GOLDBLOOM GOING EAST TO INTERVIEW FUR MANUFACTURERS

W. Goldbloom is leaving for the eastern markets on Saturday and expects to be away for several weeks. He is going to interview the manufacturers in the eastern centres and to arrange for the disposal of this coming season's catch of fur. By selling direct to these manufacturers, and cutting out the intermediate profit-takers, he can obtain from 10 to 15 per cent more than by selling through the regular channels. This gives him the advantage of paying the local trappers and buyers this extra percentage.

That Goldbloom's high prices are appreciated by the trappers is shown by the fact that his business last year was just doubled, showing that the old reliable house has the confidence of the trappers.

REGINALD DENNY in

"ROLLING HOME"

Reginald, dead broke, business smashed, everything gone, had to return to the old home town and live up to the millionaire he claimed to be. If nerve had been money, Vanderbilt and Rockefeller would look like pikers compared with Reg. And all because he was in love. He came "rolling home" in a Rolls-Royce with a lone dime in his pocket. She believed all he told her and her faith in him gave him an astounding idea which turned the ten cents into a million within twenty four hours. A bright, breezy, racy, Denny comedy-drama, full of pep, romance and laughs. Strong cast.

Reginald Denny, Marion Nixon, E. J. Ratcliffe, Ben Hendricks, Jr., George Nicholls, Margaret Seddon and many others.
