PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1926 CHRIS MOELLER CASE BEING PRESSED

KINGSWAY HOTEL IN VANCOUVER IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Minister of Customs Issues Statement on Pacific Rum Running

OTTAWA, Dec. 28 .- Hon. W. D. Euler, minister of customs, terview this morning, said the pressing of the Chris Moeller ase was merely incidental to the department's endeavor to meet the bootlegging situation on the British Columbia coast. "We have information," he said, "that cargoes are not only diverted from stated desinations into the United States but also into Canada. There is no doubt the Chris Moeller cargo was not really going to San Blas, Mexico. We propose to protect the revenue of Canada and enforce the terms of the treaty with the United States."

PRESIDENT VON HINDENBURG of Germany reviewing the troops of the German Reich with Dr. Otto Gessler, defense minister, at the opening of the new infantry school at Dresden,

THESE ARE INSTRUCTIONS FROM CUSTOMS HEADQUARTERS RE-REGARDING CHRIS MOELLER

VICTORIA, Dec. 28,-"Seize the cargo of the Chris Moeller, place it in a warehouse and allow the vessel to proceed." These instructions were received from the customs authorities at Ottawa yesterday by Customs Collector Davie. The liquor laden vessel has been held up in the harbor here for several weeks on recommendation of the customs commission after doubts had been expressed that the cargo was really intended for Mexico whence it was supposed to be consigned.

OTTAWA CONFIRMS OTTAWA, Dec. 28 .- Customs officlass here confirmed the report from Victoria that the Chris Moeller would be allowed to clear from that port minus her cargo. The reason given was that there was nothing against the ship but that false declarations had been made in regard to the cargo.

est women in London is Miss Kathleen Hoahing, aged 23, the first Chinese woman to pass the solicitors' final examination. At the end of this month she will have completed serving her articles to a London firm of solicitors, and will be fully qualified. "I want to go out East and start a practice of my own," she said yesterday, "perhaps in Singapore, where I have an uncle who is a barrister." Born in British Guiana, Miss Hoahing was educated at a conven school there, and when she came England seven years ago finished her education at Salisbury. Afterwards she studied for a time at an agricultural college in Kent, and then became articled. Before she goes out East, however, she will make a tour of the world. Much of her spare time is spent in travel. Her mother was the first Chinese woman to become a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, Ireland. Her young sister studied as a barrister, but was married before she was called.
