SEATTLE AND VANCOUVER BY CONSERVATIVE DELEGATES

A few of the delegates from Prince Rupert Conservative Convention took the opportunity last Sunday of enjoying a motor ride on the splendid highway which connects Vancouver and Seattle. Some distance out from New Westminster they stopped at the ranch of Tom Maitland- former alderman of Prince Rupert-to renew old acquaintances. Tom is quite satisfied with his little ranch where he is interested in raising chickens in a small way but freely admits there is sometimes longing to renew old acquaintances in the north. The visitors were treated very hospitably, and it was with difficulty that they eventually continued their journey after answering many questions which Tom asked concerning old friends in Rupert.

Both Tom and Mrs. Maitland seem to enjoying the best of health alhough Tom complains of a recurrence of rheumatism contracted in the days of

SMITHERS LIVERY CONCERN CHANGES HANDS THIS WEEK

SMITHERS, Dec. 3 .- One of the most important business transactions made in Smithers for some time was concluded Wednesday evening when agreements were signed whereby the ownership of the City Transfer changed hands from W. F. Boyer to Angus McLean, the deal being completed through the firm of Henry & Hetherington.

Mr. Boyer had the business for about seven years and, from an outfit of a couple of teams and drays, made it into one of the most extensive concerns of this nature in the district, and today the equipment has several teams of horses, a fleet of trucks and cars, large barns and warehouses, etc.

Mr. Boyer has been in poor health for some time, and has decided to seek a change of surroundings.

Angus McLean, the new owner, is a pioneer of the district and well known through the valley, having been road superintendent with the Provincial Public Works Department a few years ago.
