JUDGE GOES NORTH TO HOLD TRIAL OF ESKIMO PRISONER

EDMONTON, April 23.—Judge Dubuc, who has already had connection with the trials of Eskimos in the far north, expects to leave for Aklavik on June 1, to preside over a hearing resulting from another killing in the northern territories. An Eskimo named Ikayena will be the accused, having been apprehended by the R.C.M.P. detachment at Tree River, acting under Sergeant F. A. Barnes, in January or February of 1925, for the shooting of a native, Uluksak, on Parry River in the summer of 1924.

Judge Dubuc will have with him, when he commences his journey to the north, two lawyers, one for the prosecution, the other for the defence and a personal secretary. These further appointments have not been made, according to the judge.

It is possible that there may be more than one trial held in the northern areas during the coming summer, but Judge Dubuc as yet has received no word of any but that concerning Ikayena.
