Ottawa correspondents still speak of Fred Stork as a probable deputy speaker. He is a close student of Parliamentary rules and has attended to his duties in the House much more closely than the average member. His appointment would prove popular here, it is thought as it would indicate the esteem in which he is held by the Parliamentary leaders at the capital.

Edgar Phinney, charged with wounding with intent, came up again before Stipendiary Magistrate H. F. McLeod in the provincial police court this morning and was further remanded for eight days. Oscar Sandstrom, the man alleged to have been wounded in a recent brawl at Lockeport, is still in hospital here but it is expected that his condition will be such that it will be possible to proceed with the preliminary trial next week.

Had 43 Boils And Carbuncles At One Time

Mr. Claud Melanson, Castleford, Ont., writes:—"In regard to your remedies I have to say that B.B.B. was the only medicine I could get to relieve me of my boils and carbuncles.

I had forty-three at one time, and my doctor told me to take

Burdock Blood Bitters.

The first bottle I took gave me such great results that I took three more, and after I had used them I was completely relieved of my boils and carbuncles."

Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
