FINED FIVE DOLLARS FOR BARKING OF DOG

EDMONTON, Aug. 16. — Paul Robbota came pretty near to committing the crime of lese majesty, or something equally serious, when he permitted an Aisatian police dog that he owns to disturb the slumbers of Inspector Alec Riddle. Mr. Riddle is employed in the city health department, and it seems that he is an inspector of scenery—in back yards — microbes and strange noises. Anyway, he was the complainant when Robbota appeared before Magistrate Primrose in the city police court, charged with "disturbing the peace and quiet of Alexander Riddle."

Considerable discussion arose between his worship and City Prosecutor A. E. Popple as to the correct wording of the charge, and it was finally amended to read as above. Then the inspector and two stalwart gentlemen in blue stepped into the dock and spoke in aggrieved tones of the suffering and anguish they had sustained as a result of the unseemly barking of the unmannerly hound. The accused was fined $5 and costs.

ARE WRITING HISTORY SAYS MACKENZIE KING

"We are writing history in Canada now, one of the most interesting chapters in the history of the British Empire, and after September 14, the people of Great Britain and of all the British Dominions beyond the seas will read how valuable or otherwise the people of Canada regarded their constitutional rights. See to it then that this one link which keeps us all true to the British Empire is not broken by any violators of that greatest of all gifts and inheritances we have, our constitutional rights under the British constitution." — W. L. Mackenzie King.

TINY WHITE FLOWER AFTER LONG SEARCH

UNALASKA, Aug. 16. — More than 100 years ago a small white flower declared to grow only on this island of the Aleutian group, was found near here. During the last century botanists vainly searched for it. This summer the second specimen was obtained here by Prof. George Halsey, of St. Ignace College, San Francisco.

The bloom was first reported by a Frenchman who accompanied a party known as the Kotzebue expedition to this island in 1815-19. Five other parties came to hunt for it and left empty-handed.

VERY SMALL SUM TO START RAILWAY

The road's treasury at the time of its foundation contained but $35.45 in actual cash. Today its monthly payroll alone approximates $6,500,000.
