

Walking Champ Sits Out 96th Birthday

TEANECK, N.J. (AP)—Former walking champion James H. Hocking, 96 years old but still spry and chipper, won't take the long hike with which he usually ushers in his birthdays. Hocking had every intention of walking 20 miles through Palisades Interstate Park to mark the occasion today, but his son and family physician talked him out of it. Hocking, winner of several walkathons between 1910 and 1920, sounded off about what highway traffic has done to his pastime of walking. Said Hocking, now assistant managing editor of a physical culture magazine: "There's no place to walk safely nowadays. Main highways, secondary roads, even country lanes—traffic!" He says he walked 2,854 miles during his 95th year and more than 250,000 miles in his lifetime.

Wings Blank Hawks For Season's First Defeat

Canadiens Oust Rangers While Bruins Edge Leafs

By The Canadian Press

TORONTO.—Detroit Red Wings burst out last night in their flashing winning style of last season to hand first-place Chicago Black Hawks their first defeat in five games in the National Hockey League.

The Wings blanked the pace-setters 7-0 to leap within one point of first place and maintain their one-point edge over Montreal Canadiens who defeated New York Rangers 3-1 at Montreal.

BRUINS EDGE LEAFS
In the other game Boston edged Toronto Maple Leafs 2-1 for their first win in two games. The defeat was the Leafs' second in three engagements so far, their best effort having been a tie. They slid down into fifth place, two behind the Bruins and one point ahead of the Rangers who have yet to win or tie in three games. Other hockey scores: WHL—Seattle 3, Edmonton 3.

But I do think it is necessary over and over again to check and re-check what Jesus Himself and all those ancient inspired writers did put down.

Every time I read any of it in any Bible, Catholic or Protestant, I find something new, some fresh inspiration, or some new
