J. E. DALRYMPLE HAS RESIGNED

GIVES UP POSITION WITH CANADIAN NATIONAL AS VICE-PRESIDENT

MONTREAL, Nov. 26.—J. E. Dalrymple, vice president in charge of traffic and express, Canadian National railways, announced his resignation to take effect December 31 next. A. T. Weldon, general traffic officer, is appointed vice-president, succeeding Mr. Dalrymple. The position of general traffic manager will be abolished.
 "I have been contemplating this move for some time past," said Mr. Dalrymple. "In anticipation of which our traffic department has undergone reorganization and now that the new officers are functioning I feel that I can relieve myself of the arduous duties which have devolved upon me for so long and still be satisfied that the work in which I have taken such keen interest will be carried on to a successful conclusion. Naturally it will be a wrench but one that I have been planning in order that I might have more time at home with my family and friends."

Mr. Dalrymple added that the management had granted him leave of absence during the month of December and that he was, therefore, immediately transferring all outstanding matters to Mr. Weldon, his successor. On being asked as to his immediate plans he stated that he proposed to stay at home and get better acquainted with his family and was not going to think about business until at least the New Year. He proposed to continue to reside in Montreal.
 Mr. Dalrymple has had a striking career, having been engaged with one railway interest for over forty years, starting in as office boy with the Grand Trunk in July 1883, and finally filling the position of vice-president of the succeeding company, the Canadian National railways.

ROTARY CLUB HEARS MR. JUSTICE D. A. McDONALD AND HEARS RENDITION OF ADDRESS
 At the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald gave the club literary treat by repeating the address of Spartacus to the gladiators at Rome urging them to rebellion. He also spoke of the love for the beautiful and kindly thoughts and of the value of sincerity and earnestness in small things. He told of the fact that in this age we worked with the strength of all ages because we were heirs to the thought that came from every human mind through books. There were biased on the sands of time by the Anglo Saxons perhaps more destructively the results of the more stern work of the race than the lighter and more frivolous works of the French people which were influenced by the joys of living. He quoted from Pauline Johnson, the Indian poetess, and then gave the splendid oration of the champion gladiator to his fellows.
