STINK BOMBS ARMY MEETING

Woman Went Into Hysterics and Medical Aid Had to be Called For One

Bombs emitting obnoxious odors were hurled into a packed Salvation Army Citadel meeting Sunday night, throwing the audience into a panic which was not quelled until police appeared at the scene and an ambulance conveyed several hysterical women to their homes, says the Edmonton Bulletin.

Neighborhood youths are believed to have been responsible and investigations are now being made.

Medical Aid Called

Miss Lang of 12751 127th Street, one of those removed in Foster & Patterson's ambulance, was in such hysterics that medical aid was summoned after she reached home. Three other women were completely nerve shattered by the experience and had to be taken home, while scores of others rushed from the building when the explosions caused the women to break out into loud shrieks.

The explosions occurred just before the close of the service and when the panic subsided the meeting was broken up immediately.

TWO POLICENMEN MAKE SEARCH

Travel Through Virgin Forests and Endure Hardships in Try- to Find Missing Men.

VICTORIA, Aug. 12.—A brief reort received from the headquarters of the provincial police today told an epic story of frontier life in the country north of Prince George.

During a 40 0mile trip into the Cassiar, Constable Muirhead, of the provincial police, and Constable Fenton, of the mounted police, experienced terrific hardships in a country where no white man had travelled before when conducting a fruitless search for McClare and Saunders, American prospectors, who have been missing more than a year.

Travelling on rafts and trudging through virgin snow, the officers were virtually forced to shoot their pack animals. At Thutade Lake they found Indians who worked with the two prospectors in the summer and fall of 1923. At Brothers Lake they discovered the cabin in which the pair spent the winter. All other trace of the men was lost.

Retracing their stess, the officers arrived at Prince George on July 28, more than two months after they set out.

TERRACE GIRL WAS MARRIED

Miss Sylvia Mildred Taft Becomes Bride of R. E. Hogan of Pacific

TERRACE, Aug. 12.—A very pretty ceremony was solemnized on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the priest's home on Park Avenue when Miss Sylvia Mildred, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taft of Terrace, B.C., was united in marriage to Reginald Edwarh Hogan, of Pacific, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hogan of Prince George, Father Charties of the local Catholic Church officiating.

The bride was very becomingly gowned in mauve and silver shot taffeta with pretty ribbon trimmings and wore a white and mauve hat to match. Her bouquet was of mauve sweet peas.

Miss Opal Cassells, as bridesmaid, wore a very pretty dress of pale green silk crepe de chene with white trimmings and white hat, and carried white sweet peas.

Lester Taft, brother of the bride, was best man.

After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride where a dainty wedding luncheon was served.

In the evening a reception was held in Progress Hall and a very enjoyable evening was spent in dancing to music supplied by Mrs. Attwood and John De Kergommeaux. Refreshments were served during the evening.

The happy couple left on yesterday's train for Pacific where the groom is employed in the C.N.R. shops.

THIEPVAL IS HERE TODAY

Canadian Naval Vessel With 25 Aboard Making Short Visit

H.M.S.C. Thiepval, Lieutenant-Commander Godfrey R.C.N., arrived in port at 12.30 this afternoon from the Royal Canadian Barracks, Esquimalt, and moored at the headquarters of the Roya' Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve. The vessel, which carries a complement of 25 men, will remain in port for four days. At present her future movements are not known.

The Thiepval is a sister ship of the Givenchy and is engaged on coastal patrol duty.

It was the Thiepval that played a prominent part in the attempted round-the-world flight of Major MacLaren, the British airman, some three years ago when she laid supply stations at various points between the Canadian and Japanese coasts.

CHEWED BY BEAR IN HIS OWN DEN

Young Indian Made a Wager He Would Fight Bear and Did So With Horrible Result.

EDMONTON, Aug. 12. — The story of a laughingly made wager which very nearly resulted in the horrible death of a young Indian, is told by Pierre Richard and Jean de Maurier, two trappers from Aklavik, who came to the city recently after spending three years in the Barren Lands.

According to the story which these men tell, Albert Moreau, a young Indian from Aklavik district, who was at the time trapping in the same district as the two white men, made a wager with two of his companions that he would kill a Barren Lands grizzly, a secies of bear which resembles in size and color, the ordinary grizzly, with his hunting knife.

Crawled Into Den

The others called his bluff, and signified that they would like to be present at the killing. Accordingly the den of a grizzly was located, and when the inhabitant was at home, Moreau fearlessly crawled into the den, knife in hand.

Angry at the intrusion, the animal attacked him viciously, and there followed a fierce struggle, the details of which were not clear to those waiting outside. A moment later Moreau appeared, his limbs horribly mangled by the grizzly which followed him out of the den.

Prepared for the emergency, the other Indians promptly poured a volley of lead into the animal, and the youth escaped, pretty well chewed up but otherwise alive and well, to tell the tale.

MUNICIPAL INSPECTOR WAS VISITOR TO CITY

R. Baird, inspector of B. C. municipalities, arrived in the city on the Prince George yesterday morning on a regular tour of inspection. Mr. Baird was taken around the city by members of the city council and inspected the road work which is now being undertaken. The inspector expressed himself as well pleased with the progress the city is making with their local improvement program.

Mr. Baird left on this morning's train for Prince George en route to Vernon, where he will attend the convention of the Union of B. C. Municipalities.

SPORT CHAT

A new long distance record for a woman swimmer in the province of Alberta was recently made by Mrs. G. Parsons, who covered four miles and 309 yards in three hours and 35 minutes.

Vic Foley and Jack Newman are to meet in the Exhibition Hall during the fall fair. Both men have an enviable record in Canadian boxing circles. They are to arrive in the city several days prior to the bout and will establish individual training quarters in the city. To see boxers in training, who take their work seriously, is an education and will doubtless prove of much interest to the young men of the city, to say nothing of the female fight fans.

Horse racing in Ohio probably is doomed, unless track managements are willing to operate without betting. The Thistledown Track recently cancelled the racing program. Attorney-General C. C. Crabbe has declared that the injunction, which prohibits betting, would be used as a basis for action against all tracks where the pari-mutuel or certificate form of betting is permitted.

Gene Tunney, challenger of Jack Dempsey, recently arrived at Speculator, New York, where he has established his training camp for the bout with the champion in September. Tunney has started his training with light road work.

Louis "Kid" Kaplan of Meridan, Conn., retired featherweight champion, recently scored an impressive ten-round victor, over Tomy Cello of Los Angeles, in his first appearance as a lightweight in New York. Kaplan weighed 134 and Cello 130¼ pounds.

ONE-SIDED SOCCER GAME LAST NIGHT

In a game that was featured only by the spirited battle of the losers, the Naval Reserve had an easy time disposing of the High School by a 12 to 4 count. The reserve kicking downhill in the first half had by far the better of the exchanges and possessed themselves of a four goal lead.

With the slope in their favor the High School worked hard and managed to run in four goals. Despite the fact that they were defeated by an 8 goal margin the school boys deserve credit for their showing. For the latter Veirick, Currie and Katsuyama showed up well, while for the Reserve Chenosky, Sims and Dyer were probably the best.

Aim to Please

I see you have a sign in your store, 'We Aim to Please,'" remarked the customer.

"Certainly," replied the proprietor; "that is our motto."

"Well," continued the customer, "you ought to take a little time off for target practice." — Cincinnati Enquirer.
