FLOUR IS UP; BUTTER DOWN

Citrus Fruits Firm but Relief in Sight—New Vegetables Making Their Appearance

The flour market has advanced 60c per barrel during the past fortnight and the future is uncertain. A lot of money may be made or lost on stocks on hand. The butter market is declining and there is no change in sugar. Citrus fruits have been going up but it is thought that they have about reached the top. There will be relief probably with the new crop of Valencia oranges which is now coming in.

Housewives are being attracted by seasonal vegetables such as new radishes, beets, carrots, etc., which are making their appearance.

The meat market is high with advances to be noted generally in fresh and smoked lines.

LADY IN WAITING TO QUEEN OF HOLLAND VISITING IN CANADA

WINNIPEG, Apr. 23.—Countess van Limburg Stirum, lady-in-waiting to Wilhemina, Queen of Holland, passed through the city on the Continental Limited last night en route from New York to the Pacific Coast.

A charming lady with old-fashioned ideas of dress, the Countess is delighted with the Canadian spring and expressed her appreciation of the scenery along the Canadian National railways, by which she is traveling across the continent. The distinguished visitor is due in Calgary Saturday morning where she will be the guest of friends before proceeding to Macleod for a short stay. She will also meet friends in Edmonton before going on to Vancouver and Victoria and thence down the coast to the Panama Canal.

King Mal's Complaint

I hope you haven't heard this "howler"! A schoolboy writing a composition on Henry VIII. comments: "At this time Henry walked with difficulty, having an abcess on his knee." Sounds like the old boy, doesn't it?

SUCCESSFUL REPORTEE.

Wife—I'm sick of being married.
Hubby—So's your old man.—
Judge.

EVENING VESTS WITH TINY PINK ROSES ON BACKGROUND OF WHITE

LONDON, April 23.—Silk manufacturers are trying to popularize evening vests for men which have tiny pink roses and other flowers in their natural colors on a background of white or cream.

A similar style was started in the time of King Edward's youth, and the then Prince of Wales wore the bright vests in an effort to boom the dying silk industry in certain parts of England. But the style was short lived. It was too Pickwickian for the Victorian Age, and West End tailors now say that vests in the pastel shades will never be used by modern men of taste.
