COAL STRIKE IS PRACTICALLY ENDED

CUSTOMS COMMISSION IS NOW SITTING IN VANCOUVER

Emergency Regulations in Old Country Will Be Cancelled Very Shortly

Conclusion of long industrial struggle will see many miners permanently unemployed--may get agricultural training

LONDON, December 3 .- The coal strike is practically ended y agreements that have been concluded in the majority of the coal ields and the government will shortly cancel emergency regulations | + + + + + + although the prohibition on the export of coal will likely be maintained for some time yet. The official estimate of the number of miners permanently losing employment is two hundred thousand which will add a tremendous burden to the national unemployment funds. ALASKA SALMON CONTRARY TO CUSTOM APPEAR IN ICY RIVERS

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Dec. 3.—Salmon have violated the customs of their species by appearing this winter in icy inland waters thus saving hundreds of Indians of the lower Yukon from starvation. At Mulato it is reported that the natives are there catching salmon in the icecovered river with a baled hook.

Before the salmon were discovered in the river the food supply of the Indians had been curtailed by the unusual absence of small game.
