

FEATURES HORSES IN FIRE PICTURE

Love, Romance and Infidelity Are Theme of Mid-Week Showing of "The Still Alarm."

In the mid-week picture, "The Still Alarm," Dick Fay, fireman, and his charming young wife, Lucy, have as a boarder, Perry Dunn, ward politician and man-about-town.

On the third anniversary of Dick and Lucy's wedding Perry brings her a bouquet in which is concealed a valuable gift. Lucy accepts the flowers but refuses to accept the jewelry.

Dick returns home with his present—a cheap little picture. While the three are at supper, Dick is called to duty by a tenement fire.

Eighteen years have passed and the baby, known as Drina Fay, raised by Dick, Andy and Mrs. Maloney, has grown into an attractive girl with flapper tendencies.

THE LIMITED MAIL TO BE SHOWN TONIGHT

Plot Tells of Efforts to Wreck Train and How Three Tramps Save It.

"The Limited Mail," here tonight, is a picturization of Elmer Vance's thrilling melodrama of the west, directed by George Hill.

The story concerns the fortunes of Bob Snobson, a ne'er-do-well easterner who turns tramp and joins forces with Spike and Potts, two others of the carefree brotherhood.

Together the two men bring up Bob's motherless little son Bobbie and together they fall in love with Caroline Dale, an attractive little waitress.

"THE GREATER GLORY" IS WEEK-END FILM

Adaptation of Austrian Novel to Screen Is Good Picture.

Despite the fact that "The Greater Glory," June Mathis' great super-feature, which will be shown at the week-end, deals entirely with Vienna during and after the war, there is not a single so-called war scene in the entire production.

One of the episodes shows the army of the former glorious Austrian empire going off to the war.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

August 16, 1916.

J. McNeil, of Telkwa, who arrived in the city last evening, says conditions in the Bulkley are good for cattle herds that are there now.

B. C. Mess, of Findlay, Durham & Brody, of Victoria, returned last evening from a trip along the line of the G.T.P. as far as Smithers. He was very agreeably surprised and the vast extent of arable lands delighted the visitor.

THE MAN IN THE MOON

Judging from the crowds at the Westholme and Boston Hall on Saturday night, Tom Mix has got nothing on Premier-Meighen and Leon Ladner as a drawing card.

When it comes to decorating arches of welcome you've got to hand it to the Conservative committee. It's wonderful how decorative genius will crop up unexpectedly.

perhaps Eve would have been too busy to be tempted. The first thing Pa usually does on Sunday morning is to grab the funny paper from the baby.

Nobody looks at a girl's hat nowadays. The greatest stunt on the installment plan was the world war.

Or the seed coming up in the garden like the picture on the packet. It will soon be the time for some of us to pay for last year's Xmas cards.

WHAT NOT TO DO IN WRITING LIMERICKS

Be Sure You Have the Rhythm Correct Or It Is Not Eligible.

There have been some very good limericks sent in for the prize competition, but there may be better even yet. Remember that the prize is five and three dollars for first and second prize respectively.

The difficulty is that many do not recognize a limerick when they see it. Perhaps by showing one or two that are not correct they may get the idea by comparison. Here is one that is pretty nearly correct technically, although a great many will not agree with the sentiment: Little Arthur can make a good speech.

With his stories so tall, He can flim flam us all. What a pity he can't stay and preach!

In contrast with that here are one or two verses which were sent in, but which it will be seen at once are not in correct form: The date is now set for September And there is only one thing to remember, That Brady or York will soon be elected.

So bring in your vote and don't be dejected. Brady you are a scholar, A man of great renown, Starting out for Parliament A Liberal for to down. King is no King David, Nor Meighen Uncle Sam, Byng being banged Parliament And dissolved it as they sang. There is a leakage in the customs, There is grafting in the air, King has been dethroned And Meighen is in the chair.

SPORT CHAT

A record is claimed for John Weissmuller, swimming star of the Illinois A.C., in a performance in a 75-foot pool at New York. Amateur Athletic Union officials timed him in 2min. 14 2/5-sec. for the 220-yard breast-style, which is 1 1/5-sec. faster than his former mark.

Prize winner for tragedy as well as comedy at the latest examinations of the Conservatoire, the State School of Acting, Mademoiselle Marcelle Romeo had the flattering experience of being engaged by the Comedie-Francaise.

Tod Sloan was one of the greatest jockeys of all time Sloan had one great faculty—the ability to control animals. Not only horses, but all other animals. He could pick up a vicious cat or dog and have it as tame as you want it in five minutes.
