LORD WILLINGDON SPEAKS OF NEW OFFICE

PRINCIPAL OF HIGH SCHOOL IS NAMED BY TORIES AS THEIR CANDIDATE

New Governor General of Canada is Honored with Dinner in London

Points to his political career as proof that he can hardly be suspected of being partizan

LONDON, July 23.—"It will be my great privilege during the next five years to help Canada to achieve her great promise," Viscount Willingdon, the Governor General-elect, said during an address in his honor last evening. For the benefit of those who might have judged from his earlier political career that he would be partizan, the new Governor General pointed out that he had been made Governor General of Bombay by Herbert H. Asquith, Liberal; Governor General of Madras by Lloyd George, Liberal; had been created a viscount during the regime of Ramsay MacDonald, Labor, and the latest and greatest appointment had been at the hands of Premier Baldwin, Conservative. The viscount said: "This record probably shows that I must be an extremely bad politician, but at least I hope it may reassure those who doubt and let them feel I shall be an impartial and fair minded person in undertaking the great duties of this important post."

MEIGHEN OPENS CAMPAIGN EAST

Makes Usual Tory Undertaking and Tells of Policy Regarding Transportation.

MONCTON, July 23. — In his opening address of the election campaign in the Maritime Provinces, Premier Meighen last night, after reviewing the administration of the customs department, charged that, while the Liberals had removed the luxury tax in Canada, they had increased the sales tax on clothing sixty-six per cent. His policy, he said, would be for honest administration of public affairs and for a tariff which would make for stability. He urged the maintenance of a consistent tariff structure over the whole field of industry.

Regarding the matter of transportation in which the Maritimes are greatly interested, Mr. Meighen said that the jurisdiction of the railway board should be kept intact, but that the government should itself assist the rate upon which basic products are to reach the central provinces in order that the expectations of Confederation might be realized.

James C. Brady Is Choice of Conservatives to Seek Election to Federal House

James C. Brady, principal of the Prince Rupert High School for the past fourteen years, last night received the Conservative nomination to contest Skeena riding in the forthcoming federal election. He was chosen at the party convention held in the Emad Hall and his nomination was made unanimous after a vote had been taken between himself and Frank Dockrill, of Telkwa. It was on the latter's motion that Mr. Brady's nomination was made unanimous after the vote had given him a majority. The only other name before the convention was that of C. H. Orme of this city who refused to enter the contest for the nomination. The convention was attended by a full quota of Prince Rupert delegates as well as many from outside points in the riding. The meeting lasted until midnight, organization work being started after the candidate had been selected.

Mr. Brady, who first came to Prince Rupert in 1912 ,enjoys a full measure of popularity, is an eloquent speaker and is expected to make a good run in the Conservative interest. He is an Irishman by birth and came to Canada in 1912 from New Zealand where he had been engaged for several years in academic work. Before that he was in South Africa, Gibraltar and Australia. Before coming to Prince Rupert he was a member of the Nanaimo High School staff for six months. It was only recently that he has become definitely associated with politics, although it is understood that his name was mentioned as a possible candidate in the 1925 federal contest and for the past few weeks it was expected that he might be the Conservative choice for the present campaign.

After their names had been put up, both Mr. Brady and Mr. Dockrill spoke along general lines, promising that which ever one got a majority on the first vote, the other would withdraw and make the nomination unanimous. The meeting was presided over by J. E. Merryfield, Conservative organizer for the province, at the request of Mr. Orme, the president, who was also a delegate.

After the nomination had been decided, C. H. Orme, was re-elected president of the Skeena District Liberal Conservative Association and W. W. Wright, secretary.
