Black-Stevens Exchange Vows At United Church

Dorothy Stevens, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Mattson, and J. Harry Black, manager of the Capitol and Totem theatres here, exchanged vows at a pretty double-ring ceremony in First United Church last Friday.

Reverend L. G. Sieber performed the ceremony.

The bride looked radiant in a classic tailored suit of warm cinnamon brown trimmed with deep brown military braid. Her hat, shoes and gloves were of matching shade, also trimmed with touches of deeper brown. In her box-shaped purse of matching hue, she carried a dainty compact, gift of the groom.

Her corsage of pink sweetheart roses lent a final delicate touch to her costume.

Mrs. Fred Meyer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and her husband, Fred Meyer, was best man. Mrs. Meyer wore a smart navy tailored suit with pale blue accessories and pretty sunburst corsage of pink carnations.

A novel feature of the ceremony was the grouping of the family around the bridal couple in a horseshoe during the marriage service. Included in the group was Mrs. E. Crum of Vancouver.

DINNER, RECEPTION

Following the service a dinner was held at the Canadian Legion and a reception took place later at 132 Fourth Avenue East, where the couple will reside.

For the reception the bride wore a dainty, street length gown featuring a black velvet bodice with a low cut round neckline and a skirt of frothy black net over gold lace.

Miss Wanda Black welcomed guests at the door.

During the evening the bride and groom cut a beautiful double-tiered wedding cake in traditional fashion.

Roussel- Gerard Nuptials Held At Church of Annunciation

Theresa Jacqueline Gerard yesterday became the bride of Denis Roussel at Annunciation Church with the Rev. O. P. Mohan officiating.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julien Gerard of Worck, Belgium, arrived in Canada a few months ago and came here a week ago from Ocean Falls.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roussel of Pad-dockwood, Saskatchewan.

The bride wore a grey suit with black accessories and carried a white bouquet of carnations. Her bridesmaid, Armida Foffoli, wore a grey wool dress and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Best man was John Laporte. A reception was held in the evening at 715 Eighth Avenue East, future home of the couple.

A three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a wedding bell and lily-of-the-valley was cut in traditional style. Father Mohan proposed the toast to the bride and it was responded to by the groom.
