magistrate McClymont this morning refused to accept the contention of the defence that it was the Canadian Legion and not the Great War Veterans' Association that was conducting the premises at the time of the offence. His Worship found that the preponderence of the evidence went to show that it was the G.W.V.A. that was in control. The next resting place of the defence was the ground that the G.W.V.A. being of Dominion incorporation, was not incorporated in itself and thus could not be convicted on the charge. After argument of counsel on this point had been heard, the magistrate adjourned the case until tomorrow morning for decision. E. F. Jones, city solicitor, prosecuted and Milton Gonzales acted for the defence.

WITNESS IN BOX

On the resumption of the case, which had been adjourned from over a week ago, City Solicitor Jones re-entered the witness box. He told of a by-law which had been passed by the people in 1920 and a transfer that had been made of property by the city to Dr. J. A. West, H. L. Landry and Sidney Bird as trustees of the Great War Veterans' Association. The property was to be solely for the use of the G.W.V.A. and, if not used by it, was to revert to the city. The conveyance of the city, Mr Jones said, had never been registered by the G.W.V.A.

Under cross-examination, Mr. Jones said he could not swear that the Canadian Legion had taken over the G.W.V.A. nor could he swear that the Canadian Legion was not operating the place. He had been informed by Dr. West and Mr. Tannock that the transaction for the taking over of the G. W. V. A. by the Canadian Legion had never been completed. If there were sueh a transaction, Mr. Jones declared that the property would have to revert to the city.

After other crown witnesses, including Liquor Board operatives, were heard, Mr. Gonzales raised the point as to whether or not the G.W.V.A. was actually in existence and asked for decision. The magistrate asked defence to put its witnesses in the stand on this point.

DEFENSE WITNESSES

C. L. Youngman, past president of the G.W.V.A., was called to the stand. He stated that the Canadian Legion had taken over and was operating the premises. Checks were signed with the name Canadian Legion. Confronted with a license covering the period issued to the G.W.V.A., Mr. Youngman stated that he took it from what he heard at a convention in Vancouver in May that the Canadian Legion was entitled to continue business with a license issued to G.W.V.A. Witness had not examined the license and had not seen that it was marked not transferable.

Under cross examination by Mr. Jones, Mr. Youngman stated that he could not swear that the legal formalities for the transfer of the G.W.V.A. had been carried out nor could he swear that the property had ever been taken over by the Canadian Legion.

ASKED FOR RULING

At this point Mr. Gonzales asked the magistrate for his ruling as to whether or not there had been a transfer and His Worship ruled to the contrary.

Mr. Gonzales then asked for dismissal on the ground that the G.W.V.A. could not be convicted being a Dominion incorporation. After Mr. Jones' argument had been heard, adjournment of the case was taken until tomorrow.

SHAKESPEARE SOCIETY MEETS

MOST ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING OF SEASON SO FAR TOOK PLACE LAST NIGHT

The meeting last night of the Shakespeare Society was one of the most enthusiastic the organization has yet had The subject of study was Scene I. and II. from Act II. of Shakespeare's Hamlet, Prince of Denmark. One of the features was the reading by Miss Blanche Macdonald of a splendid paper on Ophelia, one of the characters in Hamlet.

Various parts in the reading of the play were taken as follows:

Polonius, Lord Chamberlain, Alex. McRae and Miss Dorothy Stephen.

Reynaldo, servant to Polonius, Mr. Anderson.

Ophelia, daughter of Polonius, Miss Jean Harrison, R.N.

Claudius, King of Denmark, Miss Pierce.

Gertrude, Queen of Denmark and mother of Hamlet, Mrs. Haddon.

Rosencrantz, courtier, Mrs. Adam Mackie.

Guildenster, courtier, Miss Watson.

Voltimand, courtier, Mrs. W. H. Wilson-Murray.

Cornelius, courtier, Mrs. J. Bremner.

Hamlet, Prince of Denmark, son of the former and nephew of the present king, Mrs. Black and Mrs. R. Cameron.

Players, Miss Dobbie and Miss Mitchell.

The following were elected new members of the club: Miss Caroline Mitchell, Mrs. J. E. Milne and Mrs. Adam Mackie.

WINTER SERVICE OF COAST STEAMERS IS STARTING VERY SOON

There will be only two more weekend trips of the steamer Prince Rupert in the Canadian National Coast steamship service before the winter schedule, giving one boat a week, will be reverted to. The steamer Prince George is to be laid off first this winter and, after the middle of this month, the Prince Rupert will arrive from Vancouver at 10.30 Wednesday mornings, sailing at 10 Wednesday evenings for Stewart and Anyox returning here Friday mornings at 6 o'clock and sailing for the south at 9 Friday mornings.

NELLIE IS PROBLEM IN TORONTO SCHOOLS

TORONTO, Nov. 2. — Among other vexing questions the Premier of Ontario, as Minister of Education has to face the problem of Nellie going to school in Toronto. Nellie is under 16 years of age, and comes within the provisions of the Adolescent School Attendance Act, by which the Board of Education is required to enforce her attendance at school. But, although the child is resident in Toronto with relatives, her parents live outside the city. Hence, the Finance Committee of the board is caught on the horns of the dilemma, between the statute requiring attendance of Nellie at school and the board's own policy of closing its doors on children whose parents or guardians are not resident of Toronto. The matter was referred to Premier Ferguson as Minister of Education.
