Manson Also Gives Address in Support of Liberal Candidate For This District.

Silencing all opposition by their clear and lucid exposition of Dominion politics Fred Stork, M. P., and Hon, A. M. > In introducing Mr. Stork to the audience, chairman A. M. Ruddy said that Mr. Stork was really too well known here to need any introduction, and the speaker might rest assured that when Burns Lake votes are counted on September 14, the majority here for Stork would be greater than ever.

Mr. Stork began his address by stating that this is the fourth time he has appeared as a candidate for the Liberal party, namely, in 1917, 1921, 1925 and 1926. On each previous occasion he had substantially increased his majority and by present indications his coming vote would increase. his majority by a larger vote than ever. In the present election the speaker affirmed that he Conservative government could not expect to hold the number of seats they now possessed. gargle, to check germ The elimination of three-cornered AMALGAMATION OF contests alone would assure a Liheral victory, "Mr. King will again be Prime Minister following the counting of the votes on the 14th of September." said Mr. Storb.

Free From Collusion

Continuing, the speaker covered the so-called "Customs Scandals," and gave proof that the Liberal government were free from any collusion with the graf- amalgamation of Victoria, Oak ters.
