SUDAN ANIMALS AT LONDON ZOO

Important Consignment Arrives at Institution—Many Varieties

LONDON, Aug. 3. — An important consignment of animals from the Sudan has arrived at the Zoo. It includes giraffes, antelopes, cranes, storks, and bustards. Their condition reflects credit on Captain Brocklebursf, the Game Warden of the Sudan, who collected them for the society, and on the native clerk, a Copt, and the keeper who travelled home in charge of them. They were shipped at Port Sudan on the ss. City of Singapore, and were unloaded at Tilbury. Fortunately the cases containing the animals could be put on motor lorries, and, with some choice of route to avoid low bridges, were brought direct to Regent's Park. The two giraffes are both males, not a pair, as was expected, but as the society already owns two females this may be an advantage. They are between 8ft. and 9ft. in height and approximately 15 months old, very tame and apparently in perfect health. Apart from the giraffes, the most valuable part of the collection is a set of three white headed storks from the desolate region where the White Nile expands into marshes of the Sudd. All three are young, standing about 3ft. high. Such birds have been imported to this country only three times before and are about the rarest of living birds to be seen in captivity.

BIGAMY CHARGE IS LAID AGAINST LADY

Married Three Husbands Without Formality of Securing Divorces.

SEATTLE, Aug. 3.—Mrs. Mabel Carlton, charged in the supreme court with bigamy, admits that she had wed thrice without waiting for number one or number two to die and without going through the formality of securing divorces.

Waler Carlton was the first husband. He and Mabel, according to her story, were married at Vancouver, B. C., in 1910. That marriage lasted for nearly eight years. Then Walter Lawley was the next spouse taken to her heart. She married him at Cordova, Alaska, in 1918.

Leaving the Northland, she journeyed to Seattle where she came to know and cherish one E. R. Rahn. There she married him.

As evidence of her good intention in each case she says that each time she started divorce proceedings but didnt trouble to prosecute them to a happy conclusion. Recently, however, she started another divorce action, this time against Rahn. It made him angry so he reported to the officials that his wife was a bigamist. They investigated and she was arrested. At first she claimed that she had been married but once before and that was to a man named Eversfield, who had been killed overseas.

H. THAW DENIES MARRIAGE RUMOR

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 3. —Harry K. Thaw, today emphatically denied he proposed to marry Miss Forest Walsh, California beauty, who travelled to Winchester, Virginia, to answer what she claimed was a proposal by mail.

He admitted he had a "darn fool habit of writing letters," but added: "I'm not going to marry her and that's all there is to it."

PORT ALBERNI, Aug. 3.—A. W. Neill, Independent candidate for Comox-Alberni, held a public meeting in the Port Alberni Theatre. The meeting was well attended. Major R. J. Burde spoke as a representative of the Labor Pary of this district and announced that the Labor Party had endorsed Mr. Neill as a candidate and that he would be given the support of that party.

VICTORIA, Aug. 3.—The value of building permits issued at the City Hall this year to date, covering the first seven months of 1926, reach a total of $417,382, or an increase of $157,373 over a corresponding period during 1925, it was revealed by an inspection of the official records of City Building Inspector James Barf.

ALASKA CANNERIES ENDANGERED BY FIRE

Surface Moss in Tundra is Burning One Foot Deep—Food of Fur Animals is Destroyed

SEWARD, Alaska, Aug. 3. — Forest fires that have been burning more than two months continued today to advance near Ugashs, Bristol Bay, Southwestern Alaska, and may reach Nushigak, Bristol Bay.

The fires endangered several salmon canneries in that area. Most of the fires have been confined to marsh land, burning through tundra moss one foot thick.

The fires have destroyed many varieties of small game and created a serious condition for young fur-bearing animals, who rely on the game for food.

NEVER TOO OLD TO PLAY GAMES

(Ketchikan Chronicle)

Bernard Shaw, at 70, says he is too old for games. Despite his skill in self-defense with biting wit and caustic epigram, many will take issue with him. And they can cite numerous examples of those much in the public eye who, far advanced in years, continue to take part in outdoor pastimes. Earl Balfour and the King of Sweden, far beyond the seventieth milestone, still play tennis. John D Rockefeller, a decade nearer the century mark, plays a very creditable game of golf. Gladstone, we are often reminded, learned to ride the bicycle and lustily swung the axe upon forest trees long after he was 80. Dr. Charles W. Eliot, at 92, finds something missing from his summer day if he does not go out in a sailboat. In earlier years he was addicted to the bicycle. His successor as president of Harvard, Dr. Lowell, who will be 70 this year, is a expert yachtsman. Those who keep perenially young and in many ways outpace their juniors are those who maintain the outdoor habit. A conspicuous example was Lord Bryce, who used to say that the best way to travel, if you wished to see as you went, was to walk, and the next best way was to ride a bicycle.

THRONGS ATTENDED TENNIS IN ENGLAND

Drawing Power of Suzanne Lenglen at Wimbledon Great, But Other Players Attract.

