LOCAL AMATEURS TO STAGE FARCE

WESTHOLME THEATRE IS BEING BOOKED OUT FOR TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY NIGHTS

There has been a large advance sale of tickets for the farce, "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," that is to be staged Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in the Westholme Theatre by the Prince Rupert Players' Club for the Gyro playground fund and all indications are that the theatre will be crowded both evenings.

The story of "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" is built around the prevarications of a fond "hubby" who got stuck in a Ferris wheel overnight with a fair friend and who, returning to "wifie" the next morning in a rather disheveled appearance, had considerable explanations to make. The motif is clever and the play should prove a really pleasant diversion for local theatre-goers who are seldom given such a treat.

The cast, introducing several young people who are making their first bow on the local stage, will be as follows:

Jack Temple, Syd Hunter.
Frank Fuller, Jim Palmer.
Captain Sharp, Dick Howe.
Wigson, the butler, Harold Ponder.
John Brown, George Pearson.
Mrs. Temple, Miss Mackay.
Dorothy, Miss Virginia Riel.
Mrs. Fuller, Miss Louie Fisher.
Mrs. Brown, Miss Nora Rivett.

A. A. Connon, who has been unsparingly giving of time to have the play properly staged, will be director. Mrs. David Thomson and Miss Etanda Marsh will be costumierres and certain of the uniforms will be loaned by Mrs. Parker's Ready-to-Wear. Furniture will be loaned by George D. Tite.

ROPE AND HORSE PLAY FEATURES PICTURE IN WHICH TOM MIX STARS

Tom Mix, star of the Fox Films production "My Own Pal," has ample opportunity to display his daring horsemanship and his skill with the rope in this thrilling film which comes to the Westholme theatre tonight only.

In it, he is Tom O'Hara who comes to the city in search of thrills and joins the mounted police. In this character Tom puts Tony, his horse, through all his tricks for the benefit of his fellow police officers and shows how handy a rope can come in when crooks are to be apprehended and tied fast until further notice.

But he does not use his rope exclusively for the capture of thieves—he gains his way into the force because he has saved the niece of the chief from being injured in a runaway accident.

Vivacious little Olive Borden was selected to play opposite Mix in this production. Little Virginia Marshall is cast as his pal Jill. Others in the cast are Tom Santchi, Tom McGuire, Bardson Bard, Jacques Rollens and Helen Lynch.

"MIDNIGHT FLYER" IS SPECTACULAR DRAMA

Roaring Romance of the Rails with Locale in Feud Infested West Virginia

A roaring romance of the rails, distinctive both in setting and characterization, comes to the Westholme on Thursday night when "The Midnight Flyer," has its showing here. The locale is the feud-infested West Virginia mountains, and the antipathy of some of the irascible old mountaineers to "The railroaders" starts the action rolling "High, wide and handsome!" A series of great thrills and wonderful fights culminates in a daring jump between two locomotives on parallel tracks, travelling at seventy miles an hour. The boy engineer who has been called "yellow" by his comrades makes the intrepid leap from a freight engine to the cab of the runaway "Special:" and in this rocking, swaying cab one of the most thrilling of battles takes place, with a burly, crazed mountaineer pitted against the hero. This whirlwind caps a phenominal film with a prodigious punch, and provides the last word in glittering speed.

There is an excellent cast headed by such players as Cullen Landis, Dorothy Devore, Buddy Post, Charles Mails, Frankie Darro, Claire McDowell, Barbara Tennant, Elmo Billings and Alphonz Ethier.

The picture is based on two separate stories by Arthur Guy Empey, and this wealth of material has been combined into a cohesive, interest compelling whole.

SILLS SURPASSES SELF IN LATEST "HE-MAN" ROLE

Thrills of the sort you see once in a lifetime are promised for motion picture patrons in "Men of Steel," the big steel "special" which Earl Hudson just completed for First National, with Milton Sills in the starring role.

Sills has always been known as a "he-man." In past pictures he has been called upon to perform some hard feats, but in "Men of Steel" he surpasses anything in the "he-man" stuff that he has ever done on the screen.

For example, there is a scene in which Sills, hanging from an iron hook and chain, is swung down into a vat in a steel mill in which Victor McLaglen is threatened with death from molten steel that is surging toward him. McLaglen grasps Sills' feet and a huge crane swings Sills and his heavy and precious burden out of the vat and over masses of molten steel, depositing him in safety at the other end of the big room.

