OPEN HARBOR MENTIONED BY PRAIRIE PAPER

Shippers Urged by Edmonton to Ship by Prince Rupert and Vancouver

The Edmonton Bulletin, now controlled by Vancouver interests, has awakened to the fact that Prince Rupert is a grain port, that it has a harbor open all the year round and it urged that it and Vancouver harbor be utilized for the benefit of the growers of the grain. The editorial article follows:

"The Government elevator in this city is reported full to the roof, with the outgoing volume of grain not more than sufficient to make room for that coming in. There could be no more convincing proof that this great storehouse was built none too soon, and that it is doing a real service to the farmers and to all who are interested in the grain trade. Without the elevator a large proportion of the grain now binned there would be lying in farm granaries and other less suitable places, and much of what is going forward would have to be sold as damp grain, and therefore at a lower price than it brings after passing through the drying plant.

Slow Movement

"The present season is exceptional in the amount of grain which needs to be dried. To that, in part, may be due the accumulation that has taken place here. But another contributing factor has been the comparatively slow movement to the Pacific. Whatever the cause, reports from Vancouver are that the elevators there have not been utilized to more than half of their capacity thus far in the shipping season. Now that the Lakes have closed there will be a greater pressure on the Pacific outlet, and the movement westward will doubtless speed up. But a larger outflow, during the earlier weeks of the season would have left the elevators and rolling stock free to meet that extra demand to better advantage.

Diverted to East

To function as it should, in future years the westward movement will have to be started at high speed as soon as the prairie wheat begins to run out of the separators. At present, grain which should go to the Pacific is diverted eastward during the season of open Lake navigation, and the cheaper western route is only brought into full play when there is no other route open. With the Vancouver and Prince Rupert harbors open the year round, and more money for the grower if his grain goes out that way, there never should be anything resembling a grain blockade so far as this province and western Saskatchewan are concerned. But the present practice of disregarding the Pacific route while the eastern route is open, and then trying to jam the whole unexported balance of the crop through the western "spout" in the few winter months, is inviting as close a resemblance to a grain blockade as the circumstances permit.

NEW GYMNASIUM NEARS COMPLETION

Request For Sidewalk Presented to City Council and Acted Upon

The board of the United Church gymnasium which is being erected in east end of city petitioned council last night for a sidewalk leading to the premises along Seventh Avenue from Donald Street. It was stated that the building would be ready for opening in two weeks' time and that the sidewalk would be necessary so that furniture could be moved to the building and also so that the public might have access. On motion of Ald. Perry, seconded by Ald. Brown, after the suggestion had been made by Ald. Casey, it was decided to furnish the church with sufficient old plank to build the sidewalk.

FIRE DEPARTMENT REPORTS FOR TWO MONTHS PRESENTED

Reports of the fire chief covering activities of the department for the months of November and December were presented to the city council last night. During November there were five calls, loss amounting to $1,054.34 being covered by insurance. This, the report stated, was exclusive of the sawmill fire on November 14 in connection with which the loss had not yet been adjusted. In December there were six alarms with damage of $337.52 covered by insurance. Expenditure for November was $1,222.70 and for December, $1,503.40, the salaries for each month totalling $1,077. Equipment of the department was reported to be in good order.

Nerves Broken by Overwork

Was weak, nervous, sleepless. Restored by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

The restorative power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is truly remarkable as is proven by the experience of the writer of this letter. And yet this is only the usual experience of people who put Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to the test. Miss Jennie Kent, 139 Northumberland St., Brantford, Ont. writes:—"The strain of nursing my mother through a long illness left me in a weak, run down condition which affected my nerves. I had severe pains in the nerve centres of my arms and limbs which often kept me awake for hours at night. I also had a heavy dragging pain across my back and felt all the time as if I would not be able to keep on much longer. A treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has removed these symptoms, however, and built me up wonderfully."

ESQUIMALT DOCK TO OPEN IN MARCH

VICTORIA, Jan. 12.—Although no official announcement is forthcoming as to the date for the opening of the new government drydock at Esquimalt it is considered probable in authoritative circles here that the long-anticipated event will take place about the end of next March. Final touches are now being put to the 1150-foot drydock at Skinner's cove and with the completion of the second steel caisson by Yarrows, Limited, there will be nothing to deter the official opening of the basin. Hon. J. H. King, federal minister of public works, and other representatives of the Ottawa government will come to the coast for the event, it is understood here.

Accounts up to January 11 totalling $3,921.42 were passed for payment at last night's meeting of the city council.
