

BASEBALL IS PLAYED TODAY

Good Weather Ushers in all Eight Games in Big League Series for Opening

MANY AGED PLAYERS
Babe Adams, Pirates' Veteran Pitcher, is Now 43 Years of Age and Going Strong

NEW YORK, April 13.—With the opening of the major baseball season today last year's pennant winners in the American and National Leagues face stiff opposition in their initial games. Washington Americans are pitted against the Philadelphia Athletics while Pittsburgh meets the St. Louis Cardinals. The New York Giants try conclusions with Brooklyn. Bright clear weather is promised for all eight games.

Age of Players
Despite the popular conception of baseball as ever beckoning to the athlete of the early twenties, rosters of the clubs indicate a growing tendency of managers to pin their faith largely on men between the ages of 30 and 40. This year the veterans responded in increasing numbers to the call of base-hit warfare, with no less than 23 players of 35 or more years among outstanding dependables.

Outstanding exceptions to the rule of age are found in the two Boston clubs, which have the youngest teams in their respective leagues. The Braves have a club whose average age is 26 years and 9 months, while the Red Sox average approximately 26 years.

Ten Veterans
In sharp contrast are the Washington Senators, twice winners of the American League flag, with a team averaging 30 years and 6 months. Ten of their players have reached the veteran class, with Walter Johnson, pitching ace of the club, now in his fortieth year. Hank Severid, Roger Peckinpaugh, and Sam Rice are next in line, all at the 35-year mark, while Joe Bush, Johnny Tobin, Dutch Reuther, Stanley Coveleskie, Joe Judge and Joe Harris are between 30 and 35.

Three teams in the thick of the National League pennant fight of 1925, all rates by critics as leading contenders, depend largely on players over 30. Despite an inclination to refer to the champion Pirates as a youthful team, their roster reveals 12 players who already have passed their thirtieth birthdays or will reach that mark during the coming race. The Giants go even higher with 13 men in the same class, while the Cincinnati Reds, third in 1925, will have an even dozen.

Pitching Veterans
On the roster of the Pirates is the grand old pitching veteran, Babe Adams, now 43. Six other Pirate hurlers are in the zone between 30 and 35—Vic Aldridge, Ray Kromer, Lee Meadows, Red Oldham, Tom Sheehan and Johnny Morrison. Max Carey, captain of the club, is 36, while Carson Bigbee, Clyde Barnhart, Stuffy McInnis and Johnny Rawlings also are in the veteran division.

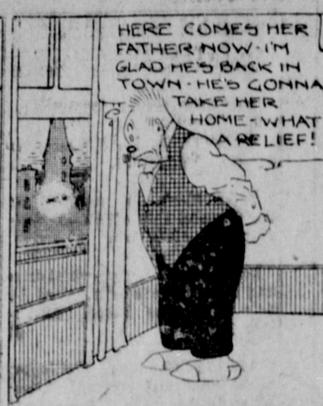

Grover Hartley tops the Giants' playing field at 38 years, two more than carried by the little third sacker, Heinie Groh. Others between 30 and 35 are George Kelly, Irish Meusel, Hugh McCullin, Art Nehf, Jack Scott, Bill Southworth, Al Tyson, Ross Young and Frank Snyder.

Cuban Star
Leading the veteran Cincinnati warriors is the Cuban pitching star, Adolfo Luque, now nearly 36. Eppa Rixey, another slab veteran, soon will be 35. Carl Mays, Bubbles Hargrave, Val Pichnich, Sammy Bohne, Frank Emmer, Babe Pinelli, Wally Pipp, Rube Brossler, Eddie Roush and Curtis Walker are either over 30 or will pass the mark this season.

It remains for the Brooklyn Dodgers, however, to top both leagues in veteran material, for President-Manager Robinson will call upon 15 athletes between 30 and 40 years. Zach Wheat, perennial clouding star of the team, is now 38. Jacques Fournier, Dazzy Vance, Milton Stock and Burleigh Grimes have reached 33, two years short of Rabbit Maranville's age. Also in the 30 to 35 year zone are Jess Barnes, Jess Petty, Tiny Osborne and Bill Marriott.

Gate Receipts Largest in the Berlenbach-Delaney Fight on December 11

NEW YORK, April 13.—Figures for the local indoor boxing season indicate that light heavyweights are the drawing cards of today, with Jack Delaney and the champion, Paul Berlenbach, among the leaders. Delaney, pitted against Mike McTigue on March 15, saw 17,747 persons contribute to the expenses of the bout. Delaney and Berlenbach fought December 11 before 16,916 who had paid their way. Tiger Flowers took the middleweight title from Harry Greb before 16,237.

