WELL KNOWN COUPLE WED

Announcement is Made of Marriage of Miss Gracie Ackroyd and Art Easson on January 25

Many local friends of the contracting couple will be interested to learn of the marriage which took place quietly in Vancouver on January 25 of Miss Gracie Ackroyd and Arthur A. Easson. Announcement of the wedding is now being made.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Easson resided in Prince Rupert for several years and shared a great deal of popularity amid the young people of the city, particularly in musical and amateur dramatic circles. Mrs. Easson left the city last year with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ackroyd, to take up residence in Vancouver. Mr. Easson left Prince Rupert about a year ago after having been accountant in the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada for several years during which time he took a prominent part in athletics.

Congratulations and best wishes will be generally extended to the couple who have taken up their residence on Laburnum St. Kitsilano Beach, Vancouver.

She Couldn't Sleep Heart Was So Bad

Mrs. J. D. McClintock, Charlottetown, P.E.I., writes:—"About a year ago I was greatly troubled with my heart.

I could not sleep at night, and was so nervous I imagined that I could see everything in the room moving, and would have to turn on the lights before I could get to sleep.

After having read of your

I took several boxes of them, and can now get a full night's sleep without any trouble, and feel fine in every way."

POLICE COMMISSION IN FIGHTING FOR ITS LIFE OBTAINS LEGAL ADVICE

was entitled to know about that. Mr. Jones replied that the matter of cost was entirely in the hands of the city council.

Mayor Newton agreed with the suggestion of Commissioner Montgomery that outside legal advice should be sought. The fact that two of the police commissioners had been elected by acclamation and that, despite criticism, he himself had been returned to office, was an indication to His Worship that the people of the city were not very dissatisfied with conditions as they now prevailed. The police commission, he felt, should not lay down until the matter had been thoroughly looked into.

Interview Patmore

After some further discussion, Commissioner Montgomery moved that advice on the matter be obtained from Mr. Patmore to ascertain if the action of the city council was binding and if the Police and Prisoners' Act actually repealed the authority vested in the police commission by the Municipal Act. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Frizzell and was declared unanimously carried by the mayor.

The mayor and the two police commissioners then proceeded to the office of Mr. Patmore. After a brief interview, it was announced that Mr. Patmore had taken the matter under advisement and would deliver his opinion early next week.

Mrs. C. B. Flewin and Miss Nightingale and Miss MacKay of the native school teaching staff at Port Simpson, are week-end visitors in town having arrived from Simpson on the Catala this morning.