LONDON, Aug. 3. — Stronger proof of the powerful hold the game of lawn tennis has upon the English public could hardly have been given than by the size of the throngs that attended the tournament at Wimbledon.

Much of the success of the tournaments in recent years from the standpoint of attendance has been credited to the drawing power of Suzanne Lenglen. The elusive Suzanne was a considerable part of the show during the first week of this year's Wimbledon affair and the crowds that appeared each day in the stands of the center court where the big matches are played were of the capacity order when she was booked to appear.

But, so indeed were they when Suzanne was not playing and other lesser figures held the courts. And the second week of the tournament, with Lenglen out of the picture altogether because of her breakdown, saw no diminution in the size of the audiences.

JIM JEFFRIES NOW IS IN BIG MONEY

Former Pugilist May be Wealthy Man Soon

BURBANK, Cal., Aug. 3.—Jim Jeffries, after years of financial reverses, seems at last about to come into "big money."

Oil has been found on some of his property and his friends — many of them notables—whom he has entertained lavishly at his ranch, despite his lean years, are optimistic that he will yet become wealthy.

The heavyweight crown that Jeffries wore was only gold plated. He did his fighting — hard and often—before the days of fat purses. He met life size men with fighting hearts but this was too early in the game to reap riches.

Financial Straits

His largest ring purse was the loser's end of $100,000 that he got for returning to the ring against Johnson in 1910. His defeat upset plans for a world tour that was to have netted him $500,000. On retirement he bought a safe in Los Angeles but luck was against him. He fell back on his ranch. Friends he had lent large sums failed him. At one time in his financial straits it loked as though he would lose everything.

But when things looked the worst he made a deal with real estate people whereby his land was subdivided and he realized a profit of a quarter million.

Recently oil was brought in on some of the land left him and as it flows his bank account is expanding toward the sixth digit.

NATIVE SONS WIN BASEBALL

Senior Game Taken From Grand Terminals Seven to One

In a Senior League baseball game last night the Native Sons of Canada defeated the Grand Terminals by 7 runs to 1, before a good crowd of spectators.

It was a fair game of baseball and the play of the Grand Terminals had improved considerably over their previous efforts against the Gyros. The pitcher got better support from the field and the play, speaking generally, tightened up. It was mostly on account of errors that the Native Sons got their runs. The play was rather slow in spots.

There was no outstanding play by any individual.

Pete LaPorte umpired the balls and strikes and George Mitchell took charge of the bases.

The teams took the field as follows:

Sons of Canada—W. Mitchell, c; V. Menzies, p; J. Farquhar, 1b; W. Lambie, 2b; Dave Balfour, ss; H. Menzies, 3b; Dido Garvich, lf; Jack Ratchford cf; L. Astoria, rf.

Grand Terminals—H. Astoria, c; Gordon, p; D. Stork, 1b; Wallace, 2b; Sloan, ss; R. Greenwell, 3b; Hunt, lf; W. Mack, cf; Joe Smith, rf.

SPORT CHAT

Suzanne Lenglen, the great French tennis player, will decide within a few days whether she will proceed to the United States under the direction of Charles Pyle, American sports promoter, or whether she will refrain from all tennis until the Riviera tennis season opens.

With legal counsel Mr. Pyle had conferred with the French champion at her summer home in Ourville, but Suzanne, under the advice of her father, who is acting as legal and technical adviser, has requested a few more days to make up her mind.

Arne Borg, Swedish member of the Illonis A.C. team, shattered his second world's record in two days when he won the one mile free style title in the National A.A.U. swimming championships at Philadelphia recently. He swam the mile in 21 45 2-5, breaking the existing record by forty-eight seconds.

B. F. Clements, Chicago fight promoter, has filed application in United States court in Denver for an injunction forbidding Jack Dempsey, the world's champion heavyweight boxer, to fight under any contract other than the one he claims to hold with the champion. Dempsey has 20 days in which to file an answer.

Bobby Eber, bantamweight boxing champion of Canada, has quit the ring and will abandon his title. It is stated that Eber is contemplating making his home in Chicago where he will retire on account of his health, his tender ribs, fractured on more than one occasion, having caused him much inconvenience.

Prince Rupert is not the only place where weather interferes with sports. A recent issue of a Ketchikan paper says:

"Yes, there will be no ball game tonight, Prexy Edgar Anderson of the city league deciding early this afternoon that the exchequer of the league would not warrant the purchase of rowboats enough to navigate the two ball teams on Lake Nickeyville. Maybe a game will be played Sunday afternon, and again, maybe not."

Following is the R.C.N.V.R. line-up in the Intermediate League football game against the Y-Macs tomorrow:

Richmond, goal; R. Moore and G. Shenton, backs; Camm, R. Peacock and Fitzgerald, halfbacks; G. Dyer, Byrne, Chenosky, G. Wyman and Sim, forwards Reserve, Coombes, Linesman, W Henderson.
