ALICE ARM

The Anglo-Belgian Mines Ltd., with a strong directorate consisting of Russell Whitelaw, Charles Reid, and John J. Murphy of Vancouver and James W. Doherty, Herbert Blumenthal, George H. Pecht and Robert H. O Bohr of San Francisco, has been formed to operate the Devlin Zinc property on the northeast fork of the Kitsault River. Development work will be resumed this spring on the property on which a tunnel was commenced last year by the late John Devlin.

A. Maguire left last week with a train of pack horses for the Eagle property on Haystack Mountain near the La Rose mine which will be developed this year by W. G. McMorris of Vancouver who recently bonded it.

Spring is now opening here after a phenomenal winter during which there was practically no snow or cold weather.

STEWART

R. J. O'Reilly, placer expert for the Standard Mines Corporation, after spending the winter at the Big Missouri mine here, has left for the south preparatory to proceeding north to the McDames Creek district in the Cassiar district where he will resume charge of placer work which he started last season.

A deal is pending whereby southern investors will take over and develop the Mayflower group of claims, adjoining the Dunwell mine on the north, which is owned by H. P. Gibson. The deal will also include the Tyee, belonging to James McKay and Charles Bibeau, and the Shamrock group, owned by Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Gibson and J. V. Clegg.

Four hundred feet of tunnel has been driven as a result of the North Country Mining Co.'s winter operations on the Gloria group of claims on Bulldog Creek.

The Stewart Assembly, Native Sons of Canada, has elected officers as follows: President, Harry Scovil; first-president, Godfrey Smith; second vice-president, H. W. M. Rolston; treasurer, D. MacLean and R. W. Kennedy; secretary, Lee M. Gordon; chaplain, Sid Fraser; sergeant at arms, Sid Wickwire; inside guard, J. Comer; outside guard, Kenneth McKay.

Bob McCombe and Joe McDonald have bonded to Vancouver interests the Mona group of claims near the head of Salmon River. An aggressive program of development work will be started as soon as possible in the spring.

The death occurred at the Premier Hospital recently of Christian Emil Lindgaard. Deceased was a native of Denmark and was thirty-eight years of age. He is survived by a widow and nine year old son residing at Hyder where the funeral service took place under the auspices of the Moose Lodge.

Gus Seiffert, managing director of the Emperor Mines, who has been spending the most of the winter in New York, is expected here shortly to institute another season's active development work on the property.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments ever given in Stewart was the Minstrel Show held last week by the United Services Club under the able management of Billy Orr and Harry Hooton. H. D. Rochfort was interlocutor and others contributing to the program included Frank Bowler, H. Cochrane, J. Morrice, J. W. Wilson, J. D. McDonald, L. T. Davis, Joe Wilson. Orchestral accompaniments were by a group of musicians consisting of Mrs. G. C. Andrew, J. P. Scarlett, L. M. Gordon and Joe Cullen and the Misses Muriel and Helen Crawford acted as ushers.

VICTORIA CLERGYMAN TALKS TO PROSPECTORS

VICTORIA, March 31—"Man is a mere speck in the long series of life which has existed on the earth for millions of years," said Rev. Robert Connell in speaking before the Vancouver Island Prospectors' Association. "Every species of life has developed to a certain point," he said, "and then disappeared forever." Mostly fossil remains are of fish and shells and but rarely of mammals, but in California there is a remarkable natural museum of fossil animals which is unique in the world. It is a bituminous lake, out upon which the great mammals of the past wandered from time to time, broke through and became engulfed and preserved.

Animal remains disappear with great rapidity. For example, in certain parts hares multiply very quickly and, after a number of years, are invariably attacked by a disease of the throat which destroys them almost entirely. But so rapidly do the bodies decay that dead hares are rarely seen. It is, therefore, mostly in the sea or in sediments laid down in the sea, that fossils may be found. The practical importance of fossils is very great. For example, in looking for oil it is important to know that certain shells exist in certain oil-bearing strata and are an indication of the existence of these strata.

STUDENT VOTE WORRYING POLITICIANS OF JAPAN

TOKYO, March 31.—How Japanese students will vote, now that a law is effective giving them suffrage, is worrying the politicians. There are many thousand students past twenty-five, the voting age under the new statute.

The majority of the students are said to be democratically, if not radically inclined and, if a Students' Party should be organized, the "old-line" leaders are unable to predict what the outcome might be.

NATION DRY MOVE LAUNCHED BY JAPANESE

TOKYO, March 31.—A nation-wide movement to prohibit the drinking of alcoholic liquors by men under twenty-five years of age has been launched by eleven different bodies in Japan, including the Japan Temperance Union and the Women's Reform Society. Leaders of the movement hope the Diet will enact a bill raising the drinking age, which now is twenty years.

SPORT CHAT

A $25 investment in a litter of pups because "I get lonesom of t'ere" brought fame and fortune to Shorty Russick, the now prominent sleigh dog racer and winner of the bog dog derbies. From that $25 litter descended his present team of giant tawny Russian wolfhound huskies. At first the dogs were merely company for the little trader. Then the sports at The Pas attracted him and he ran his first race there in 1923, finishing second in the 200-mile non-stop contest. From The Pas it was but a step to the exhibition and non-stop races at Banff and Winnipeg and then the big International at Quebec. The New Hampshire race was the ninth in which he had started and in every one he finished in the prize money.

The Portland hockey team did not get a chance to figure in the play-offs of the Western League but they may gather up more coin than the league leaders before the season closes. Being the only United States team in the Western league, Tex Rickard, the New York promoter had the Portland boys play a series of games in the Madison Square Garden, best two out of three, for a purse of $20,000, and it would not be strange if some of the stars on the Portland team are wearing Rickard's colors next season.
