XMAS PUDDING SEASON HERE

ENGLISH CHEF TELLS HOW TO MAKE FAMOUS OLD COUNTRY DELICACY

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The open season on English plum puddings has started. All over the island, from the hut of the lowest tenant farmer to the mansion of the highest peer, preparations for this traditional Christmas dish are under way.

Francois Latry, chef of the Savoy Restaurant, has already made 2,000 pounds of Christmas pudding. No ritual could be more impressive to the epicure than to see Mr. Latry mix his first plum pudding of the season.

For thirty years he has assembled his assistants about him on a date set several weeks before Christmas. Then, with a flourish that might be taken from some quaint, religious ceremony, he has poured the first bottle of brandy into the pudding mixture. A diminutive page boy always makes the first stir.

"Mix your puddings several weeks in advance and let the flavor improve," is his advice. Here is his own recipe for a seven-pound English plum pudding, made public for the first time:

Ingredients—Twelve ounces Malaga raisins, 2 ounces currants, 12 ounces suet, 9 ounces flour, 4 ounces chopped apple, one ounce orange peel, 8 ounces brown sugar, half pint milk, 12 ounces Smyrna raisins, 12 ounces crystallized peel, 10 ounces bread crumbs, one ounce ginger, one ounce citron peel, one teaspoonful salt, six eggs, quarter of a pint of brandy or sherry.

How to make it—All the dry ingredients should be well mixed together. A little extra mixing well repays the trouble. Beat the eggs and add them to the milk, then pour over the dry ingredients and again mix thoroughly. Pack into greased moulds and boil for six hours at the time of making. The puddings should be boiled for a further six hours when wanted for use. The best sauces are white, custard or brandy sauce.

EFFORT TO SECURE SHORTER HOURS OF LABOR IN ALBERTA

CALGARY, Nov. 27. — A determined attempt was made by many of the delegates attending the Alberta Federation of Labor convention this week to put through a recommendation that workmen's hours in the province should not exceed an eight-hour day or five days a week. This, however, was defeated after a considerable argument had arisen on the point, a resolution submitted by the Calgary Trades and Labor Council, that the Factory Act be amended fixing the maximum workday at eight hours for all employes in cities and towns, under section 13 of the Act, being adopted.

A. Farmilo, chairman of the resolutions committee, before the motion was put, stated that a commission called to consider hours of labor would sit in the province in December to make a thorough investigation. It would depend upon how much thought and influence the delegates could create throughout the province as to how far they get in the direction of a 40-hour week. He thought if they got a 44-hour week generally, workers would have accomplished a real step forward, as it was well known some worked 10 and even 12 hours a day.

RADIO-MOVIE SERMONS POSSIBLE, SAYS DIRECTOR

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Nov. 27.— Radio sermons illustrated by motion pictures are a possibility, says Fred Niblo, film director.

"Advance prints of proposed sermons, with a choice of selection, could be sent to churches subscribing to the service," he said. "The wave length would be printed on each film and, by tuning in on the specified Sunday, the picture could be projected to the accompaniment of radio subtitles and oratory of nationally-known pulpit figures.

"The smallest hamlet could hear the foremost preachers of the day at a nominal cost."

BLATCHFORD FIELD NAMED FOR MAYOR

Edmonton's Chief Magistrate Given Leave of Absence to Attend Session of Parliament

EDMONTON, Nov. 27. — Blatchford Field will be the name of the aviation grounds on the New Hagmann estate. The city council on motion of Alderman J. M. Douglas decided to ask the Dominion government that the airdrome, the first public flying field in Canada, be named after the man who was instrumental in getting it started.

Speaking in favor of the motion, Alderman Will Werner said that Mayor Blatchford had been the best mayor in the 14 years that he (Werner) had lived here. Leave of absence was granted the mayor from December 3 to allow him to take up his new duties as member from East Edmonton at Ottawa and Monday was the last night for him to preside at a council meeting.

MAYOR GRATEFUL

"I want to thank the aldermen, commissioner, heads of departments, civic employees, the press and the general public for kindness and serious co-operation during my three years as mayor," said K. A. Blatchford, M.P. "I do not think a mayor has ever had better support and I will never forget the interests of Edmonton."

"I move that the next mayor wear the same smile as you always do," said Alderman C. G. Robson, amid the applause of the entire council.

BOBBED HAIR HAS SAVED ONE GERMAN INDUSTRY

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—"Trim your own," seems to be the motto of large numbers of German maids and matrons who have succumbed to the bobbed-hair epidemic. A large steel goods works announce a heavy increase in the sale of hair clippers, and have found that in most cases women are the ultimate users.

Thus to at least one German industry, in contrast with those hard hit, the bobbed-hair fad has proved a decided accellerative.

"DUDS" STILL A MENACE IN FRENCH WAR AREAS

LENS, France, Nov. 27.— Casualties from hidden projectiles that have escaped the search of the crews employed to mop up the shell strewn regions of France are still common here, eight years ago the last cannon shot was fired.

Children are the most frequent sufferers. The severe regulations against the picking up of metal scraps by any but the persons employed to clean the region of projectiles have reduced the number of such accidents but they still occur at the rate of about two per week in the coal region.

SCRAMBLED POLITICS IN ONTARIO TODAY

(Edmonton Bulletin)

The one thing made clear by the nominations in Ontario is the confused state into which provincial politics have been thrown by the dodging of a badly scared premier. Nominally 111 supporters of the government were put in the running, against 132 opponents. But half the Conservative members are as likely to bolt the government on the liquor question as to support it. The opposing groups are split crosswise by the same issue.

Nobody can tell if the Ferguson government were returned whether it could change the liquor law. Nobody can tell if the opposing parties obtained a majority whether they could keep it from being changed. If the Ontario voters can discover from the line-up on nomination day what kind of a government they are likely to have, or what kind of a liquor law they are likely to get, after the affair is over, they must have a highly developed faculty of political prophecy.