This was staged in the Ensley Mills of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company plant at Birmingham, Ala., and had the steel workers on edge while it was being filmed. McLaglen is a big, heavy man, and when the scene was over Sills knew he had been carrying a real burden. A slip would have meant anything to both of them, but Sills would not stand for a "double" taking his place.

That is just one of the many thrills that will lift this picture far above the ranks of ordinary "specials."

"Men of Steel" is coming to the Westholme theatre here Friday and Saturday.

PRINCE RUPERT AIDS CAMPAIGN

SUPPORTS MOVEMENT FOR HOME ECONOMICS CHAIR AT UNIVERSITY OF B.C.

Throughout the province and particularly where there are Parent Teacher Associations much thought is being exercised towards means of putting into action steps towards the early financing of the Chair of Home Economics in the Provincial University.

The aim of the Provincial Association, backed by the local Parent Associations, is to raise sufficient funds to endow a chair of Home Economics in the University of British Columbia. The University authorities are in complete agreement with the project and the University buildings will provide ample accommodation. It is the payment of the salaries that the fund has in mind.

The Prince Rupert local is backing the project to the limit and the executive has been working on plans. It has set in the meantime, the rather modest objective of $300.

Prince Rupert has one of the finest and best equipped Home Economics schools in the province and excellent work is being done under Mrs. Darlington. Those who are conversant with the curriculum and the standard of work are the most enthusiastic supporters of the scheme to provide means of supplying Home Economics instructresses from this province and not to have to obtain them from outside sources.

Other locals report most encouraging results from their effects already. After three days' canvas Westminster had $500, Kerrisdale $300. Miss Lightfoot, ex-supervisor of Home Economics in Vancouver, made a personal donation of $100. Girls in Prince Rupert, the Domestic Science class of the High School have sent $20.

An organized canvas, under the Prince Rupert Parent Teacher Association, is now under way and it is hoped that the efforts will be met with a response that will be a credit to Prince Rupert, and a real help to the funds of the committee in charge. The ladies who are giving their time toward the work are Mrs. Arnott, Mrs. Burt, Mrs. Christison, Mrs. Dalgarno, Mrs. Galland, Mrs. J. P. MacMillan, Mrs. O.-Neill, Mrs. D. C. Stuart, Mrs. Thurber, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. B. West.

SPORT CHAT

Basketball games will be played this week on Monday and Thursday instead of Tuesday and Friday evenings. Tonight the games will be; Senior League—Elks vs. Terminals; Intermediate League—Grotto vs. Bankers; Ladies' League—Maple Leafs vs. Adanacs. On Thursday night the games will be as follows: Senior League—Native Sons vs. Elks; Intermediates—Native Sons vs. Bankers; Junior—Colts vs. Stars.

Having found that the evening programs recently have been dragging out to an hour that has been too late to suit the fans or allow the players to do their best, the Prince Rupert Basketball Association has decided that its games in future will be started earlier and more promptly. With three games on the schedule tonight, the first—the Intermediate — will start sharp at 7:15 followed by the Ladies' game and the Senior fixture which will thus start about nine o'clock. On nights when four games are to be played, the opening will be at 6.30 sharp.

With the closing of school next week for the Christmas holidays, a boys' basketball team representing the Anyox High School will arrive here on the morning of Friday, December 17, and will engage in a series of games with the Prince Rupert High School boys on that and the following night. This feature will be added to the regular basketball fixtures on the night of December 17 and arrangements will be made to supplement the inter High School games the next evening. The Anyox delegation will be led by Jimmie Mitchell, of the High School staff, who is coming with Mrs. Mitchell and the young heir for the Christmas holidays.

Other fixtures this week will be the St. Andrews vs. Grotto in the Billiard League tomorrow night and the Graind Terminals vs. Moose on Friday night. Tomorrow night the Ladies' Whist League games will be Orange Ladies vs. Pythian Sisters and St. George's Ladies vs. Moose Ladies. The first half of the men's whist schedule has been completed and tonight the Cribbage league will wind up until after Christmas with the following games: Grotto vs. Knights of Columbus; Canadian Legion vs. Dry Dock; Orange Lodge vs. C. N. Operators; Prince Rupert Hotel vs. St. Andrews; C. N. Mechanics vs. Moose; Sons of Canada vs. Cold Storage.

During Babe Ruth's visit in Vancouver last week, there was a competition to name the best collection of baseball players of all time in the Big League. Babe chose the winners as follows:

Pitchers — Christy Matthewson, Cy Young, Walter Johnson, Alexander, Chief Bender.
