ELECTION WIRE AT EXHIBITION

Opening Night of Fair Will be Election Night

A special telegraph wire will be installed at the Exhibition Building by the Canadian National Telegraphs for the convenience of the public in obtaining the returns of the federal election on the opening night of the fall fair. Arrangements for this installation were completed today by David Thomson, manager of the Fair Board. A special telegraph operator will be in attendance and the results will be announced to the public as they come off the wire.

other branches off to claims up Williams Creek. There are promising showings in this area and considerable prospecting is being done. It is a very likely mineral country and, though rough, is fairly accessible; in all, a section recommended for prospecting.

Railway Section

A great deal of prospecting has been done along the railway, especially before and during construction, when the river boats were the means of transportation from Prince Rupert to Hazelton. From Prince Rupert to Terrace the formation is schist for about 15 miles from Rupert and the balance Coast Range granodiorite. Nothing of importance has been developed to date along the Coast and Islands

The coast and islands south and west of Prince Rupert, including the Queen Charlottes, certainly offer the most favorable transportation facilities in the district. The miles of waterways make ideal conditions for prospecting, though the rock formations and general geological features are considered not so conducive to mineral deposition as the eastern side of the coast range. This section is easily reached to almost any point by the coast-plying boats. Such properties as the Granby at Anyox, Surf Inlet on Princess Royal Island, and Britannia on Howe Sound demonstrate the possibilities for investment of capital for development and production.

An innovation in prospecting in this section of the country was the hydroplane reconnaissance made last summer by A. Little, a Detroit mining engineer, to the lower Liard and Frances Lake countries. I have no information as to the results obtained, other than that the flights were successful, demonstrating the feasibility of the use of such machines for prospecting the almost inaccessible interior.

VANCOUVER AND PRINCE RUPERT TO BE WORLD'S GREATEST GRAIN PORTS

Portland, what the United States would not do and say? Even Australia with no great timber resources, no great fisheries such as Canada's had cities like Sydney with population of a million and a quarter people. It made one wonder what was the matter with Canada. The country had lost the spirit of the pioneers, the spirit of faith and optimism and, in some cases, hope. But it had everything it had 25 years ago and the same prospects were to be seen in the future. It was a country for young men and young

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

July 29, 1916.

George Fitzmaurice, an old-timer well known here, has arrived in England, a member of the 72nd Seaforth Highlanders. At Bramshott Camp he met "Pat" Beak and Hugh McMillan, who is in a signalling corps.

Rev. H. R. Grant, who has been spending a week at Lakelse, returned to town last evening.

Miss Wilde, who has been engaged in private nursing in Prince Rupert, sailed for Victoria this morning to join her sister, Mrs. Williamson.

Mrs. Frank V. Gardner was a round-trip passenger aboard the Princess Alice yesterday afternoon returning south. Mr. Gardner is the governor of Missouri.

"WHAT FOOLS MEN"

If you think you are a wise guy, come on over and see what one snappy, modern, 1926 peach could do to you with the wing of one beautiful eyelash. See how she could fool you, toy with you, break your heart if she wished to. If you think you know all about women, just come over and learn one thing more. Come and learn to fall for them gracefully without making a fool of yourself. All star cast.

FELT: HATS

That Felt Hats are popular and sold for summer wear on a big scale is the opinion of "WOMEN'S WEAR" Magazine, published in Toronto. BUT—

WHY IS IT SO POPULAR?

1st: Because it is stylish and neat looking.
2nd: Because it has them in any color to match your costume.
3rd: Because it does not soil easily with rain.
4th: Because it is reasonable in price. Our hats, although of the best makes, such as RITZ & BAKER, range from $2.75 to $4.75.
