FIGHTING AGAINST REDUCTION IN TRAIN SERVICE AT EDMONTON

EDMONTON, Feb. 23.— J. H. Chinneck, special representative of the board of railway commissioners, accompanied by G. J. Fox, district superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, met the council of the Edmonton board of trade, in reference to representations made by the board, and by other boards of trade between Edmonton and Hardisty, against a proposal to curtail the present local service between Edmonton and Hardisty.

The C.P.R. had proposed to curtail the present daily service on the Hardisty local train, to a tri-weekly one, but, due to protests made by the boards of trade concerned, the board of railway commissioners held up the proposed curtailment, which was to have gone into effect February 15, until they could receive the report of the special representative, Mr. Chinneck.

After hearing both Mr. Chinneck and Mr. Fox, the council of the Edmonton board of trade adopted a resolution protesting against the proposed curtailment, and suggesting that if a daily service on the Hardisty local could not be maintained as a steam train, the same service should be provided by means of a gas-electric car.

In The Letter Box

BRITISH JUSTICE.

Editor, Daily News.

Under the heading of "Fair Play to Every Man," the natives of this province included, does it seem fair to have this city patrolled by Dominion constables who make it a point to be especially vigilant twice yearly, namely, in the Fall after the Indian is through fishing and in the spring when he has sold his furs? Under the guise of law and order, the men arrest Indians whom they suspect of being under the influence of liquor and thereby collect half the fines. The consequence is that the Indians are slowly but surely avoiding this city. One Indian, a highly respectable chief, to my personal knowledge, last week informed a police authority here that, on account of persecution he met with, he was not coming back to Prince Rupert again and that he would urge all his friends not to do so. The loss of the Indians' business means thousands of dollars to Prince Rupert.

Is it not high time that the present system of 50-50 on the spoils of fines were abolished? The business men of Prince Rupert should protest strongly against this unfair practice as the Indians, as a body, are just as sober as the white men and they want to come to Prince Rupert to transact their business but not to be imposed upon by the law which should protect them.

FUTURITY STAKES PRIZES $130,000

Old Country Breeders as Well as American Take Interest in Event

NEW YORK, Feb. 23. — The New York Herald-Tribune notes that the fact that the Futurity Stakes of 1928 should surpass its former record in the way of entries is not so astonishing as the fact that it should receive more than 100 nominations from foreign breeders and fanciers of thoroughbreds; for it was generally supposed that support for this classic event, as in the past would be confined largely to this continent.

There is proof of an extraordinary international interest in racing when representative men and women engaged in blood-stock production in England, Ireland and France name the best of their mares for the Westchester Racing Association's chief fixture for two-year-olds. The fact that the prize will be worth in the neighborhood of $130,000 is, no doubt, a stimulant. But other considerations had something to do with the result that has been so heartening to resident Joseph E. Widener and his associates in the management of Belmont Park. The international races of 1923 and 1924 must be credited with playing a part.

The increasing patronage accorded foreign markets by American breeders was undoubtedly another incentive. It stands to reason that a mare whose progeny is eligible to race for the richest turf prize in the world will command a better figure at auction or private sale. It is all a matter of business, and good business, too, patronizing stakes like the Futurity.

The time is coming, says the Herald-Tribune, when double or treble the number of foreign entries will be made for the race. Inaugurated in 1888, it has been one of the bulwarks of the blood-stock-breeding industry in this country ever since. The 1,952 entries for 1928 may easily become 2,100 or more for the Futurity of 1930.

Here is the Proof

That Dr. Chase's Ointment does positively relieve the most severe cases of piles.

While Dr. Chase's Ointment is recognized everywhere as the standard treatment for piles you may be interested in this letter which describes one particular case. There are thousands of similar cases.

Mrs. Wm. Hughes, Appin, Ont. writes:—

"Dr. Chase's Ointment cannot be equalled. I used it for protruding piles of the worst kind. When the Doctor said an operation was the only hope, I began to prepare for one, when I remembered reading about Dr. Chase's Ointment. I resolved to try it, and after using two boxes I had no trace of the piles. It was the greatest relief I ever got, and I only hope other sufferers who read this letter will lose no time in purchasing a box, and see for themselves the miracles it works. It will be the best investment they ever put their money into."

SPORT CHAT

The central interior boasts of two athletic sky pilots, the prowess of whom has just recently become known. Rev. W. A. Ashford of Burns Lake is a sprinter and, on his behalf, T. G. Martin, himself a long distance runner, has sent a communication to Prince George that he is prepared to meet all comers in Prince George at any time. It is possible that some event wherein the Burns Lake pastor may participate will be arranged for the next stampede in Prince George on July 1 and 2. Ashford is prepared to cover the 100, 200 and 440 yard distances while Martin will enter the mile and three mile races. The second interior parson-athlete is Rev. H. Kuring of Prince George who met four of that city's speediest racing skaters in a two-mile race at an ice carnival that was held at the end of last week in Prince George.

The Prince George city council is behind its hockey team last week when it made a grant of $150 to the athletic association of that city, the money to be used in assisting to finance the trip of the Prince George hockey team to compete in the provincial amateur championships. After a lot of discussion on the part of the city fathers all recognizing the valuable service to the community of the athletic association but some favoring a $200 grant and others a $100 grant, it was agreed to split the difference and give $150. The Prince George hockey team is now making final preparations for its trip to either Revelstoke or Vernon where it will engage in the playoffs with winning towns from the southern part of the province for the British Columbia championship.

The final tournament of the schedule, deciding the season's championship in the first division billiard league, will be played this evening. The teams will meet as follows:

Col. S. P. McMordie (Vets), vs George Mellmoyle (Billiard Parlor), at Vets 3 p.m.

Sgt. Jebson vs. George Waugh at Vets 8.30 p.m.

Fred Pyle vs. Don Brown at Vets 7.30 p.m.

W. Long vs. C. Balagno at Billiard Parlor 3 p.m.

J. Andrews vs. W. Stickney at Billiard Parlor 8 p.m.
