

GYROS WINNERS OF FIRST GAME

Defeated Sons of Canada in Baseball Play-off by 9 to 1.—Too Much Stalling.

The Gyro Club defeated the Native Sons of Canada by a score of 9 to 1 in the first game of the city championship baseball play-off last night.

The Gyros got away to a big start by scoring seven runs in the first two innings. In the first frame George Hill knocked out a three bagger with the bases full and in the second Teddy Tite repeated the performance with two on. Fielding errors, including a couple of bad overthrows on the part of the Sons, started the Gyros on the uphill track.

After the disastrous first two innings, there was a decided inclination on the part of the teams to stall, this being much to the disgust of the spectators. The result was that the game only went five innings when it was called on account of darkness.

Schenkler and McKeown composed the Gyro battery, while Vic Menzies relieved Bill Lambie on the mound for the Sons in the third inning, Balfour being the catcher.

It was the superior fielding of the Gyros, particularly on the part of Haveland on third base, that to a large extent decided the game.

F. Gordon was umpire of balls and strikes while Herman Loblic and Ralph Smith officiated on the base lines.

BOYS UNDER 17 ARE REFUSED LICENSES TO DRIVE AUTOMOBILES

VICTORIA, Sept. 3.—No longer can boys under seventeen years of age procure special permits from Chief of Police John Fry to drive automobiles, either trucks or private vehicles, according to instructions issued by the Board of Police Commissioners in session. Commissioner W. E. Staneland recalled the tragic death of a boy on Hillside Avenue on July 30, who was riding with the 16-year-old driver of a milk delivery wagon, when they collided with a street car.

"We must take steps at once to prevent a recurrence of such accidents," said the commissioner. I move that no special licenses be given by the Chief of Police to persons under seventeen years of age."

Chief Fry explained that he had not issued any such permits unless the applications for such were signed and approved by the parents of boys. He said that if the father of a boy or girl was willing for his child to drive a car, it must be that he considered them competent.

FORMER BISHOP OF VANCOUVER ISLAND IS RELIEVING IN LONDON

Perrin Was Conspicuous During War in Rebuking Mansion House Banquet

LONDON, Sept. 3.—During the absence of the Bishop of London, the diocese is in charge of the Rt. Rev. W. W. Perrin. Before assuming his present office, Bishop-Suffragan of Willesden, in 1911, Bishop Perrin was for many years head of Columbia diocese on Vancouver Island. In the second year of the war he publicly reproved the Lord Mayor of London for "the exhibition of intemperance in eating and drinking as indicated by the Mansion House banquet." The Bishop's reproof, extended to Prime Minister Asquith for attending the function. He thought the Lord Mayor ought to have invited his guests to tea and coffee, to be followed by the usual speeches. The King's lead in forswearing intoxicants while the war lasted had been made impotent by His Majesty's ministers, the Bishop declared.

Bishop Perrin has also urged the younger married clergy to go to the Dominions. An appointment overseas, he says, may not mean much in increased pay, but it frequently provides better openings for a clergyman's children.

ELECTION BULLETIN

Notes on the Campaign By One Who is Watching the Game from the Outside.

Liberals claim they will have 500 majority for Fred Stork in Prince Rupert and over a thousand in the whole constituency. They say the treatment accorded the Oona River settlers in refusing them a poll insures a full Liberal quota from that point. What is needed is a returning officer who will do the fair thing.

A Liberal on the street yesterday was offering to bet that Stork would get five hundred majority in town and there were no takers. There must be something wrong with the sporting instinct of the Tories.

"Mr. Meighen is through. He knows it. The public now knows it. And he knows that the public knows it. Anyone who listened to his address last night will feel how hopelessly he is temperamentally out of tune with the new spirit of a growing and prosperous Canada."—Vancouver Sun.

WANTED—A man who knows exactly what Premier Meighen stands for and who will undertake to bind him to a set policy for east and west. Apply Conservative Committee Room, City.

WANTED—Some person with a little sack of money to take some of the bets that have been offered on the result by the Liberal supporters. Apply anywhere at any time.

It is rumored around town that a committee of Brady supporters have been figuring for a week to find out what Brady's minority will be and they have not yet been able to get low enough.

It is reported that the prominent Conservative who bet a dollar that Meighen would get as many supporters in the next House as he had in the last is now trying to hedge and is betting the other way to save himself. Possibly this is not correct. The editor says we must not try to deceive the public.

A prominent Conservative editor, not a million miles from Prince Rupert sucks the end of his pencil two hours every night wondering what in the blazes he is going to conjure up to make those Liberals look like two bits among a bunch of nickels.

They say that the Conservative committee is praying for the editor of the Daily News and hoping he will be given a happy release from the cares of this world pretty soon.