SPORT CHAT

Joe McPhee, well known pioneer of this district, says he would not go across the street to see the world's billiard champion do his stuff but Joe sure can get a kick out of a baseball game. It's sport, like anything else, it is a matter of taste. Some people like one thing and don't care much for another like, for instance, the baseball and football fans. It is largely a matter of how one was educated in athletics. Naturally, a person who has never seen a baseball or a football game is not expected to develop much enthusiasm for the one while he may be very keen on the other. While one particular person may not care very much for some particular line of sport, there is something wrong with the person who does not get a good deal of pleasure out of some branch of athletics be it baseball, football, lacrosse, basketball, billiard or any of the region of recreative competitions.

It has been a pleasure for a great many people in Prince Rupert to witness the prowess of Stanley Newman, the British professional, who had been giving billiard exhibitions here for the past week. Newman may be handicapped in the eyes of some in being a professional. He may not be the best billiard player in the Old Country but he is certainly the most skilled player that has ever visited this town. He is a wonderful billiardist and it has been a privilege to have him here and, particularly so.

Heading the veteran Cincinnati warriors is the Cuban pitching star, Adolfo Luque, now nearly 36. Eppa Rixey, another slab veteran, soon will be 35. Carl Mays, Bubbles Hargrave, Val Pichnich, Sammy Bohne, Frank Emmer, Babe Pinelli, Wally Pipp, Rube Brossler, Eddie Roush and Curtis Walker are either over 30 or will pass the mark this season.

It remains for the Brooklyn Dodgers, however, to top both leagues in veteran material, for President-Manager Robinson will call upon 15 athletes between 30 and 40 years. Zach Wheat, perennial clouding star of the team, is now 38. Jacques Fournier, Dazzy Vance, Milton Stock and Burleigh Grimes have reached 33, two years short of Rabbit Maranville's age. Also in the 30 to 35 year zone are Jess Barnes, Jess Petty, Tiny Osborne and Bill Marriott.

Baby Eczema

Soon Disappears with the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment

Only mothers who have witnessed the suffering of their babies when tortured by eczema fully appreciate the remarkable soothing, healing effects of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Most babies at one time or another fall victims to skin irritations, chafing of the skin or eczema. For this reason it is a fine habit to always have at hand when bathing baby a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You never know when roughness and redness of the skin is going to develop into something more serious. A touch of Dr. Chase's Ointment keeps the skin smooth and velvety and prevents serious skin affections.

There are scores of uses for Dr. Chase's Ointment. Once it finds its way into the home it is soon considered indispensable.

since the public at large was given the opportunity to see him display his wares. Ben Sell, proprietor of the new Grand Terminal Billiard Club, is to be congratulated not only on opening such a fine resort in the city but also for his initiative in bringing Stanley Newman here to take part in its baptism.

NEW REGULATIONS REGARDING TRAFFIC

Right of Way Will be Given on Highways so Designated and Cars Entering From Side Must Stop

VICTORIA, April 13.—May 1 will see the enforcement of the new regulations designed to make traffic on British Columbia roads and highways safe and comfortable for everybody. This date for the beginning of the new era in road conditions is announced at the Public Works Department.

Previous to the enforcement of the new rules Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, will take under advisement any representations that are made to him in regard to the proposed traffic code. The regulations as announced last week are subject to alteration in some details if it is found that they work an unnecessary hardship on anyone. Bus operators, whose business is vitally affected by the regulations, are expected to make representations to Dr. Sutherland regarding bus rules. These are strict, describing the weight and size of busses which may be used here and setting up a new system of speed schedules and guaranteed compensation in case of accident.

While the roads affected by some of the new safety regulations have not been definitely fixed yet, a number of Island roads will be included in this class. The Island Highway and the Saanich Roads will be regarded as highways of first importance, before entering which from side roads motorists must stop their cars. The Minister of Public Works can designate

The extent of this saving to the taxpayer was stressed by Alderman P. R. Brown, chairman of the finance committee, when he showed how the whole reduction would work out. Alderman Brown said that on a lot that had been valued last year at $1,000 the taxes on the 39.3 mill rate would amount in 1925 to $39.30. This year, owing to the reduction in the assessment of 11.5 per cent this lot would be valued at only $885. On the rate of taxation struck last night of 39 mills the taxes would amount to $34.52. There was, thus a saving of $4.78, or a reduction of 12.16 per cent.

VICTORIA REDUCES TAXES THIS YEAR
Reduction Made to 39 Mills and Assessments Are Also Considerably Lower

VICTORIA, April 12.—The city council has met the insistent demand for the trimming of taxation for the year to the lowest possible limit and adopted a mill rate of 39, which is a slight reduction from that of last year, when the taxation was based on the rate of 39.3 mills. This year in addition to the reduction in the mill rate, there is the added advantage of a reduction in the rate of assessment, which materially lessens the taxpayers' obligation.

The extent of this saving to the taxpayer was stressed by Alderman P. R. Brown, chairman of the finance committee, when he showed how the whole reduction would work out.

Alderman Brown said that on a lot that had been valued last year at $1,000 the taxes on the 39.3 mill rate would amount in 1925 to $39.30.
