colleges and offices are not dieting as they fondly believe but are starving themselves and are reducing their resistance making themselves liable to every disease that is in the air, said Miss Emma F. Holloway, supervisor of institutional and dietetic courses at Pratt Institute here recently.

"A tiny snack for luncheon, if any luncheon at all, another tiny snack for dinner is proving disastrous to the modern girl who is so afraid of being overweight that she is not willing even to be normal weight," said Miss Holloway.

"Men, too, are at fault in their eating habits with their customary coffee and pie luncheons. They are reducing their vitality and making themselves liable to cold and pneumonia."

Mrs. C. R. Biggart returned to the city this afternoon from a holiday trip to Vancouver and other points in the south.

DEMOCRATS MAKE GAINS IN U.S. ELECTIONS REDUCING MAJORITIES OF REPUBLICANS BOTH HOUSES

They denounced what was denominated as "Vareism" and accused the opposition party with countenancing the debauchery of the electorate.

WOMEN IN ELECTION

Nineteen women sought to join the three holding seats in the House and those three asked for another term, and still another woman desired a place in the Senate.

This array of women candidates for congressional places in yesterday's elections was the largest in the history of the country and is but additional evidence that women are going in more and more for political honors.

Women candidates were scattered through twelve states, including those in the East which long resisted the movement from the West for universal suffrage.

The three women seeking to succeed themselves were Mrs. Florence P. Kahn, of California; Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, in Massachusetts, both elected to succeed their husbands who died in office, and Mrs. Mary T. Norton, Democrat, New Jersey.

Mrs. John W. Langley, Republican, of Kentucky, aspired to the seat from which her husband resigned after his conviction and sentence to the federal penitentiary at Atlanta for violation of the prohibition law.

Cordell Hull, former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and a minority leader in the House, was opposed by a woman—Mrs. Anna Thompson, Republican—in the Fourth Tennessee District.

New York had five women candidates, all running on the Socialist ticket, and Illinois had three, all Progressives.

Kentucky, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Massachusetts had two women candidates each, while one each was listed in Iowa, Washington, Idaho, California and Tennessee.

In Wisconsin the one woman seeking a Senate place, Mrs. Ella Sanford, ran on the Prohibition ticket.

Coughed So Hard Could Not Sleep

Mrs. Daniel Dickey, Lvn., Ont., writes:—"Last January I had a very severe cold and coughed so hard I could not sleep nights. I tried every thing, including doctor's medicine, but nothing gave me relief until I tried

I will never be without it in the house again."
