Annual Congregational Meeting Last Night and Sacramental Service in Morning

SIX NEW MEMBERS JOIN

Financial Condition of Organization Not Affected by Special Renovation Collection

Yesterday's services at the United Church were of special interest. In the morning a large number gathered for the sacramental service at which six new members joined the church.

The evening service was congregational night when the reports of the societies for the past year were given by the past presidents and treasurers.

Frank Vickers, the church treasurer, came up with a smile. He had feared that the spending i of $1,700 on church improvements would hurt the current Miss Pickford's new picture, ion of turf followers, will come say that the revenue was equal! to that of former years and this month would see all debts paid except those of the reconditioning fund.

Membership Survey

Rev. Geo. G. Hacker gave membership survey showing the history of the church since early tent days. The war scattered the members to ends of the earth and in revising lowest level in the church's history had been reached. then there had been a steady growth so that today the largest membership in the church's hisspoke with conviction regarding a deepening of the spiritual life of the communicants and that while growth had not been spectacular it had been sure, Don Marquis. sound, and steady. His slogan is "Be of good courage and boost for your church."

New Choir Leader

Mr. Hacker paid a glowing tribute to the faithfulness of A. J. Laneaster, the organist and choir leader, who had resigned. having found the duties too heavy when added to his other work. Mr. Lancaster has been organist for many years and has rarely missed a service. J. S. Wilson has been appointed choir leader and Miss M. A. Way organist, with Cliff Cameron as assistant, so no fear need be entertained as to the future of the music of the church.

Were Enthusiastic and Direct Benefit Expected to Ensue

The people were interested and showed enthusiasm for the cause and there will be a direct effect in the form of reduced forest destruction in the district this season believes P. S. Bonney, district forester, who returned to the city this morning after spending "Save the Forest Week" in the interior. Public meetings were held at Tefrace, Hazelton, Smithers, Telkwa and Burns Lake and a
