

"When Winter Comes,"

In winter, Lifebuoy, the all-year-round soap for hands and face, bath and shampoo, is especially good because:

It does not remove those natural oils which are necessary to skin health.

Its mild, creamy, antiseptic lather goes deep into the pores, cleansing and purifying.

It rids the hands and face of cold germs which, getting into the nose and mouth, would cause colds—real protection against winter's worst ills.

Lifebuoy, the ultra-refined, world's most widely used soap, is an inexpensive protective necessity.

Lifebuoy's cleanly health odour quickly vanishes—the protection remains.

Fashion Fads and Fancies

Women are changing the mode of riding to hounds and also the color of their riding habits.

At a London hunt it was noted they had forsaken the side saddle, of which Princess Mary is a confirmed adherent, and were riding astride.

There is a growing use of colors in riding habits and where it was the usual thing to wear all black or dark blue, many women are now wearing browns, greys and cinnamon.

EMBROIDERED SHOES
Elaborately embroidered shoes with heels that glitter and sparkle are among the latest footwear fashions seen at the London Shoe and Leather fair.

English toes show a tendency to be narrower while heels are slightly lower of the shaped or Louis types. Champagne or light fawn seem to be the dominating colors while the shoes are chosen for their tone or harmony with the frock, rather than absolutely to match.

CLOTHES PAY FOR DINNER
Mayfair hostesses are finding clothing establishments helpful in meeting the expenses of their dinner parties.

In return for permission to send a few of their mannequins to mingle with the guests and advertise their establishments, the clothing dealers not only will pay for the dinner, but will give the hostess a substantial check in addition.

HANDKERCHIEFS ABOUT HIPPS
The English attempt to revive the normal waist line persists. Women are now getting out the big, brightly colored handkerchiefs that were so popular a year ago and tying them about the hips of their new autumn dresses.

HATS FOR A QUEEN
The Queen of Spain has made an appointment with a Knightsbridge Modiste to try on some hats. About thirty, many of them in white and pale shades, have been made up for her.

HARMONIZING FINGER NAILS
Finger nails to harmonize with the rest of the toilette is another whim. The effect is produced with coral, black, green, blue or ivory varnish, which is applied to the nails with a tiny brush. The half moons are left untouched.

The new finger nail sets consist of half a dozen tiny bottles, each containing sufficient varnish for two applications. Then there is a large bottle of fluid which is guaranteed to remove all traces of the coloring when desired.

SEEN IN LONDON SOCIETY
Lady Osborne Beauclerk receiving guests at a wedding reception attired in a lovely deep lacquer-red dress and velvet hat to match.

Attending a wedding: The Dowager Duchess of Abercorn wearing a black and gold coat and a black and gold velvet hat.

Acting as mannequins for Lady Angela Forbes: Lady Cynthia Asquith wearing house frocks. Mrs. Winston Churchill's sister, Mrs. Bertram Romilly exhibiting dance frocks.

POWERED GLASS BEAUTIFIES
Powdered glass is being used extensively in beautifying the new English evening gowns. It is applied broadcastwise to a shot broche of shimmering silver and blue or silver and green and produces an effect much softer than beads.

ALL WHITE WEDDINGS
All-white weddings again are fashionable. One was chosen by Miss Joan Southey for her marriage to the Master of Falkland. Her dress was of "moyen age" white satin with a beautiful train embroidered in madonna lilies. She wore orange blossoms in her hair. Her nine young bridesmaids were attired in white frocks and wore wreaths of jasmine in their hair.

HOSE THINNER
Feminine whimsy again asserts itself. In the sudden return to winter fashion of the thinnest of thin black and gun metal silk hose. Man has a look and a shrug for the nether exposure of the expensively fur coated young ladies on New York's Fifth Avenue, whose legs shiver in a covering of goose-flesh and a 54-gauge stocking that is lighter than a chiffon veil.

HAT'S GOLDEN CROWN
Woman has found a new golden crown in this year's vogue for a bit of gold metal that is banding many of the smart winter hats. This recent crown of fashion is in the form of a closely woven strap, of fine mesh gold metal, with a buckle fastening in the front or on the side of the hat that wears it.

IN BALL, MAN'S WIVES
NUMBER ABOUT 100

LONDON, Nov. 16.—One man in Ball of the British Cameroons, West Africa, has 98 wives, while on the other hand there are 460 men in the town who have no wives at all.

Another man has 27 wives, while there are seven warriors with ten mates each, and 350 with but two spouses.

Some of the tribes, says a government report, keep up a slavery, witchcraft and trial by ordeal, and generally live in the most primitive conditions. The men in some tribes wear little clothing, and the women none, and it is the women who do all the work.
