MRS. ADAM BECK IS NOTED WRITER

Famous Author of Historical Novels is Now Resident of Victoria

VICTORIA, Jan. 11—An article in a monthly publication focusses attention on a resident of this city, Mrs. L. Adams Beck, who has become famous under her own name and that of "E. Barrington." About a year ago the identity of "E. Barrington" was revealed but reviewers mostly persisted in writing of this lady, in her dual aspect, as a man. Mrs. Beck is an Englishwoman of distinguished family, grand-daughter of the Admiral of the Fleet, Sir Fairfax Moresby, and daughter of Admiral Moresby.

She has spent much time in India, Ceylon, China, Java, Burma and Japan. She has crossed the great Himalayan Pass and travelled in Little Tibet among the Mongolian peoples. Following her two great successes in the historical-biographical novel, "The Divine Lady," and "Glorious Apollo," will now come from her pen—E. Barrington's pen—the novelized romance of the Prince of Wales, who became George IV., and Perdita Robinson, the most beautiful woman in her time. This is entitled, "The Expuisite Perdita."

A Severe Illness Caused Constipation

Mrs. Wm. Hill, Wapella, Sask., writes:—"Three years ago I had a very severe illness, and ever since I have suffered with constipation.

A few months ago a friend advised me to use

Milburn's LAXA-LIVER PILLS

which I did, although not expecting any results, but I am pleased to say that since using them I have had perfect use of my bowels without any trouble or pain, and have never had bleeding piles since. Now, I never fail to recommend 'Laxa-Liver Pills' to all my friends."

Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

RAILWAY HEADS TO SOLVE PROBLEMS OF TWO BIG SYSTEMS

(Vancouver Star)

By far the most arresting piece of news presented to Canada for months is the statement that E. W. Beatty and Sir Henry Thornton, respective chiefs of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways, have resolved themselves into a permanent board to deal with questions of competitive service, to bring about economies in both railways and to promote greater efficiency.

In effect this means that a solution of the railway problems that have troubled the economic and political life of the Dominion is at last apparently in sight. Instead of a situation wherein the two roads were waging a commercial war, with the taxpayer and business man paying the cost, the country will be provided with two excellent services running in close harmony.

LINKING OURSELVES WITH UNITED STATES

(Manitoba Free Press)

For the first time in history, although traffic has been flowing north and south since the early days in English-speaking settlement of the Red River valley, Winnipeg, in 1925 became connected with United States cities to the south by a hard surface highway. The completion of the gravelling of the Lord Selkirk highway from Emerson to St. Norbert now links Winnipeg to the United EStates by a motor highway that will be passable in all weathers. As a result of this, a heavy increase in tourist traffic is expected in 1926.

Dramatic Theme Located in the Underworld of Europe's Gayest City

Beautiful scenes, daring and gorgeous costumes, gripping mystery and a sensational denouement—plus Mae Murray—this is the formula for one of the smashing successes of the screen year. It is "The Masked Bride," Mae Murray's startling new picture of Paris life and an underworld plot, here tonight at the Westholme.

Christy Cabanne, who directed the new feature, has given the screen public a story that transforms Miss Murray literally into a different creature. She is a radiant personality; a flashing butterfly in a swirl of frivolity; then, suddenly, as danger threatens the man she loves, the mask drops, and from the tinsel emerges a woman, ready to sacrifice her own life in the fight for her lover's happiness.

It is a dramatic theme as big as the settings in which it is played—for it is staged on a scale approaching the spectacular. Gorgeous Parisian cafes—where laughter rules — even though hearts may be seething in rage under the disguise of gaiety; strange underworld haunts where the scum of Paris gathers, pathetically eager to be happy despite environment or danger—these are the stages for the remarkable drama.

Miss Murray plays a Paris dancer idol of the cafes, who becomes enmeshed in an Apache plot that endangers the man she loves. How she drops her old life to become a true wife is the theme—worked out in a sensational manner. Miss Murray does one of her greatest bits of acting in the new role.

BARTHELMESS STARS IN BEAUTIFUL CITY

Romance of New York Tenement Life with Chinese Theatre Scene

"The Beautiful City" starring Richard Barthelmess is a romance of New York life, many of the scenes taking place in the crowded tenement district of the East Side. Basically it is the story of Tony Gillardi, Italian immigrant boy. Tony becomes a flower vendor, and his attempts to shake off gang warfare and old racial ideas of vengeance form the basis of the romance. It is not until Tony comes to see New York as it really is—"the beautiful city"—that he finds happiness and success.

This fascinating story moves before a panorama of metropolitan life. One of the big scenes takes place in one of New York's picturesque automat restaurants where all the food is delivered mechanically to the customers. For these scenes the Barthelmess company engaged an automat restaurant and its entire staff for two Sundays.

Another important part of the story takes place in an East Side Chinese Theatre. For these scenes the studio staff reproduced an actual Chinese theatre now in operation in the Bowery and the entire Chinese company was engaged for two weeks. In this way the scenes are authentic to the smallest detail. The entire audience in these scenes consist of Chinese.

"A SON OF HIS FATHER" CATTLE SMUGGLING TALE

Week End Picture Shows Irish Girl Among Cow Boys, Gamblers and Smugglers

"A Son of His Father," a Paramount screen version of Harold Bell Wright's newest novel of the same name, produced by Victor Fleming and featuring Bessie Love, Warner Baxter and Raymond Hatton in the cast, will be the feature at the week end here.

Miss Love, as Nora O'Shea, after the death of her mother in Ireland, journeys to Tucson, Arizona to live with her brother, a cowboy on the ranch owned by "Big Boy" Morgan, played by Warner Baxter.

When she arrives at her destination, the boy is not there to meet her. It develops that he has left the ranch to join in with a gang of cattle smugglers and gamblers, headed by one Zobester. Morgan, however, receives the girl and lies to her about her brother.

Morgan gets into a gambling session and loses controlling interest in his ranch to Holdbrook (Walter McGrail), a tool of Zobester.

In time Nora learns the whereabouts of her brother and sets out to try to win him back to honesty, only to be imprisoned herself by the smugglers. It takes "Big Boy" Morgan and all his men, backed up by an entire company of U.S. cavalry to rescue her. The brother dies protecting Morgan. Holdbrook, the gambler, gives up his interest in the ranch to the girl, knowing that she loves Morgan.
