MRS. CHARLES EDENSHAW DIED AT MASSETT ON AFTERNOON OF TUESDAY

One of the leading native women of Massett village passed away at 5 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon last when the death occurred of Mrs. Charles Edenshaw, relict of the late Haida chief and sister of Henry Edenshaw. Her demise is a great loss to the native community of Massett and there is general mourning. The funeral takes place today.

The late Mrs. Edenshaw, who was about seventy years of age, is survived by a large family among her children being some of the best and most favorably known present day residents of Massett Inlet.

ALFRED ADAMS OF MASSETT WAS ON VISIT TO KLAWACK

Alfred Adams of Massett, who is visiting the city as a lay delegate to the Anglican diocesan synod, recently made a gasboat trip with his family and a couple of friends from Massett Inlet to Klawack near Craig, west of Skagway, Alaska, to attend a convention of the Christian Endeavor Union of Alaska. Mr. Adams found the trip one of great interest and visited a number of points in the neighborhood of Klawack. Klawack he found to be one of the most progressive native villages in the country. The natives there are of a high type and, among other institutions, conduct canneries, a sawmill, general stores and a moving picture house. The village is electrically lighted throughout.

SKIDEGATE

Most of the residents around the Inlet have been laid up with influenza and some of the cases have been rather serious. It delayed the native trolling fleet going to Hippo Island but all are recovering and the fleet will be out in strength soon.

The motorship Lillehorn, under charter by the Canadian National, came into Queen Charlotte City with a cargo of coal for the survey steamer Lillooet. It was discharging on a large barge kept for the purpose.

Splendid progress is being made with the repairs and additions to the Aliford Bay canneries. When completed the cannery will be able to handle 80,000 salmon a day.

School Inspector Fraser inspected all the schools here recently going to Sandspit, Queen Charlotte, Skidegate and Dead Tree. He expressed himself as much pleased with the work being done.

Mrs. J. Wilson, Port George, N.S., writes:—"I suffered from palpitation of the heart and fainting spells, and, at times, I could not be left alone I was so nervous.

INTERMEDIATE SOCCER GAME RESULTS IN DRAW

Y Macs and High School Played to Three all Score Last Evening

In the Intermediate League football game last night between the Y Macs and the High School, the result was a 3 to 3 draw. It was anyboby's game all the way through, each team at times holding the lead. Both sides showed improved form from last week.

For the High School, Baisler, Mackay and Mortimer were in stellar role while Phillips, Strachan and Dickens, forwards, and Hacker, in goal, showed up well for the Y Macs.

Sonny Dickens was referee.

The teams lined up as follows:

Y Macs—Hacker; Reid and Cameron; Roberts, Kelsey and Heilbroner; Gawthorn, Dickens, Strachan, Bond and Phillips.

High School—Kinslor; Bond and Baisler; Parker, Cade and Mortimer; E. Katsuyama, Y. Katsuyama, Mackay, Matheson and Sakamoto.

SPORT CHAT

The Moose and Grand Terminals come up tonight at the Acropolis Hill grounds in their second football meeting of the season in the Stuart Shield series. In their first match, the Terminals had an easy victory over the Moose by 5 to 1 but the latter team scored over the Cold Storage last week 4 to 3 after the Storage had given the Terminals a close run for their money in the preceding game. A good number of fans are inclined to believe that the Moose have a real good chance of turning the tables on the Terminals tonight and a close match is expected. The Terminals will be at somewhat of a disadvantage this evening through the fact that Harry Menzies, one of their star defence men, has been banished from the field for a month.

Line-ups for the Senior League football fixture tonight between the Moose and Grand Terminals will be as follows:

Moose—Gawthorn; Murray and Currie; Skinner, Currie and Mitchell; Gurvich, Hodgkinson, Russell, H. Hamilton and Woodman; reserves, Mack and White.

Grand Terminals — D. Howe, G. Howe and V. Menzies; P. O'Donnell, Dickens and Pearson; Walters, De Jong, Wiper, W. Mitchell and Farquhar; reserve, W. Stickney.

England is cricket mad this summer. A team representing Australia is in the Old Country to defend the mythical "ashes," or win the rubber of five Test Matches to be played between the "Aussies" and England. Interest taken in these games in England can only be compared to that which grips America during the progress of the baseball World Series. The term "ashes" was the invention of a newspaper in 1882 after England had lost a memorable game against the Australians by seven runs. Arising out of that defeat the newspaper published an "In Memoriam" as follows:—"In affectionate remembrance of English cricket which died at the Oval on August 29, 1882, Deeply Lamented by a large circle of sorrowing friends and acquaintances. R. I. P. N. B.—The body will be cremated, and the Ashes taken to Australia." The game will last for three days from 11 a.m. until 6.30 p.m. with forty five minutes interval for lunch and fifteen minutes for tea.

TRAP SHOOTING.

Scores were made as follows at the weekly trap shoot of the Prince Rupert Gun Club on the Park Avenue range last evening.