Not a single Conservative newspaper in British Columbia has dared to explain or discuss Mr. Meighen's imperial relations policy in the event of a war in which the Empire had become involved. Yet it is one of the chief planks in the Conservative party's platform. What is the matter with it? Why do the Tories dodge it? Imagine a great party afraid to discuss its foreign policy?

If Mr. Meighen is returned to office on September 14 one of the first things his government would do would be to restore the old scale of import duties on automobiles. Of course he would. Did he not take two men into his cabinet who are actively interested in the automobile business—Mr. Chaplin and Mr. Ryckman?

MINER'S RACE AGAINST TIME

Thomas King Made Rapid Time in Midnight Tramp Over Mountain Trail to Catch Train

LIFE OF PROSPECTOR

SMITHERS, Sept. 3.—An instance showing that the life of a prospector is not all contentment and pleasure was brought to the fore last Saturday night when two of our citizens volunteered to carry a message to a comrade who was working with his partner on a mining claim high up in the canyons of the Babine Range.

Mrs. Thos. King has been ill in Prince Rupert for some time, and on Saturday night when the telegram came that there was a change for the worse, Tommy King was at the Little Joe Mine, twenty-three miles from Smithers. The last few miles of the trail is not very well-known but Frank Messner and Ben Nelson, who had both been over it once or twice volunteered to tackle the trip that night and try and have King in town in time to catch the passenger train for Prince Rupert due to leave at six o'clock the next morning. Messner had just come in from the Babine a couple of hours previous but in a few minutes was ready for the trip. W. F. Boyer took the men as far as he could by car or about half way and they then started to break records for mountain trail climbing.

Reached Cabin

The cabin where King and his partner were staying was reached at 2.30 a.m. and in five minutes Tommy was up and had started for town, alone, telling the boys to get a cup of tea and they could catch up to him. In fifteen minutes they had also started on the return trip. Day was now starting to break, but there were still shadows in the canyons and around bluffs where the trail had to be closely watched to prevent accident. Tommy King is by no means a young man and Messner and Nelson, thinking to catch him in a couple of miles started out at a dog trot, but as the miles passed and they were not overtaking him, their pace quickened, until when with still about five minutes to go to where the car was waiting, they heard the motor start as Boyer left for town with King.

Splendid Grit

In his race down the mountain trails against time, King had taken many tumbles and his clothes were torn, and knees and elbows cut and bruised, but his grit had kept him going only to be disappointed, as the rain was on time and had pulled out for Prince Rupert a couple of minutes before he reached the station.

Missing the train delayed Mr. King's arrival at his sick wife's bedside by several hours, but it enabled him to remove some of the effects of his trip.

Messner's little jaunt during the night brought his total mileage for the twenty-four hours up to fifty-two miles not counting the car rides.

FAMOUS BATTLES FOR THE HEAVYWEIGHT TITLE

Jim Jeffries Wins

Jim Jeffries knocked out Bob Fitzsimmons July 25, 1902, in the eighth round of a bout in a vacant San Francisco lot with a high board fence around it. A crowd of 8,300 was attracted to the enclosure.

Fitzsimmons appeared on the scene in considerable style, arriving in a carriage.

Not to be outdone by the carriage used for transportation by Fitz, Eddie Graney, the referee, was all dressed up in the "conventional dress."

A few heavily veiled women sat in boxes but no demonstration of disapproval was made by the crowd.

The ticket sale was estimated at $35,000.

"I have now retired permanently" was an announcement authorized by Fitzsimmons after the bout.

SPORT CHAT

The first game of the Gilluly Cup football series will be played this evening at Aeropolis Hill grounds, the kick-off being set for 6.15 sharp so that the game may be completed and not called on account of darkness as was Tuesday evening's. The Moose and Grand Terminal showed on Tuesday night that they are still full of pep and enthusiasm so a good match should be forthcoming tonight when they enter the field for the first trophy of the season. Two games will be played and, should the teams be tied, there will be a third.

FLAG OF SECESSION FROM THE DOMINION

(Victoria Times) Mr. Meighen is reported as saying that a Liberal candidate in the Maritime provinces is running on a secession platform. That candidate must have been listening to the speech by Mr. Meighen in the same section a few weeks ago in which he declared that in certain circumstances the sooner we unfurl the white flag of secession the better. There always has been a feeling in some quarters in the Atlantic provinces that they would be better off if they comprised a Dominion of their own and it was this feeling Mr. Meighen was trying artfully to cultivate when he made his allusion to the "white flag of secession." But that is nothing compared with his imperial relations policy, which amounts to little less than a declaration of independence, and which for that reason is not discussed in western Canada by himself or his followers.
