

SORE?

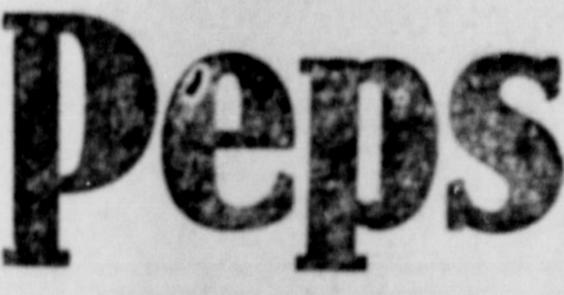

DEAL promptly with the first sign of hourseness. soreness or inflammationit might be the forerunner of laryngitis, influenza or serious bronchial trouble.

The quickest, safest and most soothing remedy is Peps. As a Peps tablet dissolves in the mouth it gives off medicinal fumes that are breathed into the innermost recesses of throat and chest.

In their speedy direct way Peps thoroughly disinfect the throat and sir-tubes, destroy mischievous germs, relieve any soreness, inflammation

Take Peps whenever you suspect you need them. A Peps in the mouth filters the air you breathe. and fortifies against sudden colds and chills and the infection dangers encountered in trains, street cars and crowded assemblies.

Peps are equally good for obstinate coughs and colds, bronchitis, bron chial asthma, and other chest weakne-ses of old and young

POEMS IN DRESSES

English dressmakers in search of catch-names for their new creations. have seized upon the poems of Alfred Musset and Jean Cocteau for names. 'Odile Reve au bord de L'lle," is an expuisite tea gown, while "Apres les Derniers Gestes," is not unnaturally a rather funereal looking gown.

BUTTONS AS DECORATIONS

Buttons and button holes along the side seam, reaching right from hem to way of decorating a simple velvet winter frock. The buttons are the size of silver American dollar. On one longsleeved, black velvet frock, antique sitlue crepe-de-chine the necessary touch

BRIGHT BLUES FOR PAINT

Bright blues, such as ultramarine and coval, are favorite colors for house painting in London this fall. The colors are particularly prominent in the fashionable Knightsbridge and South Kensington areas. There is an old superstition that by painting your house blue you keep the witches away from it and attract good luck.

DUCHESS' WINTER WARDROBE selection of her winter wardrobe. All the new colors-dahlia, prune, grotto green-are included. She had her favorite turban shaped hat copied for her in

THE "W" NECK

The "W" neck is the latest example of alphabetical style in English evening frocks. It is an amusing variation of the V-shape and U-shape necks and is being used on a large number of this season's dinner dresses, particularly those made from black velvet.

DEBS AND BLACK VELVET

Every Eton-cropped debutante and b-deb is insisting upon having at east one black velvet frock for evening velvet dinner dress relies for effect upon cut and line and rarely shows any trimming. In this respect the W-shape neck is a great help, creating unusual ffect about the corsage and removing he suggestion of hardness.

PURPLES AND DARK REDS

The Queen of Rumania's favoritism for purples and dark aubergine reds has | had a profound effect on Parision designers and these shades are becoming more prominent in the new winter

Short velvet jackets, particularly in !

One costumer has designed a sleeveess Dalmatian coat of quilted crepe de chine, dark red, to match the heavy woolen wrap which is worn over it on cold day. The inner coat is lined with squirrel and is clasped about the waist by a narrow belt.

"MELODY" IN HOSE

The melody of song was transformed ato the melody of color by a silk stocking firm. To display appropriate eventints for milady's hose, "La Vestale," which opened the New York opera season, served as their inspiration. On a huge card were displayed the the black notes dainty tints were
