CURE HERRING AT SEAL COVE

Millerd Cannery Starting Operations at Once: Men Being Employed There

Herring curing operations are starting immediately at the Seal Cove cannery stated Francis Millerd, owner of the plant, who returned to the city yesterday afternoon on the Prince Rupert after having spent several weeks in the south. Mr. Millerd brought with him several men and the full crew will be made up here to start work at once.

Mr. Millerd denied the report that he was to take over and operate the Prince Rupert cannery of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. this year.

Sees Discrimination

Mr. Millerd is very uncertain as to what his future activities at this port will be and he stated this morning that he was seriously considering withdrawing from here altogether. He charges "discrimination of the rankest kind" against himself in the matter of Japanese salmon fishing licenses and states that it has been impossible for him to obtain such licenses while at the same time the department has decided this year not to further reduce the Japanese licenses to other plants. Mr. Millerd declares that, when de decided to come here last year and asquired the plant at Seal Cove, he saw great prospects for the development of the fisheries here not only in salmon canning, which industry now has about reached its peak, but also in the curing of herring and canning of clams, etc. The next thing should be the development of fruit canning with establishment of can and box factories, etc., here. The Australian preferential treaty further should act as an encouragement to production on this coast but Mr. Millerd states that, as far as Prince Rupert, which should be a centre of such development, is concerned, southern interests are endeavoring to put every possible obstacle in the way and are being assisted in that attempt by the governmental authorities. The situation has become such that further development here is stifled.

At Alert Bay

Mr. Millerd announces that he is building a new cannery near Alert Bay where the floating cannery Laurel Whalen is at present. He also states it was himself and not the Gosse-Millerd Co., as stated in Tuesday's despatches, that had purchased the Sechart whaling station. It is his intention to replace the whaling station there with a fish meal plant.

Mr. Millerd will proceed to the Queen Charlotte Islands on Saturday night.

NOXIOUS WEEDS ARE COSTLY TO FARMERS

EDMONTON, Mar. 4. — (By Canadian Press) — The ravages of noxious weeds cost the farmers of Alberta approximately $12,000,000 last year, according to estimates made by W. J. Stephen, field crop commissioner.

"Keep down the weeds, and particularly the perrennial sow thistle by diversified farming and eternal vigilance," is the advice given by Mr. Stephen.

He stated that last year dockage averages on grain had been six per cent, compared with two per cent three years ago. The commissioner stated that one of the results of getting good registered seed distributed was that there would be more clean farms. It was expected that 70,000 bushels of grain would be handled at the government seed cleaning plant this year, he said.

Rub It On At Bed-Time

For Deep Chest Colds

All colds should be treated with vapors, for vapors alone can carry the medication DIRECTLY to the air passages and lungs.

Vicks is a "vapor" treatment in salve form. For deep chest colds you first apply hot wet towels over throat and chest to open the pores, then massage briskly with Vicks for 5 minutes, spread on thickly and cover with a flannel cloth.

Vicks not only penetrates like a poultice or plaster, but the ingredients, vaporized by the body heat, are inhaled all night long.

This double action usually checks the most stubborn cold overnight.

James Gillespie, logging superintendent for the Sitka Spruce Mills, returned to Queen Charlotte City on the Prince Charles this week from Vancouver where he has been in hospital.

The tramp freighter Pennyworth has arrived at Queen Charlotte City from New Westminster and will load a cargo of lumber at the Sitka Spruce Mill for delivery to the Atlantic seaboard.

EIGHT ENTRIES FOR BILLIARDS

Eight entries were received last night for the city individual billiard championship tournament and the first round was drawn as follows, the games to be played in the Elks' Home:

March 8—Col. S. P. McMordie vs. C. Balagno.

March 9—W. Long vs. Fred Lyle.

March 10—Sgt. Jebson vs. Geo. McIlmoyle.

March 11—George Waugh vs. Don Brown.

The cup, emblematic of city championship, is now held by George McIlmoyle, who won it last year for the first time. Three wins is necessary for permanent possession. There will also be prizes as usual, for the runner-up in the competition and the player who make the highest break. The first games will be to 500 points and the final to 1,000 points.

SPORT CHAT

Following a recent visit of two English trainers, Stanley Wooten and F. Darling, to the United States, there seems to be a strong possibility that several British race horses will cross the Atlantic this summer to compete on American tracks.

Edmonton papers are taking exception to reports published in the East that the Newman-Sterns' basketball team of Cleveland won the girls' basketball championship by recently defeating the London (Ontario) Westervelt Grads. They claim that it is impossible for that to be done until the Edmonton Commercial Grads have first been beaten.

It is not expected that Miss Helen Wills, California tennis star, and Miss Suzanne Lenglen, French champion, will meet again before June. Following her recent victory at Cannes over Miss Wills, the French champion was compelled to withdraw temporarily from tournaments "because of great fatigue."

LEFT CHURCH TO SEE HORSES ARRIVING

D. Rosier Says Men Deserting Trap Lines to Prospect for Silver

LETHBRIDGE, Mar. 4. — A large number of trappers are deserting their lines in order to get into the rush started by the reported discovery of silver in the barren lands to the east of Fort Smith, according to O. De Rosier, driver of the first horse team to reach McMurray.

De Rosier, who has come "outside" for the first time in fifteen years stated that the advent of his horses into Fort Resolution, where he collected a shipment of furs, created quite a stir among the inhabitants. The people were in church at the time, but they all flocked out to gather around the horses, the first to appear at that northern post and to many of the natives, it was their first glimpse of this domestic animal.

He brought out a load of furs that would have required ten dog teams to transport. He travelled all the way over the ice of the rivers and on several occasions the horses broke through, but without serious accident.

The present winter De Rosier reports has been exceptionally mild in the northland. The favorable weather he says prompted him to give the horses a trial. Under the conditions they proved much superior to dog teams.
